Auer (Oct. 11, 1941 – March 9, 2019), who graduated from Coral Gables (Fla.) High School, scored the first touchdown in the history of the Dolphins. On Sept. 2, 1966, the Dolphins played their first game as an expansion team against Oakland at the Orange Bowl. He led the inaugural team in rushing with 416 yards and 4 touchdowns on the ground and added 22 receptions for 263 yards and 4 TDs through the air and was named the team's Most Valuable Player. After two seasons with the Dolphins, he ended his career with Atlanta in 1968. Auer was originally drafted by Kansas City in the 1963 AFL draft and then was traded that preseason to Buffalo. He started for two years at running back on Buffalo's 1964 and 1965 AFL championship teams.

Braatz (May 12, 1933 – Oct. 30, 2018) was named as Miami's director of college scouting in 1992, a position he held until retiring in 2003. Prior to his tenure with the Dolphins, Braatz joined the expansion Atlanta Falcons as a part-time area scout in 1965. In 1968, he was promoted to director of player personnel and was named general manager from 1982-85. In 1987, he was hired by Green Bay as the franchise's first director of football operations, a position he held for five years through the 1991 season. Braatz originally entered the NFL as a 14th round pick of Washington in 1955, but he spent two years out of football while serving in the Korean War from 1955-56 as a crypto operator. He returned football in 1957, playing both defensive end and linebacker for Washington (1957-58, 1959), the L.A. Rams (1958) and Dallas (1960-61).

Costello (April 8, 1932 – June 22, 2019) spent the 1974 season as Miami's defensive coordinator. Prior to joining the Dolphins, Costello played linebacker for 12 seasons with the Cleveland (1956-66) and the N.Y. Giants (1967-68). Following his playing career, he served as linebackers coach for Cincinnati (1969-73) and, after his stint with the Dolphins, he was the defensive coordinator with Kansas City (1975-76).

Heckert (July 17, 1967 – Aug. 5, 2018) had a 10-year stint with the Dolphins (1991-2000), spending his first nine seasons as both a pro and college scout. He also served as the Dolphins' assistant director of pro personnel and college scout in 1999, before being promoted to director of pro personnel in 2000. Following his Dolphins tenure, Heckert went to Philadelphia as director of player personnel in 2001 before being promoted to vice president of player personnel in 2003. Heckert was then general manager of Cleveland from 2010-12. He was hired as director of pro personnel for Denver in 2013 and was promoted to senior personnel advisor before he stepped down prior to the 2018 season due health issues.

Kuechenberg (Oct.14, 1947 – Jan. 12, 2019) started at guard, center and tackle for the Dolphins for 14 seasons (1970-83). Selected by Philadelphia in the fourth-round pick in the 1969 NFL draft, he was released shortly after training camp started and played seven games (five without pay) of semi-pro football with the Chicago Owls of the Continental Football League in 1969. Kuechenberg was selling business forms when he signed with the Dolphins as a free agent in 1970 and he became a starter that season. In the games Kuechenberg, the Dolphins amassed an overall record of 152-61-2 (.712) and made four Super Bowl appearances. That is one of the winningest records, in terms of both games won and winning percentage, by any player-coach tandem in NFL history. His was a six-time Pro Bowl (1974-75, 1977-78, 1982-83) selection. Playing in 215 games (196 regular season and 19 playoffs) over a 14-year career, Kuechenberg was called for holding only 15 times in that span. Kuechenberg was a finalist for the Pro Football Hall of Fame eight consecutive years (2002-09).

Maser (March 2, 1947 – July 14, 2019) spent the 2008 season as Miami's offensive line coach. Prior to joining the Dolphins, Maser held the same post with Jacksonville (1995-2002) and Carolina (2003-06). Before joining the NFL coaching ranks, he spent 22 seasons at the collegiate level, including the final 13 as offensive line coach at Boston College (1981-93).

Rudolph (March 21, 1938 – June 23, 2019) played in 11 games with four starts at linebacker for the expansion Dolphins in 1966 and recorded an interception. He was acquired by Miami in the expansion draft from the Boston Patriots. Originally selected in the 17th round of the 1959 draft by Detroit, the Georgia Tech product chose to join the original Patriots as a second-round choice in 1960. He spent six seasons with the Patriots (1960-65).

Selfridge (Jan. 12, 1949 – June 28, 2019) was acquired by the Dolphins in a trade prior to the 1976 season from the N.Y. Giants in exchange for a sixth-round pick. He played in one game with Miami. Originally drafted in the 13th round of the 1972 draft by San Diego, Selfridge played with Buffalo (1972) and the Giants (1974-75, 1977) in addition to his one season with Miami.

Sparano (Oct. 7, 1961 – July 22, 2018) was hired as head coach of the Dolphins in 2008 and led the Dolphins to an 11–5 record and the AFC East division title in his first season with the team. The 10-win turnaround from a 1-15 record in 2007 tied an NFL record. Sparano finished his Miami tenure during the 2011 season with a record of 29-33. Prior to joining the Dolphins, Sparano served as an assistant coach with Cleveland (1999-2000), Washington (2001), Jacksonville (2002) and Dallas (2003-07). After his Dolphins tenure, Sparano coached with the N.Y. Jets (2012), Oakland (2013-14, including serving as interim head coach in 2014), San Francisco (2015) and Minnesota (2016 until his death in 2018).

STEPHEN ROSS

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD / MANAGING GENERAL PARTNER
COLLEGE: MICHIGAN
NFL: 12TH SEASON
DOLPHINS: 12TH SEASON

Stephen M. Ross, Chairman and Founder of international real estate firm, Related Companies, first invested in the Miami Dolphins in February 2008, and in 2009, assumed the responsibilities of managing general partner of both the Miami Dolphins and Hard Rock Stadium. The role is the culmination of one of his long-held dreams -- Ross grew up in South Florida and the Dolphins have been a lifetime passion for him.

Throughout the Dolphins organization, Ross' ethos of building a first-class team on and off the field is etched deep. His $730 million investment in Hard Rock Stadium and its surrounding properties has transformed the iconic venue into a global entertainment destination that showcases the best Miami has to offer. From world-class fare to arts, culture and luxury hospitality, Hard Rock Stadium now delivers an elevated guest experience that is unparalleled in professional sports. As a result of the privately-funded renovation, Hard Rock Stadium has attracted and secured Super Bowl LIV – which coincides with the 100th season of the NFL – the 2021 College Football Playoff National Championship, major concerts, international soccer matches and a host of world-class events. On the football side, Ross has demonstrated a steadfast commitment to provide coaches, support staff and players the necessary resources to build a winning team that will compete consistently for championships. He has invested in improving the team's current practice facility and has committed significant resources in a new state-of-the-art training complex that will break in ground in 2019.

Ross, as a sports entrepreneur, is known for his attention to detail and thinking outside the box. He is responsible for orchestrating El Clásico Miami – the first-ever match between archrivals FC Barcelona and Real Madrid C.F. in North America – which stands as the highest revenue grossing soccer match in U.S. history. When the Miami Open tennis tournament began to explore leaving its long-time home in Key Biscayne, Florida, Ross stepped in to propose hosting the tournament at Hard Rock Stadium, building a custom tennis complex that is now considered one of the best in professional tennis in terms of guest experience and player amenities. His appreciation of the aspirational culture of South Florida and its burgeoning arts scene led to the #ArtUnexpected partnership with Goldman Global Arts to transform the facility into a vibrant, monumental public art experience.

Ross is deeply committed to supporting and uniting the community that supports the Dolphins, offering tremendous support in the areas of education, health and youth football. Under his stewardship, the Dolphins have raised more than $32.5 million for local cancer research through the Dolphins Cancer Challenge. In addition, Ross has been a major proponent of growing the game of football through the Junior Dolphins program. In 2018 alone, the program impacted more than 22,000 South Floridians with the goal of educating coaches, parents and youth on the health and safety of football with a strong emphasis on character development. In August 2019, Ross will be inducted into the National Football Foundation Leadership Hall of Fame. The prestigious award recognizes the country's most influential individuals who have ascended to the highest levels of success and exhibited the critical leadership qualities that transcend ordinary enterprises.

Furthermore, Ross has used his platform to harness the unifying power of sport to advance race relations across the country through the establishment of the nonprofit Ross Initiative in Sports for Equality (RISE). The organization's efforts have been so impactful that RISE was recognized in 2017 by ESPN's Humanitarian Awards with the Stuart Scott ENSPIRE Award. The award celebrates those who have taken risk and used an innovative approach to help the disadvantaged through the power of sports. Ross' efforts through RISE were honored as they personify the ethos of fairness, ethics, respect and fellowship with others. This also connects to Ross' vision of the Dolphins' FOOTBALL UNITES™ program as a way to effectuate positive social change. Under his leadership, the Dolphins organization actively embraces the diversity and intersections that make up South Florida, uniting groups of different races, genders, sexual orientations, identities, abilities and faiths around the power of football.

In May 2013, Ross pledged to give more than half of his estate to philanthropic causes and charitable organizations, including South Florida-based institutions. The commitment was made through the Giving Pledge, a long-term global initiative created by Warren Buffett and Bill and Melinda Gates that aims to inspire deeper engagement in philanthropy and increase charitable giving globally.

Ross graduated from the University of Michigan with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree and from Wayne State University Law School with a Juris Doctor degree. He later received a Master of Laws in Taxation from New York University School of Law. In 2004, the University of Michigan renamed its business school the Stephen M. Ross School of Business at the University of Michigan and in 2011, the school awarded him an honorary Doctor of Laws degree at its commencement.

CHRIS GRIER

GENERAL MANAGER
COLLEGE: MASSACHUSETTS
DOLPHINS: 20TH SEASON

Chris Grier enters his 20th season with the Miami Dolphins and fourth as the club's general manager. Grier was appointed general manager on Jan. 4, 2016 after spending the previous nine years as the team's director of college scouting. As of Dec. 31, 2018, he oversees all football operations in an effort to build a championship-caliber football team. Prior to that, Grier oversaw the draft, both college and pro personnel departments and all scouting efforts.

The 2018 draft saw Grier and his personnel department net several key contributors. Two of his draft picks – safety Minkah Fitzpatrick (first round) and linebacker Jerome Baker (third round) – were among the top 12 rookie tacklers in the league and became the first pair of rookie teammates to record pick-sixes in the same season since 2015 (Green Bay). Kicker Jason Sanders, who was drafted in the seventh round, converted 18-of-20 field goal attempts (90.0 pct.) for the fifth-best single-season field goal percentage in team history. Fourth-round pick Kalen Ballage rushed for 123 yards in a Week 15 contest at Minnesota, the most by a Dolphins rookie since 2005 (Ronnie Brown).

In 2017, the Dolphins finished the season with 10 rookies on the active roster and four more on injured reserve or non-football illness lists. Miami was one of just three teams to play eight rookies on defense and one of just six to have at least four rookies start games on defense. Six undrafted rookie free agents contributed to the team that season. Defensive tackle Davon Godchaux finished his rookie campaign fourth among all NFL defensive linemen with 40 tackles (26 solo), despite being a fifth-round pick. Linebacker Raekwon McMillan missed the entire season with an injury, but rebounded with 105 tackles (69 solo) in 2018, becoming the first Dolphins player since at least 2000 with 100-plus tackles in his first NFL season.

In his first draft as general manager in 2016, Grier selected cornerback Xavien Howard in the second round. Howard tied for the NFL lead with seven interceptions in 2018, earning his first Pro Bowl selection and was named the Dan Marino Team MVP. Grier and his staff also selected offensive lineman Laremy Tunsil, who started 14 games as a rookie and became the first offensive lineman in franchise history to start at least one game at both guard and tackle in his rookie year. According to STATS LLC, Tunsil was the only left tackle in the NFL to start at least 14 games and allow one or fewer sacks in 2018.

The team also drafted running back Kenyan Drake and wide receiver Jakeem Grant in 2016, who became just the second rookie duo in team history to combine for a kickoff return and punt return for a touchdown in the same season. In 2018, Drake tied a Dolphins running back record with five receiving touchdowns and Grant was one of just two NFL players to return to kicks (one punt and one kickoff) for touchdowns.

Grier helped turn more than half the roster over in 2016, as the team entered training camp with more than 45 new players acquired during the offseason. The results were a four-game improvement from the previous season, the fifth-best mark in the NFL. The Dolphins finished 10-6 with a playoff berth, the team's best record and first playoff appearance since 2008.

As the team's director of college scouting (2007-15), Grier was part of a front office that discovered numerous Pro Bowl players. During that time, the Dolphins drafted seven players that have combined for 14 Pro Bowl selections with the team. The list includes tackle Jake Long (2008-10), defensive tackle Paul Soliai (2011), punter Brandon Fields (2013), center Mike Pouncey (2013-15), safety Reshad Jones (2015; 2017), wide receiver Jarvis Landry (2015-17) and running back Jay Ajayi (2016).

Grier also did a good job of finding value late in drafts. Jones was a fifth-round pick in 2010 and was named the team's co-MVP following the 2015 season after he became the first player in team history to record at least 100 tackles, four interceptions and two sacks in a season. Ajayi was also a fifth-round pick (2015) and became the fourth player in NFL history to rush for 200 yards in three games during the same season. Ajayi's 1,272 rushing yards in 2016 were third-most in Dolphins history.

Prior to being the team's director of college scouting, Grier served as an area scout with the club from 2000-02, before being promoted to national scout/assistant director of college scouting in 2003. Miami won the AFC East during his first season with the team.

Grier started with the New England Patriots as an intern in 1994. He joined the club on a full-time basis the following year, and served as a regional scout until joining the Dolphins in 2000. In 1996, Grier was part of a New England staff that won the AFC Championship. He helped scout several players for a Patriots roster that went on to win Super Bowls XXXVI, XXXVIII and XXXIX.

Grier has worked with several of football's most successful coaches and executives throughout his career and that has helped shape his football philosophy. His father, Bobby Grier, is the former vice president of player personnel for the Patriots and recently retired as a senior personnel advisor with the Houston Texans. Chris has also worked with and learned under Pro Football Hall of Famer Bill Parcells, Patriots Head Coach Bill Belichick, Seattle Seahawks Head Coach Pete Carroll and University of Alabama Head Coach Nick Saban.

Grier attended the University of Massachusetts-Amherst where he majored in journalism and played football for two years before injuries ended his career. He spent his final two years there as an undergraduate assistant.

Chris' brother, Michael, played for the Edmonton Oilers, Washington Capitals, San Jose Sharks and Buffalo Sabres of the National Hockey League. He is currently an assistant coach for the New Jersey Devils.

A native of Holliston, Mass., Grier resides in Weston with his wife, Paige, and their two sons, Landon and Jackson.

COACHING STAFF

BRIAN FLORES

HEAD COACH
COLLEGE: BOSTON COLLEGE
DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Brian Flores was named the 13th head coach in Miami Dolphins history on February 4, 2019.

Flores joined the Dolphins after spending 15 seasons with the New England Patriots organization, where he served in a variety of different roles and helped the franchise win four Super Bowls – XXXIX, XLIX, LI and LIII – and seven AFC championships. He brings a wealth of leadership and experience to Miami, having coached all three phases of the game – offense, defense and special teams – and beginning his professional career as a scout.

Flores has spent the past eight seasons coaching defense and was New England's defensive play-caller and linebackers coach in 2018. In his lone season calling the defensive plays, the Patriots won Super Bowl LIII and limited the second-highest scoring offense in the NFL (L.A. Rams) to just 3 points in the game, tying a Super Bowl record.

The Patriots defense saw improvement in many categories under Flores' leadership in 2018. New England improved from 17th in the NFL to seventh in passer rating, allowing opposing passers to compile an 85.4 rating. Much of that was attributed to creating more turnovers, as the Patriots were tied for fifth in the NFL with 28 takeaways and tied for third with 18 interceptions They ranked 25th and tied for 18th, respectively, in those categories in 2017.

In 2018, the Patriots were seventh in the NFL in points allowed, surrendering just 20.3 points per game. The run defense and pass defense both improved from the previous season. In rush defense, New England improved from 20th to 11th in the NFL by allowing 112.7 rushing yards per game. The Patriots went from allowing the 30th most net passing yards in 2017 to 22nd (246.4 yards per game) in 2018.

With Flores calling the defense, cornerback Stephon Gilmore earned first-team All-Pro honors for the first time in his career and a Pro Bowl selection. Gilmore was second in the NFL with 20 passes defensed and was the highest-graded cornerback in the NFL according to Pro Football Focus.

Flores coached New England's linebackers in 2017, helping the team to a 13-3 record, No. 1 seed in the AFC playoffs and an appearance in Super Bowl LII. The defense was fifth in the NFL in points allowed (18.5 per game) and fourth in red zone efficiency (43.8). He helped develop linebacker Kyle Van Noy, who posted 5.5 sacks – the most in his career – despite playing in just 13 games in his first full season with New England.

Flores moved to linebackers coach in 2016 and the move immediately paid dividends, as the Patriots went 14-2 in the regular season and won Super Bowl LI. The New England defense led the NFL by allowing just 15.6 points per game and was eighth in total defense, allowing 326.4 net yards per game.

In Flores' first season as his position coach, linebacker Dont'a Hightower earned the first Pro Bowl selection of his career and was named second-team All-Pro. The Patriots' defensive success was aided by the contributions of linebacker Elandon Roberts, who was a rookie sixth-round pick that Flores developed quickly enough to start in five games, including two playoff contests.

Flores was promoted to safeties coach in 2012 and served in that role from 2012-15. During those four seasons, the Patriots went 48-16, winning the AFC East all four seasons and Super Bowl XLIX. In that span, New England was sixth in the NFL in scoring defense, allowing 20.3 points per game.

In 2015, his two starting safeties were among the team's five leading tacklers. Safety Patrick Chung was second on the team with 82 tackles (49 solo) while safety Devin McCourty was fifth with 62 tackles (49 solo). Playing in a reserve role, safety Duron Harmon was second on the team with three interceptions. The Patriots finished ninth in total defense (339.4) and 10th in scoring defense (19.7).

The 2014 Patriots went 12-4 and won Super Bowl XLIX. Chung and McCourty again were among the team's leading tacklers, with Chung ranking third with 84 stops (54 solo) and McCourty ranking fourth with 67 tackles (50 solo). McCourty also tied for the team lead with two interceptions. New England finished eighth in the NFL in points allowed (19.6), eighth in opponent completion percentage (59.6) and 10th in opponent passer rating (84.0).

In 2013, Flores helped McCourty earn second-team All-Pro honors for the second time in his career after he totaled 67 tackles (47 solo). Harmon picked off two passes as a rookie, combining with rookie teammate Logan Ryan for seven interceptions, the most by rookie teammates in the NFL. Opposing passers completed just 57.0 percent of passes against New England, the fourth-best mark in the league, and their 81.0 passer rating ranked ninth.

In Flores' first season as safeties coach in 2012, McCourty had one of the best seasons of his career. He finished third on the team with 79 tackles (60 solo) and led the Patriots with five interceptions. Rookie second-round pick Tavon Wilson only started four games but was second on the team with four interceptions. McCourty's five picks were tied for third among NFL safeties while Wilson's four were tied for fifth. In total, New England safeties intercepted 14 passes, more than 14 NFL teams. The Patriots were tied for fifth in the NFL with 20 interceptions.

Flores spent the 2011 season as a defensive assistant. In his first season working with the defensive side of the ball, the Patriots went 13-3 and won the AFC. New England was tied for third in the NFL with 34 takeaways. Its 23 interceptions were tied for second in the league.

In 2010, Flores served as an offensive assistant and also worked with special teams. The Patriots went 14-2 and earned the No. 1 seed in the AFC playoffs. The New England offense led the league in scoring with 32.4 points per game. The unit was fourth with a 5.9 yards per play average and led the NFL with a 109.8 passer rating and a league-low five interceptions. The Patriots' kickoff return unit was among the league's best, ranking fifth with an average starting field position of the 30.0-yard line after kickoffs. The punt return unit was second in the NFL with opponents averaging just 34.2 net yards per punt.

Flores began his coaching career as a coaching assistant for New England from 2008-09. The Patriots went 21-11 (.656).

After finishing his playing career at Boston College (1999-2003), Flores joined the Patriots as a scouting assistant in 2004 and was promoted to pro scout in 2006.

Flores was a two-year starter at linebacker for Boston College and was part of four bowl-winning teams. He was named to the Big East All-Academic Team in 2003.

A native of Brooklyn, New York, Flores attended Poly Prep in Brooklyn, where he played running back and linebacker. He graduated from Boston College with his bachelor's degree in English and a master's degree in administrative studies.

Flores and his wife, Jennifer, were married in 2009. They have two sons, Miles and Maxwell, and a daughter, Liliana.

JIM CALDWELL

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/QUARTERBACKS
COLLEGE: IOWA
DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Jim Caldwell enters his first season with the Dolphins after being named assistant head coach/quarterbacks on Feb. 8, 2019.

Caldwell comes to Miami with 17 years of NFL coaching experience, including seven seasons as a head coach for two different NFL teams. He also spent eight years as a college football head coach. In his seven seasons as head coach of the Indianapolis Colts (2009-11) and Detroit Lions (2014-17), he compiled a 62-50 (.554) regular-season record, four playoff berths, two 11-win seasons and one conference championship. Caldwell also won Super Bowls as an assistant coach with Indianapolis (Super Bowl XLI) and Baltimore (Super Bowl XLVII). Teams he has been part of the coaching staff have qualified for the playoffs 13 times in 17 seasons.

Caldwell spent four seasons (2014-17) as Detroit's head coach, where he went 36-28 (.563) and led the Lions to two playoff appearances. He became the first Lions head coach to have a winning record since Joe Schmidt, who left the team following the 1972 season. The Lions accumulated a .667 winning percentage against the NFC North during his tenure, marking the team's best four-year divisional winning percentage since divisional play first began in 1967.

In 2017, Detroit completed a 3-0 road sweep in the NFC North and registered the franchise's first unblemished divisional road record since divisional alignment first began in 1967. Quarterback Matthew Stafford continued his ascent under Caldwell as he compiled a 99.3 passer rating for the season and established a new single-season franchise record. Cornerback Darius Slay was named to his first-career Pro Bowl after tying for the NFL lead in interceptions with eight. Detroit finished with winning seasons in back-to-back years for the first time since 1994-95.

In 2016, his third season at the Lions helm, Caldwell guided Detroit to a 9-7 record and a trip to the playoffs for the second time in three seasons. By earning a playoff berth in 2016, Caldwell joined Buddy Parker (1952, 1953) and Bobby Ross (1997, 1999) as the only coaches in Lions history to lead the team to the playoffs twice in their first three seasons with the club. The Lions trailed in the fourth quarter in eight of the team's wins in 2016. The eight fourth-quarter, come-from-behind wins set a new NFL record, surpassing the previous total of seven set by the 2009 Indianapolis Colts (also coached by Caldwell), for the most wins in a season after trailing in the fourth quarter.

Following a 1-7 start to the 2015 season, Caldwell led the Lions to a 7-9 record on the shoulders of a 6-2 surge to finish off the year. Detroit became the fourth team since 1991 to start a season with one or fewer wins in the first eight games (1-7 or 0-8 record) and finish with an NFL-best 6-2 record. It marked the Lions' best second-half finish since the team finished 7-1 in 1995.

In 2014, Caldwell was named Detroit's head coach and helped the Lions compile an 11-5 regular-season record. He became the third coach in team history to lead the Lions to the playoffs in his first year with the team (George Wilson in 1957; Bobby Ross in 1997). The Lions 2014 defense ranked second in the NFL in total defense (300.9 yards allowed per game) and third in points allowed (17.6 points allowed per game). The team's No. 2 ranking in total defense was the highest finish for the Lions since 1970, and the 300.9 yards allowed per game were the fewest yards allowed by a Lions defense since 1993. Detroit had the NFL's top-ranked rush defense in 2014, yielding just 69.3 yards per game, which not only set a team single-season record but was also the ninth-best single-season run defense in NFL history.

Caldwell was on Baltimore's offensive staff from 2012-13. He joined the organization as quarterbacks coach in 2012 and was promoted to offensive coordinator with three games left in the season. The Ravens responded by going on to win the AFC North and Super Bowl XLVII. In the team's final seven games, including four in the postseason, the Ravens averaged 400.6 yards per game and 27.3 points per game, including 410.3 yards per game and 31.0 points per game in the playoffs. The Ravens' 31.0 points per game in the postseason was the highest playoff scoring average in NFL history by a Super Bowl team who advanced from the Wild Card round and played four playoff games.

Caldwell spent 10 seasons (2002-11) with Indianapolis and was promoted several times during his tenure there, as he was the team's head coach from 2009-11. The Colts tied an NFL record with nine consecutive playoff appearances (2002-10) and won six AFC South titles, two AFC championships and Super Bowl XLI during his tenure there. He went 26-22 (.542) as the team's head coach, winning the AFC South twice and earning an appearance in Super Bowl XLIV. He became just the fourth head coach in NFL history to win 24-plus games and earn a berth in the Super Bowl in the coach's first two seasons as a head coach. Caldwell became the second rookie head coach in NFL history to win 14 games when the 2009 Colts went 14-2 (.875).

Caldwell began his tenure in Indianapolis as quarterbacks coach from 2002-05. He was promoted to assistant head coach/quarterbacks and served in that role from 2006-07, before being promoted to associate head coach in 2008 and head coach in 2009.

As an assistant in Indianapolis, Caldwell's primary emphasis was on the quarterback position. He helped Peyton Manning and the team's offense total eight top 10 finishes in total offense and six top 5 finishes in his 10 years with the Colts.

Caldwell's NFL coaching career began in 2001 as quarterbacks coach for Tampa Bay. Prior to that, he spent eight seasons (1993-2000) as head coach at Wake Forest. Caldwell had extensive experience as an NCAA assistant coach with stints at Penn State (1986-92), Louisville (1985), Colorado (1982-84), Northwestern (1981) and Southern Illinois (1978-80). He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Iowa, in 1977.

Caldwell was a four-year starter at defensive back for Iowa from 1973-76 and holds a bachelor's degree in liberal arts from the school.

He and his wife, Cheryl, launched the Jim and Cheryl Caldwell Foundation in 2009. The Foundation is committed to the educational empowerment of children through digital technology and "preparing young minds for advancement to the 21st Century." The Caldwells also support several other charities throughout the country.

In 2016, Caldwell's hometown of Beloit, Wisconsin dedicated the Jim Caldwell Gymnasium at the newly-opened Fran Fruzen Intermediate School in his honor. He was inducted into Beloit High School's Hall of Fame in 2011 and the Wisconsin Football Coaches Association Hall of Fame in 2013.

The couple has four adult children – Jimmy, Jermaine, Jared and Natalie – and three grandsons, James III, Joshua and Larry III.

In 2018, Crossman's punt team forced opponents to start inside their own 20 on 31 occasions, which was ninth in the NFL, despite using three different punters. His kickoff coverage unit was 10th in the NFL, allowing just 22.2 yards allowed per kickoff return. Additionally, his special teams units did not allow any points scored against them.

The Bills special teams ranked seventh in the NFL in 2017, according to the annual rankings compiled by NFL writer Rick Gosselin. Kicker Stephen Hauschka set an NFL record with 13 consecutive made field goals from 50-plus yards.

In 2016, the Bills were second in net punting average against (36.2), fourth in gross punting average against (43.2), sixth in the NFL in punt return average (11.2) and sixth in punt return average against (6.7).

The 2015 Bills had the NFL's best kickoff coverage team, limiting opponents to 17.2 yards per kickoff return. Punter Colton Schmidt set a franchise record with a net average of 41.3 yards per punt. Kicker Dan Carpenter scored 125 points, becoming the first Buffalo player in a decade to top 100 points for three consecutive seasons (2013-15). The Bills also tied for the NFL lead with four special teams takeaways.

Crossman helped the Bills finish among the NFL's best special teams in 2014 as the team finished second in Gosselin's rankings. The team's kickoff coverage team was third in the NFL, allowing just 20.0 yards per kickoff return. Buffalo's punt return unit was fourth in the league, averaging 6.5 yards per punt return. Carpenter set a team record with 34 field goals made in a season while kickoff specialist Jordan Gay set a team record with 49 touchbacks. Schmidt's 21 punts inside the 20 were the second-most in team history. Running back Boobie Dixon blocked two punts, becoming the first Bills player since 1990 (Steve Tasker) to block multiple punts in the same season.

In Crossman's first season in Buffalo in 2013, Carpenter made 91.7 percent of his field goals, the second-best percentage in team history. Wide receiver Marcus Easley led the NFL with 23 special teams tackles (19 solo).

Prior to his tenure in Buffalo, Crossman spent three seasons (2010-12) as the special teams coordinator for Detroit. In 2012, kicker Jason Hanson set a franchise record with 134 points. His 134 points were the most in his 21-year NFL career.

Crossman began his NFL coaching career in 2003 with Carolina as a special teams assistant. He was promoted to special teams coordinator in 2005. In his seven seasons with the Panthers, the team made three playoff appearances, won the NFC South twice and won the NFC Championship in 2003.

Crossman spent 10 seasons as a collegiate coach and worked with the special teams units in all 10 seasons. He began his collegiate coaching career at the U.S. Coast Guard Academy as a special teams/defensive backs coach in 1993. From there he moved to Western Kentucky, where he was a special teams/secondary (1994-95) and special teams/outside linebackers (1996) coach. Crossman moved to Georgia Tech in 1999 and coached special teams/defensive ends from 1999-2000 and special teams/defensive backs in 2001. In 2002, he was a special teams/linebackers coach at Michigan State.

Crossman was an All-American and All-Big East defensive back as a three-year letterman (1987-89) at Pittsburgh. He also started at fullback in the 1988 season. As a senior in 1989, Crossman was a team captain and named the team's MVP, earning second-team All-America honors after posting 62 tackles and one interception. He began his collegiate playing career at Kansas, where he was a Freshman All-American in 1985.

Crossman spent time with Washington (1990) and Detroit (1991) at training camp following his college playing career. He was a team captain and earned All-League honors with the London Monarchs of the World League of American Football in 1991-92. PATRICK GRAHAM

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR COLLEGE: YALE

Patrick Graham enters his first season with the Dolphins after being named defensive coordinator on Feb. 8, 2019.

Graham arrives in Miami with 10 years of NFL coaching experience and has coached in the playoffs in eight of those seasons. He has been part of teams that have won seven division titles, two conference championships and one Super Bowl (XLIX).

Most recently, Graham was the defensive run game coordinator/inside linebackers coach for Green Bay during the 2018 season. He helped linebacker Blake Martinez have the best year of his career to date, totaling 144 tackles (91 solo) and five sacks. Martinez's 144 tackles were second in the NFL and his five sacks were tied for fourth among inside linebackers. Green Bay's defense limited opponents to 4.3 yards per rush, which was in the top half (13th) of the league.

Graham arrived in Green Bay from the N.Y. Giants, where he was the team's defensive line coach for two seasons (2016-17). In 2017, he helped defensive end Jason Pierre-Paul lead the team with 8.5 sacks in his first 16-game season since 2014. Defensive tackle Damon Harrison posted 76 tackles (51 solo), which was second on the team and led all NFL defensive tackles.

In 2016, Graham helped the Giants become the most improved defense in the league. The team allowed 158 fewer points and 1,290 fewer yards than it did in 2015. Their 17.8 points per game allowed was second in the NFL and the team's best since 2002. The Giants also tied for third in the NFL in rushing yards allowed (88.6 yards per game). Harrison totaled 86 tackles (55 solo), which was the most by an NFL defensive tackle since 1996 when Buffalo's Ted Washington had 92 stops (70 solo). Harrison also earned first-team All-Pro honors.

Graham began his NFL coaching career in New England, where he spent seven seasons (2009-15). He began as a coaching assistant in 2009 before being promoted to defensive assistant in 2010 and linebackers coach in 2011. He moved to defensive line from 2012-13 before going back to linebackers in 2014-15.

During his tenure with New England, the Patriots won the division all seven seasons, the AFC twice and Super Bowl XLIX. In his five seasons as a position coach (2011-15), New England led the NFL in takeaways (150) and was tied for fourth in sacks (214).

In 2015, Graham's linebacking unit helped the team finish ninth in total yards allowed (339.4) and rushing yards allowed (98.8) and 10th in points allowed (19.7). Linebacker Jamie Collins tied a Patriots record with five forced fumbles and earned the first Pro Bowl selection of his career. He was also named second-team All-Pro.

The 2014 Patriots finished their season as champions of Super Bowl XLIX. Graham helped the team's defense rank eighth in the league in points allowed (19.6) and ninth in rushing yards allowed (104.3) despite linebackers Jerod Mayo and Dont'a Hightower missing 14 games combined due to injury. Collins led the team with 115 tackles (74 solo) and also totaled four sacks and four forced fumbles.

Graham worked with the Patriots defensive line for the second straight season in 2013. Despite losing nose tackle Vince Wilfork for the rest of the season in Week 4, the New England defense finished fifth in the league in sacks (48) and 10th in points allowed (21.1). The team's five leading sack totals all came from defensive linemen, with defensive ends Chandler Jones (11.5) and Rob Ninkovich (8.0) leading the way.

In 2012, Graham helped Wilfork earn first-team All-Pro honors and a selection to his fifth Pro Bowl. Wilfork totaled 59 tackles (41 solo) with three sacks, six passes defensed, two forced fumbles and six fumble recoveries. Ninkovich transitioned from linebacker to defensive end and totaled eight sacks including four strip-sacks, which were tied for the second-most in team history. The Patriots were second in the NFL with 41 takeaways and registered 41 sacks, the team's most since 2003.

Graham's first season as a position coach was in 2011 with the linebackers. He helped New England go 13-3 and win the AFC. Mayo and Ninkovich were one of three pairs of linebacker teammates to each intercept two passes that season. Mayo led the team with 103 tackles (97 solo) and became the first Patriots player to total 100-plus tackles in each of his first four seasons.

Graham spent the 2010 seasons as a defensive assistant with New England. He helped the Patriots finish second in the NFL with 38 takeaways and eighth in points allowed (19.6). He began his NFL coaching career in 2009 as a coaching assistant with New England.

Graham came to New England following two seasons (2007-08) as a graduate assistant at Notre Dame, where he worked with the defense. He spent three seasons (2004-06) as an assistant coach at Richmond, mentoring tight ends from 2005-06 and the defensive line in 2004.

Graham began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Wagner (2002-03), while he pursued an MBA with a concentration in finance. He coached the junior-varsity team to an undefeated season and also served as strength and conditioning coach and academic coordinator.

Graham played collegiately at Yale, where he was a defensive lineman for the 1999 team that shared an Ivy League title with Brown. He earned his bachelor's degree in sociology with a concentration in economics and African-American studies.

CHAD O'SHEA

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR COLLEGE: HOUSTON
DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Chad O'Shea enters his 17th season as an NFL coach and first season with the Dolphins after being named offensive coordinator on Feb. 8, 2019.

O'Shea brings 16 years of NFL coaching experience to the Dolphins, having spent time with Kansas City (2003-05), Minnesota (2006-08) and New England (2009-18). In those 16 seasons, his teams won 12 division titles, five conference championships and three Super Bowls (XLIX, LI and LIII).

O'Shea spent the past 10 years (2009-18) in New England as the team's wide receivers coach. The team won three Super Bowls (XLIX, LI and LIII) during his tenure there and he helped mentor several wide receivers who set franchise and NFL records, such as Brandin Cooks, Julian Edelman, Danny Amendola and Wes Welker.

O'Shea helped the Patriots win Super Bowl LIII following the 2018 season. Edelman led the team with 850 receiving yards on 74 receptions (11.5 avg.) and six touchdowns, and won Super Bowl MVP honors despite being 32 years old. New England finished eighth in the NFL in passing, averaging 266.1 net passing yards per game.

In 2017, in Cooks' first season with the team, he became the 11th player in team history to reach 1,000 receiving yards in a season. He was the only player in the NFL that season to total at least 1,000 receiving yards in his first year with a new team. The Patriots had the second-best aerial attack in the league, averaging 276.1 net passing yards per game. That passing game helped the Patriots finish 13-3 and win the AFC.

The 2016 season brought another Super Bowl title (LI) to New England. Edelman led the team with 98 receptions for 1,106 yards (11.3 avg.) and became just the sixth player in team history with at least two 1,000-yard seasons. Chris Hogan, in his first season as an NFL starter, totaled 38 receptions for 680 yards (17.9 avg.) and four touchdowns.

In 2015, Amendola led all New England wide receivers with 65 receptions for 648 yards (10.0 avg.) and three touchdowns, while Edelman's receiving yards (692) and touchdowns (7) paced the team's wide outs. Injuries ravaged his unit as no wide receiver played more than 14 games, but four New England wide outs totaled at least 20 receptions.

Another first-time Patriots wide receiver thrived under O'Shea in 2014 as Brandon LaFell had the best season of his nine-year NFL career. In his first year in New England, LaFell set career highs with 74 receptions for 953 yards (12.9 avg.) and seven touchdowns. The Patriots went on to win Super Bowl XLIX, the first Super Bowl victory of O'Shea's career.

In 2013, Edelman became the third player in Patriots history to total at least 100 receptions after he posted 105 catches for 1,056 yards (10.1 avg.) and six touchdowns. Two of O'Shea's wide receivers led the team in receiving as Amendola posted 54 receptions for 633 yards (11.7 avg.) and two scores despite only playing in 12 games. Aaron Dobson totaled 34 receptions for 519 yards (14.0 avg.) and four receptions during his rookie campaign.

O'Shea was Welker's position coach for the final four seasons of Welker's six-year tenure in New England. In 2012, Welker became the team's all-time leader in receptions and became the first player in NFL history with five 100-catch seasons after he totaled 118 receptions for 1,354 yards (11.5 avg.) and six touchdowns. His 118 receptions were tied for second in the NFL that season. Welker also earned his fifth consecutive Pro Bowl selection.

In 2011, O'Shea's wide receivers helped the Patriots win the AFC. Welker set a franchise record with 1,569 receiving yards and became the second player in NFL history to record two 120-catch seasons. Welker's 122 receptions led the NFL and his 1,569 receiving yards were second. Welker earned his fourth straight Pro Bowl berth and was named first-team All-Pro. The wide outs helped quarterback Tom Brady pass for 5,235 yards, which was third-most in NFL history at the time.

The 2010 Patriots went 14-2 in the regular season and Welker once again led the team in receptions (86) and receiving yards (848). Deion Branch was second on the team with 48 catches for 706 yards (14.7 avg.) in just 11 games played. Welker earned his third consecutive Pro Bowl appearance.

In O'Shea's first year with the Patriots in 2009, he mentored two of the league's top five leading receivers. He helped Welker earn first-team All-Pro honors for the first time in his career as Welker led the NFL with 123 receptions and his 1,348 receiving yards ranked second. He also earned a Pro Bowl selection for the second time in his career. O'Shea also tutored Randy Moss, who tied for the NFL lead with 13 touchdown receptions. Moss' 1,264 receiving yards were tied for fifth in the league.

Prior to New England, O'Shea spent three seasons as offensive assistant/wide receivers coach (2006-08) with Minnesota. In 2008, he helped Bernard Berrian rank second in the NFL with an average of 20.8 yards per catch, and the Vikings led the NFL with 13 touchdown receptions of 20-plus yards. In 2007, the Vikings tied a team record with 19 plays of 50-plus yards.

O'Shea's first NFL job came with the Kansas City Chiefs, where he spent three seasons from 2003-05. He began as a volunteer special teams assistant in 2003 and then assisted with special teams and linebackers from 2004-05. In 2003, Kansas City led the NFL with four special teams touchdowns. They also led the league in both kickoff and punt return average. In 2004, the Chiefs set a team record for kickoff return yards (1,820) as Dante Hall returned two kickoffs for touchdowns.

O'Shea spent seven seasons as a collegiate coach, beginning at his alma mater, the University of Houston. He was on Houston's staff for four seasons (1996-99), beginning as a graduate assistant in 1996. He was promoted to wide receivers coach in 1997, served as tight ends/special teams coach in 1998 and added the title of recruiting coordinator in 1999.

In 2000, O'Shea moved to Southern Mississippi, where he spent three seasons (2000-02) as special teams coach and recruiting coordinator. During his tenure there, the Eagles blocked 21 kicks.

JOSH BOYER

DEFENSIVE PASS GAME COORDINATOR/CORNERBACKS
COLLEGE: MUSKINGUM COLLEGE
DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Josh Boyer enters his 14th season as an NFL coach and first season with the Dolphins after being named defensive pass game coordinator/cornerbacks coach on Feb. 8, 2019.

Boyer joins the Dolphins after spending 13 years with New England as a coaching assistant (2006-08) and coaching defensive backs (2009-11) and cornerbacks (2012-18). During his tenure, the Patriots won 12 division titles, six AFC championships and three Super Bowls (XLIX, LI and LIII). The team went 162-46 (.779) in the regular season during Boyer's tenure, the best record in the NFL during that span.

In Boyer's 10 seasons (2009-18) as a position coach for the Patriots, he helped develop five different Pro Bowl selections and five different All-Pro honorees. In that span, the team had the NFL's third-best scoring defense, allowing 19.4 points per game. Opposing passers had a rating of just 84.8 during those 10 seasons, the 10th-best mark in the league.

The 2018 Patriots defense played well against the pass, limiting opposing passers to an 85.4 rating. New England was third in the league in interceptions (18) and the defense, as a whole, was seventh in the NFL in scoring, allowing just 20.3 points per game. Cornerback Stephon Gilmore earned first-team All-Pro honors for the first time in his career and was selected to his second Pro Bowl. Boyer's unit helped the Patriots win Super Bowl LIII.

In 2017, the Patriots won the AFC in part due to a defense that finished fifth in the NFL, allowing 18.5 points per game. Malcolm Butler was tied for second among all NFL cornerbacks with three forced fumbles and finished sixth on the team with 60 tackles (55 solo).

Boyer helped the Patriots once again win the Super Bowl (LI) in 2016. Butler earned second-team All-Pro honors with a team-leading four interceptions. Logan Ryan led all NFL cornerbacks with 92 tackles (74 solo). New England went 14-2 in the regular season with the league's best scoring defense, surrendering just 15.6 points per game. The Patriots were eighth in the NFL in opposing passer rating (84.4).

In 2015, Boyer mentored Butler to his first career Pro Bowl appearance as he led the team with 15 passes defensed. Ryan led the team with four interceptions and was second in passes defensed (14) and third in tackles (74; 58 solo). Ryan's 74 tackles were tied for fourth among all NFL cornerbacks. The Patriots finished in the top 10 in both scoring defense (10th, 19.7) and total defense (9th, 339.4).

New England won Super Bowl XLIX in 2014 as Boyer once again tutored a first-team All-Pro cornerback in Darrelle Revis in Revis' only season with the Patriots. Revis led the team with 14 passes defensed and was tied for the team lead with two interceptions, earning the sixth Pro Bowl selection of his career. New England had the eighth-best defense in the league, holding opponents to just 19.6 points per game. They also limited opposing passers to an 84.0 rating, which was 10th in the NFL.

In 2013, Boyer tutored Aqib Talib, who earned second-team All-Pro honors. His starting cornerbacks – Talib and Ryan – combined for nine interceptions. The Patriots were 10th in scoring defense (21.1) and were ninth in opposing passer rating (81.0).

In Boyer's first season transitioning to cornerbacks coach in 2012, the Patriots led the NFL in turnover differential (+25), were second in takeaways (41), tied for fifth in interceptions (20) and tied for ninth in scoring defense (20.7).

From 2009-11, Boyer served as New England's defensive backs coach. In 2011, the Patriots won 13 regular-season games, led the AFC in turnover differential (+17) and advanced to Super Bowl XLVI. He helped Kyle Arrington tie for the NFL lead with seven interceptions.

The Patriots won 14 games in 2010 and led the NFL in turnover differential (+28). Boyer coached two Pro Bowl players that season – cornerback Devin McCourty and safety Brandon Meriweather. McCourty also earned second-team All-Pro honors and was tied for second in the NFL with seven interceptions during his rookie campaign.

In his first season as a position coach in 2009, Boyer helped Meriweather earn his first Pro Bowl selection.

Boyer was a coaching assistant for the Patriots from 2006-08 and was part of the 2007 Patriots team that went 16-0 in the regular season and won the AFC Championship.

Prior to his time in New England, Boyer held several collegiate coaching positions. He served as defensive coordinator at South Dakota School of Mines and Technology in 2005, was defensive backs coach at Bryant in 2004 and also held graduate assistant roles at Kent State (2002-03) and Dayton (2001). He began his coaching career at King's College (Pa.) as an assistant coach in 2000.

Boyer was a four-year starter at Muskingam College (1996-99) in Ohio. He played wide receiver for three seasons before switching to defensive back as a senior and earning All-Ohio Athletic Conference honors at the position in 1999. He graduated from the school with a degree in physical education and health.

A Heath, Ohio native, Boyer is married to his wife, Kristi.

DON SHULA'S COACHING LONGEVITY

Former Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula was one of only five coaches in NFL history to have coached the same team for 20 or more consecutive seasons. Shula (1970-95) completed 26 seasons with the Dolphins. Green Bay's Curley Lambeau (1921-49) and Dallas' Tom Landry (1960-88) share the record with 29 seasons each, while Pittsburgh's Chuck Noll (1969-91) and the N.Y. Giants' Steve Owen (1931-53) coached 23 years with their teams.

KARL DORRELL

WIDE RECEIVERS
COLLEGE: UCLA
DOLPHINS: FIFTH SEASON

Karl Dorrell enters the first season of his second stint with the Dolphins after being named wide receivers coach on Feb. 8, 2019. Dorrell previously served as the team's wide receivers coach from 2008-10 and was the quarterbacks coach in 2011.

Dorrell spent the past four seasons (2015-18) with the N.Y. Jets as their wide receivers coach. During that span, the Jets had five different players record at least 50 receptions in an individual season.

In 2018, Dorell had six wide receivers catch at least 10 passes as the unit was ravaged with injuries. Wide receiver Robby Anderson played in 14 games, totaling 50 receptions for 752 yards (15.0 avg.) and six touchdowns. His 15.0 yards per catch average was 21st in the NFL and his six receiving scores were tied for 25th.

Dorrell's receiving corps in 2017 dealt with offseason departures of Brandon Marshall and Eric Decker and a season-ending injury to Quincy Enunwa. The trio had combined to record 337 receptions for 4,683 yards (13.9 avg.) for the team from 2015-16. Dorrell helped Anderson seize the opportunity in his first year as a full-time starter. The second-year undrafted free agent led the team with 941 receiving yards and seven touchdowns on 63 receptions (14.9 avg.). Among second-year players in the NFL, his seven receiving touchdowns were tied for the most in the league and his 941 receiving yards were third behind New Orleans' Michael Thomas (1,245) and Kansas City's Tyreek Hill (1,183). Jermaine Kearse was added to the team just a week before the season started and led the squad with 65 receptions for 810 yards (12.5 avg.) and five touchdowns.

In 2016, Dorrell helped three Jets receivers total at least 40 receptions for 500 yards. Brandon Marshall led the team with 59 receptions for 788 yards (52.5 avg.). Enunwa totaled 58 receptions for 857 yards (14.8 avg.) and four touchdowns in just his second NFL season. Anderson finished with 42 receptions for 587 yards (14.0 avg.), the sixth-most receiving yards by a rookie in the NFL that season despite being undrafted.

In Dorrell's first season with the Jets in 2015, he helped Marshall set franchise records for receptions (109), receiving yards (1,502) and receiving touchdowns (14). All three marks ranked in the top five in the NFL that season. Decker caught 80 passes for 1,027 yards (12.8 avg.) and 12 touchdowns. The pair combined for the most receptions and receiving touchdowns by any wide receiver duo in team history with 26. The pair also scored touchdowns in the same game on nine occasions, setting an NFL record.

Dorrell spent the 2014 season as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Vanderbilt.

From 2012-13, Dorrell served as the quarterbacks coach for the Houston Texans, where he worked with Matt Schaub and Case Keenum. Schaub passed for 4,008 yards and 22 touchdowns in 2012, leading the Texans to a 12-4 record, an AFC South title and a playoff victory. His 64.3 completion percentage that season was the second-highest of his career (min. 100 attempts).

Dorrell's first stint in Miami came from 2008-11, where he served as wide receivers coach (2008-10) and quarterbacks coach (2011).

The 2011 Dolphins lost Chad Henne for the season due to an injury suffered in just the fourth game. Dorrell helped Matt Moore step in and pass for 2,497 yards and 16 touchdowns, posting an 87.1 quarterback rating in 12 starts.

In 2010, Dorrell helped Marshall and Davone Bess form one of the top pass-catching units in the NFL. At the time, Marshall's 86 catches were tied for the second-most in team history, while Bess finished fifth in team annals with 79 receptions. The combined 165 receptions ranked fourth among NFL duos in 2010 and were the most by a Dolphins duo in team history.

COACHING REUNIONS

Karl Dorrell was named the Dolphins wide receivers coach prior to the 2019 season. It marks his second stint on the team's coaching staff, having previously served as wide receivers coach from 2008-10 and quarterbacks coach in 2011. Dorrell became the ninth coach in Dolphins history to serve two separate terms on the team's coaching staff. He joined Bill Arnsparger (1970-73 and 1976-83), Monte Clark (1970-75 and 1995), George Edwards (2005-09 and 2012-13), Dan Henning (1979-80 and 2008-10), Howard Schnellenberger (1970-72 and 1975-78), Mike Shula (1991-92 and 2000-01), Chris Foerster (2004 and 2016-17) and Jeremiah Washburn (2016 and 2018).

In Dorrell's first season with the Dolphins in 2008, the team won 10 games more than the previous season, posting an 11-5 mark and winning the AFC East. Three of Dorrell's receivers (Ted Ginn Jr., Greg Camarillo and Bess) topped 50 receptions and 500 yards.

Dorrell joined the Dolphins following a five-year stint as head coach at UCLA. During his time heading up the Bruins' program, the school went 35-27 and appeared in a bowl game all five seasons. In 2005, UCLA went 10-2, recorded a victory over Northwestern in the Sun Bowl and finished with a No. 13 national ranking in the USA Today Coaches poll, and No. 16 by the Associated Press. For the team's performance that year, Dorrell was named the Pac-10 Conference co-Coach of the Year.

Before his time with the Bruins, Dorrell was wide receivers coach with the Denver Broncos from 2000-02. In Denver, Rod Smith's first two career Pro Bowl selections coincided with Dorrell's first two years with the team. Smith surpassed the 1,000-yard receiving mark all three years that Dorrell was there, and also attained the 100-catch plateau the first two seasons. In addition, Ed McCaffrey went over the 100-catch and 1,000-yard receiving barriers as well in 2000, as the pair combined for 201 receptions, 2,919 receiving yards and 17 touchdowns that year.

Prior to his stint with the Broncos, Dorrell was an assistant at the collegiate level for 12 seasons, including seven years as an offensive coordinator. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, UCLA, in 1998. Dorrell also held assistant coach positions at Central Florida (1989), Northern Arizona (1990-91), Colorado (1992-93; 1995-98), Arizona State (1994) and Washington (1999). In Dorrell's 17 seasons as a head coach and an assistant coach at the collegiate level, the teams he coached put together 10 winning records and made 12 bowl appearances. He also worked with the Broncos' staff during training camp in 1993 and 1999 as part of the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship program.

Dorrell played five years as a receiver at UCLA (1982-86) and totaled 108 receptions for 1,517 yards (14.0 avg.) and nine touchdowns.

A San Diego native, he and his wife, Kim, have a son, Chandler, and a daughter, Lauren.

Brendan Farrell enters his first season with the Dolphins after being named assistant special teams coach on Feb. 11, 2019.

Farrell spent the past six seasons (2013-18) as a special teams analyst at the University of Alabama. The Crimson Tide won two national championships, played in four national title games, made five appearances in the College Football Playoff and won four SEC crowns during his tenue. PAT FLAHERTY

OFFENSIVE LINE
COLLEGE: EAST STROUDSBURG
DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Pat Flaherty enters his 20th season as an NFL coach and first season with the Dolphins after being named offensive line coach on Feb. 8, 2019.

Flaherty has 19 years of NFL coaching experience, including 15 years as an offensive line coach. He's been an offensive line coach for two Super Bowl-winning teams, as the New York Giants won Super Bowl XLII following the 2007 season and Super Bowl XLVI following the 2011 season. Flaherty was also the offensive line coach for Jacksonville's 2017 run to the AFC Championship game. He has been a position coach on five division-winning teams and had four different players who have been selected to nine Pro Bowls.

Flaherty served as offensive line coach for Jacksonville from 2017-18. In 2018, Flaherty's unit helped block for a banged up Leonard Fournette, who played in just eight games but still rushed for 439 yards and five touchdowns. Both marks were the highest of any NFL player who played less than 10 games that season.

In his first season with the Jaguars in 2017, Flaherty helped the team allow just 24 sacks, the lowest mark in franchise history. His offensive line also excelled at run blocking, as the Jaguars led the NFL with 141.4 rushing yards per game. Fournette became the second rookie running back in team history to rush for 1,000-plus yards (1,040) and had nine rushing touchdowns as the Jaguars advanced to the AFC Championship game for the first time since 1999.

Flaherty spent the 2016 season as offensive line coach for the San Francisco 49ers, where he helped the team rush for 126.2 yards per game, the fourth-highest mark in the NFL. Running back Carlos Hyde rushed for 988 yards, 14th-best in the NFL and the most in his career to that point.

Flaherty was the offensive line coach for the New York Giants for 12 seasons (2004-15), helping the offense rank in the top 10 in the NFL in six seasons and win two Super Bowls. The team had a 1,000-yard rusher in seven of his 12 seasons there, including the three-best individual rushing seasons in team history (Tiki Barber, 2006-08). His unit also protected quarterback Eli Manning, who started 183 consecutive games during Flaherty's tenure there, and passed for 4,000-plus yards on five occasions.

In 2015, the Giants' offensive line helped the team average 372.0 yards per game, which was eighth in the NFL. The Giants totaled 5,952 net yards, the third-most in franchise history. Flaherty's pass-blocking unit surrendered just 27 sacks, tied for the fourth-fewest in the league. Manning set the franchise record for single-season completions (387). He also passed for 4,432 yards and 35 touchdowns, the second-best marks in team history.

The 2014 Giants totaled 5,875 net yards, the fifth-most in team history. Manning set the franchise record for completion percentage (63.1) and his 379 completions were tied for the franchise record at the time.

In 2012, Flaherty's unit led the NFL with just 20 sacks allowed and the Giants scored 429 points, the second-most in franchise history. The team's 4.5 yards per carry average was seventh in the league. Guard Chris Snee was selected to his fourth Pro Bowl, all coming under Flaherty's guidance.

Flaherty helped the Giants overcome the retirements of two long-time offensive linemen (Rich Seubert and Shaun O'Hara) in 2011 to win Super Bowl XLVI. Despite the offensive line using five different starting lineups that season, the offense set franchise records with 6,161 total yards and 4,734 net passing yards. They allowed just 28 sacks, the seventh-fewest in the league, and the 4,734 net passing yards were fifth in the NFL.

Flaherty coached two Pro Bowl players in each season from 2008-10 as Snee and O'Hara were selected to the game in three consecutive seasons.

In 2010, the Giants were fifth in the NFL with an average of 380.3 yards per game, and set a record with 6,085 total yards that would be broken the following season. The Giants set a franchise record with just 16 sacks allowed, tied for the best mark in the league. They went five consecutive games without allowing a sack from Week 9 to Week 13, which was a team record. The Giants were one of just two NFL teams to have two running backs total at least 800 rushing yards (Ahmad Bradshaw and Brandon Jacobs). The offensive line accomplished all of this despite using six different starting lineups throughout the season due to injuries.

Tackle David Diehl was also selected to the Pro Bowl following the 2009 season, giving the Giants three players from the position group participating in the game. It was the first time the Giants had done that since 1962. The team also averaged 25.1 points per game, ranking eighth in the NFL that season.

The 2008 Giants set a franchise record and led the NFL with 2,518 rushing yards. It marked the first time since 1993 the team had led the league in rushing. Both Jacobs (1,089) and Derrick Ward (1,025) rushed for 1,000-plus yards, becoming just the fourth set of running back teammates to do that in the same season in NFL history.

The Giants won Super Bowl XLII at the end of the 2007 season behind a rushing attack that ranked fourth in the NFL, averaging 134.3 rushing yards per game. The team's 4.6 yards per carry mark was also fourth in the league.

In Flaherty's first three seasons (2004-06) in New York, the Giants had one of the best rushing attacks in the NFL led by Barber. He rushed for 1,000-plus yards in all three seasons, including a franchise record of 1,860 rushing yards in 2005. Barber's 1,662 rushing yards in 2006 were fourth in the NFL and second in team history., while his 1,518 rushing yards in 2004 were fifth in the NFL. The Giants were among the NFL's top 10 in rushing and fewest sacks allowed in both 2005 and 2006.

Flaherty moved to the offensive line after he spent the first four seasons of his NFL-coaching career with tight ends. He was Chicago's tight ends coach from 2001-03. In his first NFL season as tight ends coach for Washington in 2000, he helped Stephen Alexander earn the only Pro Bowl selection of his career with a career-high 47 receptions for 510 yards (10.9 avg.) and two touchdowns.

Prior to joining the NFL, Flaherty spent 19 years as a collegiate coach. He began his coaching career as an offensive line coach at his alma mater, East Stroudsburg University, from 1980-81. He also spent time as an assistant coach at Penn State (1982-83), Rutgers (1984-91), East Carolina (1992), Wake Forest (1993-98) and Iowa (1999). He was on Penn State's staff in 1982 when the school won its first consensus national championship.

A McSherrystown, Pennsylvania native, Flaherty was an All-American center at East Stroudsburg and was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 2004. He was also inducted into the South Central Chapter Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame in 2019. Flaherty and his wife, Lynne, have two children, Shawn and Colleen.

DOLPHINS BEFORE AND AFTER BYES

The Dolphins did not have a game preceding their bye in 1992 or 2017 because their season openers were rescheduled to the bye week due to hurricane threats. Since the NFL first instituted the open week in 1990, the Dolphins are 14-14 in games preceding the bye week. Miami owns a 17-13 record in games following a bye week.

GEORGE GODSEY

TIGHT ENDS
COLLEGE: GEORGIA TECH
NFL: NINTH SEASON
DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

George Godsey enters his ninth season as an NFL coach and first season with the Dolphins after being named tight ends coach on Feb. 8, 2019.

Godsey has experience coaching on both sides of the football. In his eight years (2011-18) as an NFL assistant coach, Godsey has been part of seven winning seasons, five divisions titles and one AFC Championship. His teams have compiled a .617 winning percentage.

Godsey spent the past two seasons (2017-18) with the Detroit Lions. He was a defensive assistant responsible for special projects in 2017 and was promoted to quarterbacks coach in 2018.

As quarterbacks coach, Godsey worked with Matthew Stafford. The signalcaller completed 66.1 percent of his passes (367-of-555) for 3,777 yards and 21 touchdowns despite two of his top receivers – Marvin Jones Jr. and Golden Tate – combining to play in just 16 games for the Lions.

In 2017, Godsey worked with the defensive side of the ball for the first time in his career. He helped the Lions finish third in the NFL in total takeaways (32), fourth in interceptions (19) and second in opponent fumble recoveries (13).

Godsey spent three seasons (2014-16) in Houston, serving as quarterbacks coach in 2014 before he was promoted to offensive coordinator in 2015. The Texans posted three consecutive winning seasons during his tenure there, and won the AFC South in both seasons he was offensive coordinator.

In 2016, Godsey oversaw a Houston offense that helped the Texans win the AFC South and an AFC Wild Card game against Oakland in Brock Osweiler's first full season as an NFL starting quarterback. Running back Lamar Miller rushed for 1,073 yards in his first season with the team.

In 2015, the Texans became the first NFL team since 1950 to make the playoffs with four different starting quarterbacks winning at least one regular-season game. Quarterback Brian Hoyer started nine contests and set single-season career highs in passer rating (91.4), completion percentage (60.7) and passing touchdowns (19). Wide receiver DeAndre Hopkins finished third in the NFL in receiving with 1,521 yards. His 11 receiving touchdowns were tied for seventh.

As quarterbacks coach and offensive play-caller in 2014, Godsey helped develop several passers as the Texans were hit by injuries at the position. Ryan Fitzpatrick started 12 contests and posted a 95.3 quarterback rating, the highest of his career until he surpassed that in the 2018 season. Case Keenum and Ryan Mallett also started two games each for the Texans.

Godsey's first NFL coaching position came in New England, where he served as an offensive assistant (2011) and tight ends coach (2012-13).

As tight ends coach in 2012-13, Godsey tutored Rob Gronkowski. Despite playing just seven games in 2013 due to injury, Gronkowski still caught 39 passes for 592 yards (15.2 avg.) and four touchdowns. His 15.2 yards per catch average was third among NFL tight ends that season.

In 2012, Godsey helped Gronkowski earn his second Pro Bowl berth. Gronkowski only played in 11 games as he dealt with injuries, but still totaled 55 receptions for 790 yards (14.4 avg.) and 11 touchdowns. His 14.4

yards per catch average and 11 touchdowns led all NFL tight ends.

In Godsey's first NFL season in 2011, he served as an offensive assistant for the Patriots and helped New England win the AFC and advance to Super Bowl XLVI. The Patriots went 13-3 that season, earning the top seed in the AFC playoffs. The Patriots were second in the NFL in total offense (428.0 yards per game) and passing offense (317.8 net passing yards per game), and third in scoring offense (32.1 points per game).

Godsey came to New England following seven seasons (2004-10) at Central Florida, where he held a variety of roles. Godsey began his coaching career as a graduate assistant (2004) for the Knights before he was promoted to quarterbacks coach (2005-08) and then moved to running backs coach in 2009. Central Florida played in three bowl games and won two conference titles in Godsey's tenure.

As the team's running backs coach in 2010, Godsey helped Central Florida lead Conference USA with 36 rushing touchdowns. The Knights went 11-3 and won Conference USA in his final season at the school.

Godsey was a standout quarterback at Georgia Tech from 1998-2001. He left school as the program's all-time career record holder in completion percentage (63.3) and passer rating (143.6). He went on to play one season in the Arena Football League for the Tampa Bay Storm, where they won ArenaBowl XVII.

DEFENSIVE LINE
COLLEGE: TENNESSEE
NFL: FIFTH SEASON
DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Marion Hobby enters his fifth season as an NFL coach and first season with the Dolphins after being named defensive line coach on Feb. 8, 2019.

Nearly all of Hobby's coaching experience comes on the defensive line, as he's been coaching the position for Power 5 and NFL teams for more than 20 years. He also has experience as a defensive coordinator and assistant head coach at the collegiate level.

Hobby spent the past two seasons (2017-18) with the Jacksonville Jaguars, where he served as defensive line coach. In 2018, he helped the Jaguars finish tied for fourth in the NFL in scoring defense, allowing just 19.8 points per game, and fifth in total defense, allowing 311.4 yards per game. The team's pass defense was second in the NFL, averaging 194.6 net passing yards allowed per game. Hobby mentored defensive end Calais Campbell, who was the oldest NFL player (32) to have double-digit sacks (10.5) in 2018 and became the first player in team history to have double-digit sacks in back-to-back seasons. He also earned a Pro Bowl selection.

In Hobby's first season with the Jaguars in 2017, he helped the team have one of the best pass-rushing units in the NFL. The team was second in the NFL with 55 sacks and had four defensive linemen total at least eight sacks – Campbell (14.5), defensive end Yannick Ngakoue (12.0), defensive tackle Malik Jackson (8.0) and defensive end Dante Fowler Jr. (8.0). The Jaguars defense finished second in scoring (16.8 points allowed per game), total defense (286.1 yards allowed per game), takeaways (33) and interceptions (21). The unit helped Jacksonville win the AFC South and advance to the AFC Championship game for the first time since 1999. Three of Hobby's defensive linemen made the Pro Bowl – Campbell, Jackson and Ngakoue. Campbell earned first-team All-Pro honors and was named PFWA Defensive Player of the Year after setting a franchise record with his 14.5 sacks.

Hobby spent six seasons (2011-16) in his second stint at Clemson, serving as co-defensive coordinator and defensive ends coach. The Tigers finished in the top 25 in all six seasons he was on staff, played in two national championship games and won the College Football Playoff National Championship following the 2016 season. He also developed several NFL players while at Clemson, including two first-round picks and two second-round selections. Vic Beasley went eighth overall to Atlanta in the 2015 NFL draft, Shaq Lawson was a first-round pick of Buffalo's (19th overall) in the 2016 NFL draft, Kevin Dodd was a second-round pick (33rd overall) by Tennessee in the 2016 NFL draft, Andre Branch was a second-round pick (38th overall) by Jacksonville in the 2012 NFL draft and Malliciah Goodman was selected in the fourth round (127th overall) by Atlanta in the 2013 NFL draft.

In 2016, Hobby tutored Christian Wilkins, who earned first-team All-America honors and was a finalist for the Nagurski Award (nation's top defensive player) as a sophomore. Clemson finished the season 14-1, winning the ACC and the College Football Playoff National Championship, the school's first national title since 1981. The Tigers were third in sacks (49), eighth in total defense (311.5 yards allowed per game) and 10th in scoring defense (18.0 points allowed per game).

Clemson finished No. 2 in the country in 2015 as Hobby helped Lawson earn first-team All-American honors and Dodd was named honorable mention All-ACC. The two finished first and second in the nation in tackles for loss.

In 2014, Clemson led the nation in total defense (260.8) and tackles for loss (131). Hobby mentored Beasley, who earned first-team All-American honors and was named ACC Defensive Player of the Year. Beasley finished his career as the school's record-holder with 33 career sacks. He also earned first-team All-American honors in 2013 and was a finalist for the Hendricks Award (nation's top defensive end) after he led the ACC with 13 sacks.

Prior to joining Clemson, Hobby spent three seasons (2008-10) as the assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and defensive line coach at Duke. He helped the Blue Devils' defense hold opponents to just 23.4 points per game in 2008, the program's best mark in 20 years.

Hobby spent the 2006-07 seasons as defensive ends coach for the New Orleans Saints. In 2006, he helped Will Smith start in the Pro Bowl after he totaled 10.5 sacks. The Saints went 10-6 and won the NFC South that season.

In 2005, Hobby was the defensive line coach for his first stint at Clemson. He helped the Tigers finish in the top 25 with an 8-4 record. Clemson was 11th in the nation in scoring defense, allowing just 17.6 points per game.

A PLAYERS COACH

Although there is not a current Dolphins coach that also played for the team, Renaldo Hill became the 10th person to have both played and coached with the Dolphins when he was hired as assistant defensive backs coach in 2018. Hill played safety with the team from 2006-08. The first to have achieved this was Bob Matheson, who was a linebacker from 1971-79 before going on to serve with the staff from 1983-86. The others who followed Matheson and preceded Hill are Larry Seiple (P/RB/TE, 1967-77; Coach, 1988-99), Tony Nathan (RB, 1979-87; Coach, 1989-95), Dwight Stephenson (C, 1980-87; Coach, 1992), Bernie Parmalee (RB, 1992-98; Coach, 2002-04), Jeff Dellenbach (T/C, 1985-94; Coach, 2004), Terry Robiskie (FB, 1980-81; Coach, 2007), James Saxon (RB, 1992-94; Coach, 2008-10) and Bryan Cox (LB 1991-95; Coach 2011). In addition, while not seeing action in a game, Jason Garrett served as the team's 3rd quarterback for five games in 2004 before joining the coaching staff from 2005-06 as the team's quarterbacks coach.

ROB LEONARD

LINEBACKERS
COLLEGE: NORTH CAROLINA STATE
NFL: SEVENTH SEASON
DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Rob Leonard enters his seventh season as an NFL coach and first season with the Dolphins after being named linebackers coach on Feb. 8, 2019.

Leonard spent the first six seasons (2013-18) of his NFL coaching career with the New York Giants. He began his tenure as a defensive assistant (2013-16) before being promoted to assistant defensive line coach (2017) and then to outside linebackers coach (2018).

In 2018, Leonard moved to outside linebackers coach and helped Olivier Vernon lead the Giants with seven sacks and 21 quarterback hits. He mentored Lorenzo Carter, who totaled four sacks in his rookie season, tied for 10th among all NFL rookies. Only four NFL rookies picked behind Carter (3rd round, 66th overall) totaled more sacks than he did.

Leonard was promoted to assistant defensive line coach in 2017. In his lone season in the role, Leonard helped defensive tackle Damon Harrison post 76 tackles (51 solo), which ranked second on the team and led all NFL defensive tackles. He also assisted defensive end Jason Pierre-Paul, who led the team with 8.5 sacks in his first 16-game season since 2014.

Leonard served as a defensive assistant for the Giants from 2013-16. In 2016, he was part of a staff that coached the NFL's most-improved defense in the NFL, which helped the team finish 11-5 and earn a playoff berth. The unit allowed 158 fewer points and 1,290 fewer yards than it did in 2015. The Giants led the NFL with just 25 offensive touchdowns allowed and held opponents under 20 points on eight occasions. The team's 17.8 points per game allowed was second in the NFL and the team's best since 2002. The Giants also tied for third in the NFL in rushing yards allowed (88.6 yards per game). Harrison totaled 86 tackles (55 solo), which was the most by an NFL defensive tackle since 1996 when Buffalo's Ted Washington had 92 stops (70 solo). Harrison earned first-team All-Pro honors.

In 2015, the Giants defense was tied for sixth in the NFL with 28 takeaways. The team's 15 interceptions were tied for 10th in the NFL while their 17 forced fumbles were tied for eighth and their 13 fumble recoveries were tied for fourth.

The 2014 Giants' defense made several big plays. They finished fourth in the NFL with 47 sacks, led by Pierre-Paul, whose 12.5 sacks were eighth in the NFL. Pierre-Paul also had 76 tackles (54 solo), which ranked third on the team. The Giants intercepted 17 passes, good for 11th in the NFL.

In Leonard's first NFL season in 2013, the Giants finished eighth in the NFL in total defense, allowing just 332.3 yards per game. The unit had the 10th-best passing defense in the NFL, allowing just 223.3 net passing yards per game, and limited opposing passers to a 78.3 rating, which ranked sixth in the league. The Giants were also stout against the run, holding opponents to just 3.84 yards per carry, the sixth-best mark in the NFL.

Leonard came to the Giants from North Carolina State, where he was a graduate assistant for three seasons (2010-12). The Wolfpack posted winning records and appeared in three consecutive bowl games while he was on staff. He began his coaching career in 2009 as a defensive assistant at Cardinal Gibbons High School in Raleigh, North Carolina.

Leonard was a three-year letterman at North Carolina State (2006-08), where he walked on and earned a scholarship while redshirting following his freshman season at Washington & Jefferson College, a Division III school. He primarily played special teams in 2006 and 2007 before earning a starting linebacker role in 2008. He led the Wolfpack with 95 tackles and 801 snaps that season, and earned the team's Mike Hardy Award, given annually to the player who plays beyond his capabilities.

A native of Moon Township, Pennsylvania, Leonard earned first-team all-conference honors at Moon High School, where he played running back, defensive back, kick returner and punter. He also earned second-team all-state honors at cornerback.

Leonard and his wife, Anna, have two sons, Bo and Luke.

TONY ODEN

SAFETIES
COLLEGE: BALDWIN-WALLACE
DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

Tony Oden enters his second season with the Miami Dolphins and his first as safeties coach. He joined the organization after being named defensive backs coach on Jan. 31, 2018.

Oden has 15 years of NFL coaching experience, all with defensive backs. In four of his past six seasons, Oden's teams have ranked in the NFL's top five in interceptions (2013-14, 2017, 2018). He's played an instrumental part in six players earning eight Pro Bowl selections.

In 2018, Oden served as defensive backs coach and led a Dolphins secondary that was among the best in the NFL at forcing turnovers. Miami's 21 interceptions ranked second in the league and were the most by a Dolphins defense since 2003. His defensive backs contributed to 17 of those 21 picks, good for second in the NFL, and allowed a 93.1 quarterback rating, the ninth-lowest in the league. The Miami defense also allowed an average of just 1.26 points per drive in the final two minutes of a half, which was the fourth-best rate in the NFL, and forced seven turnovers in those situations. Cornerback Xavien Howard tied for the league lead with seven interceptions despite missing the last four games due to injury and earned Pro Bowl honors for the first time in his career. Safety Minkah Fitzpatrick's two interceptions were tied for seventh among NFL rookies while his 80 tackles (51 solo) ranked 10th.

Prior to 2018, Oden spent four seasons (2014-17) coaching defensive backs and cornerbacks for Detroit. During his tenure in Detroit, the Lions recorded 58 interceptions, which were the ninth-most in the NFL during that time span.

In 2017, he helped the Lions tie for fourth in the NFL with 19 interceptions. Among cornerback units, Detroit tied for the league-high with four fumble recoveries and two defensive touchdowns and tied for second with 12 total takeaways. Cornerbacks Nevin Lawson and DJ Hayden contributed to the team's record-tying seven defensive touchdowns as both scored on fumble returns. Cornerback Darius Slay tied for the league lead with eight interceptions, more than the previous four years of his NFL career combined. Slay's breakout season also included a league-high 26 passes defensed and 60 tackles (54 solo). The 26 passes defensed were tied for the second-most in the NFL in the previous decade (2008-17). Slay earned first-team All-Pro honors and the first Pro Bowl selection of his career, becoming the first Lions cornerback to do so since 2004.

During the 2016 season, Slay and Lawson were among the team's top six leading tacklers, while Lawson's nine passes defensed were second-most on the team. The Lions finished 9-7 that season and earned an NFC Wild Card playoff berth.

The 2015 Lions finished in the top half of the NFL in passing defense, surrendering just 236.6 passing yards per game. The team limited downfield passing plays by holding opponents to just a 5.8 yards depth at catch average, the 10th-best in the league. Oden developed rookie cornerback Quandre Diggs into one of the team's most versatile players, as Diggs recorded 35 tackles (28 solo), six passes defensed, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery.

In Oden's first season in Detroit in 2014, he helped the Lions win 11 games and earn a playoff berth. Slay had 17 passes defensed, tied for the sixth-most in the NFL and second among all rookie and second-year players. The Lions were tied for third in the NFL with 20 interceptions and 13th in pass defense, allowing just 231.6 passing yards per game.

Oden spent the 2013 season coaching cornerbacks for Tampa Bay. The Buccaneers were tied for third in the NFL with 21 interceptions. Cornerback Darrelle Revis earned a Pro Bowl selection just one year removed from ACL surgery after posting 50 tackles (43 solo), two interceptions and two forced fumbles. He led the team with 11 passes defensed. Rookie cornerback Johnthan Banks led the team with three interceptions.

Oden was in Jacksonville for the 2012 campaign. Cornerback Derek Cox led the team with four interceptions despite not having a pick in the previous season. Cox also led the team with 11 passes defensed. Safety Dawan Landry totaled 100 tackles (81 solo) and one interceptions.

Oden spent six seasons (2006-11) with the New Orleans Saints, beginning as the assistant secondary coach (2006-10) before being promoted to secondary coach (2011). During his tenure with the Saints, the team won three NFC South titles (2006, 2009, 2011) and won Super Bowl XLIV following the 2009 season. His teams twice finished in the top five in the league in passing yards allowed, ranking third in 2006 (178.4 passing yards allowed per game) and fourth in 2010 (193.9). Harper earned Pro Bowl selections following the 2009 and 2010 seasons.

Oden began his NFL career in 2004 with the Houston Texans, where he spent two seasons (2004-05) as a defensive assistant and assistant defensive backs coach. In 2004, the team set the franchise record for interceptions (22).

Prior to joining the NFL coaching ranks, Oden spent eight seasons as a collegiate coach. He held various defensive assistant coaching positions at Eastern Michigan (2003), East Carolina (2000-02), Army (1998-99), Boston College (1997) and Millersville University (1996).

Oden was a two-time all-conference linebacker at Baldwin-Wallace where he was a captain his senior season and earned All-America honors as a junior. He was inducted into the Cleveland Heights High School Hall of Fame in 2017.

Schuplinski has been part of three Super Bowl winning teams (XLIX, LI and LIII) during his six seasons (2013-18) as an NFL coach with New England. His teams won four AFC titles and advanced to the conference championship in all six years.

Schuplinski spent the past three seasons (2016-18) in New England as the assistant quarterbacks coach, working closely with Tom Brady. In 2018, the Patriots won Super Bowl LIII while finishing eighth in passing, averaging 266.1 net passing yards per game. Brady was seventh in the NFL with 4,355 passing yards and 10th with 29 passing touchdowns, earning his 14th Pro Bowl selection.

In 2017, Schuplinski helped Brady win the league's Most Valuable Player award for the third time in his career. Brady was the NFL's leading passer, throwing for 4,577 yards. His 32 passing touchdowns and 102.8 passer rating were both third in the league. The Patriots led the NFL in total offense, averaging 394.2 yards per game, and finished second in scoring, averaging 28.6 points per game.

In Schuplinski's first season as assistant quarterbacks coach in 2016, the Patriots won Super Bowl LI. Brady was named Super Bowl MVP after he passed for 466 yards and two touchdowns in a dramatic come-from-behind overtime victory against Atlanta. Patriots quarterbacks set an NFL record with 258 pass attempts to start the season without an interception. The team threw just two interceptions all season, setting an NFL record for best touchdown to interception ratio (16.0) in a single season. With Brady out for the first four games of the season, Schuplinski worked with quarterbacks Jimmy Garoppolo and Jacoby Brissett, helping the team go 3-1 in Brady's absence.

Schuplinski got his start in the NFL in 2013 with the Patriots as a coaching assistant, a position he held for three seasons (2013-15). During those three years, New England won Super Bowl XLIX and compiled a 36-12 (.750) regular-season record. The Patriots earned a first-round bye in the AFC playoffs in all three seasons.

Prior to New England, Schuplinski spent six seasons (2007-12) as the linebackers and special teams coach at Case Western Reserve. During his tenure, Schuplinski mentored 22 University Athletic Association (NCAA Division III) all-conference selections.

Schuplinski was head coach and athletics director at Trinity High School in Garfield Heights, Ohio from 2002-06. He began his coaching career as a running backs and special teams coach at his alma mater, John Carroll, from 2000-01.

Schuplinski played collegiately at John Carroll, where he was college teammates with former NFL linebacker London Fletcher and Patriots director of player personnel Nick Caserio and offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach Josh McDaniels. He graduated from the school with his bachelor's degree in business administration/marketing in 1999 and his master's degree in business administration in 2001.

ERIC STUDESVILLE

RUNNING BACKS
COLLEGE: WISCONSIN-WHITEWATER
NFL: 23RD SEASON
DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

Eric Studesville enters his second season with the Miami Dolphins coaching running backs.

Studesville has 22 years of NFL coaching experience, including 18 at the running backs position. He has been on the coaching staffs of two conference championship teams (2013 and 2015) and won Super Bowl 50 with the Denver Broncos.

Studesville has helped his players earn three Pro Bowl selections – Marshawn Lynch (2008), Willis McGahee (2011) and C.J. Anderson (2014). He's also been the position coach for 10 1,000-yard rushing campaigns with McGahee (3), Tiki Barber (2), Lynch (2), Knowshon Moreno (1), Fred Jackson (1) and Anderson (1). In total, his running backs have registered 61 individual 100-yard performances – a total that includes 24 by McGahee and 12 by Barber.

In his first season with the Dolphins in 2018, Studesville drastically improved Miami's running game. He took the Dolphins from 24th in the NFL averaging 3.86 yards per carry in 2017 to ninth in the statistic, averaging 4.68 yards per carry in 2018. Kenyan Drake topped 1,000 scrimmage yards (1,012) for the first time in his career and tied a team record for most receiving touchdowns by a running back (5). Frank Gore led Miami with 722 rushing yards. His 4.63 yards per carry average was the highest in NFL history by a running back at least 35 years of age. Studesville also tutored Kalen Ballage, who became the first Dolphins rookie to rush for 100-plus yards in a game since 2011 when he had 12 carries for 123 yards (10.3 avg.) and one touchdown in Week 15 at Minnesota.

Prior to his time in Miami, Studesville spent eight seasons (2010-17) as Denver's running backs coach. He was promoted to assistant head coach in 2017. That season, he helped Anderson reach 1,000 rushing yards for the first time in his career. As a team, the Broncos were 12th in the NFL in rushing, averaging 115.8 yards per game. His running backs were also active in the passing game as three of the team's top six reception leaders were players he coached, including Devontae Booker (30 receptions), Anderson (28 receptions) and Jamaal Charles (23 receptions).

In 2016, Studesville's unit lost its starting running back (Anderson) and fullback (Andy Janovich) to injured reserve but helped Booker, a fourth-round pick, lead the team in rushing with 612 yards. His total was fourth among NFL rookies that season and he was second among rookie running backs with 31 receptions for 265 yards (8.5 avg.) and one touchdown.

Studesville was part of the Broncos' Super Bowl 50 victory at the end of the 2015 season. The team averaged nearly 50 rushing yards per game more during the final seven weeks of the season than the first 10, ranking seventh in the league with 135.1 rushing yards in those final seven games. Ronnie Hillman (4) and Anderson (2) combined for six 100-yard performances that season. Anderson led the NFL in rushing attempts (54) and rushing yards (234) during the postseason.

In 2014, Studesville helped Anderson earn a Pro Bowl selection despite not making his first career start until Week 11. Anderson led the NFL with 709 yards from scrimmage (472 rushing and 237 receiving) during the month of November and tied for the league lead with seven rushing touchdowns in the month of December. He became just the fifth undrafted running back in NFL history to earn a Pro Bowl selection.

The 2013 Broncos were the best offense in NFL history, setting the league's scoring record with 606 points. Studesville worked under future Dolphins Head Coach Adam Gase, who was the Broncos' offensive coordinator at the time, and helped Moreno become the first player in Broncos history to post 1,000 yards rushing (1,038) and 500 yards receiving (548). Denver won the AFC Championship and participated in Super Bowl XLVIII.

In 2012, Studesville helped the Broncos finish 13-3 and win the AFC West. The team won 11 straight games to finish the regular season and earned a first-round bye in the playoffs. His running backs unit was ravaged by injuries but still helped the Broncos finish fourth in offense. McGahee rushed for 731 yards and four touchdowns despite playing just 10 games.

Studesville's group in 2011 helped the Broncos lead the NFL in rushing, setting a team record with 164.5 rushing yards per game. McGahee tied for the NFL lead with seven 100-yard rushing games and totaled 1,199 rushing yards on the season.

The 2010 season was Studesville's first in Denver and he helped Moreno become the fifth player in team history to record 1,000 yards from scrimmage in each of his first two NFL seasons. He was named the team's interim head coach on Dec. 6, 2010 and served in that capacity for the final four games of the season, becoming the first African-American head coach in Broncos history. He earned his first win as an NFL head coach on Dec. 26, 2010 vs. Houston.

From 2004-09, Studesville was the running backs coach for the Buffalo Bills. He added running game coordinator responsibilities in 2008. He coached a 1,000-yard rusher in five of his six seasons in Buffalo, including three straight years to end his tenure there.

In 2008, Studesville helped Lynch become the first Bills running back in five years to earn a Pro Bowl nomination after his second consecutive 1,000-yard season (1,036). Fred Jackson rushed for 500 yards and the pairing combined for 84 receptions, a mark that led the league among rushing tandems.

McGahee (2004-05) and Lynch (2007-08) rushed for 1,000 yards in each of their first two NFL seasons under Studesville. McGahee's 2,375 yards broke a team record for the most rushing yards in a player's first two years. McGahee was the fourth rookie in team history to reach 1,000 rushing yards (1,128) and tied a franchise rookie record with 13 rushing touchdowns. He began his career with at least 100 yards in his first three starts, becoming only the third NFL player to do so since 1970.

Prior to Buffalo, Studesville was the running backs coach for the New York Giants and helped Tiki Barber rush for 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons. Barber was seventh in the NFL in yards per rush (3.6), ninth in rushing yards (3,468) and led all NFC running backs with 210 receptions during that three-year span. His 5,103 scrimmage yards were fifth in the NFL.

Studesville's first NFL stop was the Chicago Bears, where he was an NFL minority coaching fellowship during training camp in 1996. He spent four seasons (1997-2000) with the Bears as offensive quality control.

Prior to his NFL coaching career, Studesville was a defensive assistant in the collegiate ranks. He was a secondary coach at Kent State (1995-96) and Wingate (1994). Studesville also spent time as a video assistant at North Carolina (1992-93) and a graduate assistant at Arizona (1991).

Studesville was a defensive back at Wisconsin-Whitewater and graduated with a bachelor's degree in physical education. He earned his master's degree in exercise physiology at Arizona. He and his wife, Staci, have one daughter, Sydni, and a son, Eric Jr.

In 2018, Grizzard helped the Dolphins offense improve from 24th to ninth in the NFL with a 4.68 yards per carry average. Running back Kenyan Drake surpassed 1,000 yards from scrimmage (1,012) for the first time in his career. Frank Gore averaged 4.63 yards per carry, the most in NFL history by a player at least 35 years old. He recorded 722 yards on the ground despite missing the final two games due to injury. The Dolphins also set an NFL record with three different wide receivers throwing a touchdown in the same season – Albert Wilson, Danny Amendola and Kenny Stills.

In his first season in Miami in 2017, Grizzard helped Drake lead the NFL with 444 rushing yards in the final five weeks of the season. Drake was tied for second in the league with three runs of 40-plus yards despite having just 152 carries on the season. He was promoted into that role following the 2013 season, when he served as a football operations assistant. Grizzard helped the Blue Devils to their best three-year stretch (2013-15) in school history with 27 total wins, an ACC Coastal division title and three consecutive bowl appearances.

In 2016, he worked with quarterback Daniel Jones and helped the redshirt freshman rank No. 6 in the ACC and lead all conference freshmen with 276.8 yards of total offense per game.

In 2015, Grizzard helped first-year starter Thomas Sirk throw for 2,625 yards and 16 touchdowns while rushing for 803 yards and eight more scores. Sirk became one of just three quarterbacks in ACC history to throw for 2,500-plus yards and rush for 800-plus yards in a single season. His 3,428 total offensive yards were second all-time in single-season school history.

The 2014 Blue Devils featured five All-ACC selections and compiled 421 total points, the second-most in school history. Quarterback Anthony Boone, the winningest quarterback in the history of Duke football, earned All-ACC honors and the team finished in the conference's top five in six offensive statistics.

Grizzard played defensive back at Yale and graduated with a degree in political science. He earned his master's degree in Christian studies from Duke. Grizzard is a native of Zebulon, North Carolina and currently resides in Fort Lauderdale. His last name is pronounced Grizz-ARD.

REGGIE McKENZIE

SENIOR PERSONNEL EXECUTIVE
DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Reggie McKenzie enters his 26th season as an NFL executive and his first with the Miami Dolphins after he was named senior personnel executive on Feb. 22, 2019.

McKenzie joins the Dolphins after spending the past seven years (2012-18) as the general manager of the Oakland Raiders. He was the organization's first general manager since Al Davis was hired as head coach and general manager in 1963.

In 2016, McKenzie was named the NFL's Executive of the Year by Sporting News, The MMQB and the PFWA (Pro Football Writers Association). He helped construct a Raiders team that went 12-4 in the regular season and made the playoffs. It was the team's first playoff appearance and winning season since they won the AFC in 2002. Oakland led the NFL with seven players selected to the Pro Bowl that season, the team's most since 1991. All seven Pro Bowl selections were acquired during McKenzie's tenure.

McKenzie was instrumental in acquiring several outstanding players during his time as Oakland's general manager. In 2014, he drafted linebacker Khalil Mack out of Buffalo. Mack spent four seasons in Oakland (2014-17) and was named first-team All-Pro twice, earned three Pro Bowl selections and was the NFL's 2016 Defensive Player of the Year. In the same draft, the Raiders selected quarterback Derek Carr in the second round. Carr was selected to three Pro Bowls while McKenzie was in Oakland and was tied for third in NFL MVP voting in 2016. With the Raiders' first-round pick in 2015, the team selected wide receiver Amari Cooper, who was named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team and earned three Pro Bowl selections during McKenzie's tenure. With a sixth-round pick in 2013, the Raiders selected running back Latavius Murray, who earned Pro Bowl honors in 2015.

As Oakland's general manager, McKenzie also made a splash in free agency. In 2017, the Raiders signed tight end Jared Cook. In 2018, Cook finished fourth among tight ends with 896 receiving yards and was named to his first career Pro Bowl. Oakland signed safety Reggie Nelson in 2016 and he earned a Pro Bowl selection in his first year with the club. The club brought back safety Charles Woodson in 2013 and Woodson earned second-team All-Pro honors and was selected to the Pro Bowl in 2015.

McKenzie also had success identifying free agent offensive linemen. The Raiders signed guard Kelechi Osemele in the 2016 offseason and Osemele went on to earn back-to-back Pro Bowl selections in 2016 and 2017. He also earned first-team All-Pro honors in 2016. Oakland added tackle Donald Penn in 2014 and Penn produced Pro Bowl seasons in 2016 and 2017.

Prior to Oakland, McKenzie spent 18 years (1994-2011) in the Green Bay Packers' personnel department. He joined the Packers as a pro personnel assistant in 1994, was promoted to director of pro personnel in 1997 and promoted again to director of football operations in 2008.

In McKenzie's 18 seasons in Green Bay, he helped the Packers compile the second-best record (185-103, .642) in the NFL during that span. Green Bay won eight division titles, three conference championships and two Super Bowls (XXXI and XLV).

McKenzie was a 10th-round draft pick (275th overall) by the Los Angeles Raiders in the 1985 NFL draft and earned all-rookie team honors at linebacker that season. He spent four seasons (1985-88) with the Raiders, two (1989-90) with the Phoenix Cardinals and one with San Francisco (1992). McKenzie totaled 60 career games played with three sacks and two interceptions. Following his playing career, he spent the 1993 season as a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater, Tennessee.

McKenzie earned his bachelor's degree in business administration with an emphasis in personnel management from Tennessee. A Knoxville native, he was an all-state linebacker and valedictorian at Austin-East High School.

McKenzie is married to June, who is a retired attorney. The couple has two daughters, Jasmin and Mahkayla, and two sons, Reginald Jr. and Jalen. Reginald Jr. plays offensive line and was a sixth-round pick (198th overall) by Kansas City in the 2018 NFL draft. 1 T.D.

MASCOT // 7-0 // ALL MUSSELS
ACQUIRED: FA, '97
COLLEGE: ATLANTIS '97
NFL: 23RD SEASON // DOLPHINS: 23RD SEASON

T.D., the official mascot of the Miami Dolphins, has been a fixture at Dolphins games since his introduction at the Miami Dolphins' Draft Party on April 19, 1997. His charming personality, outstanding sense of humor and ability to relate to young and old alike make him a "Fin"-tastic ambassador for the Dolphins.

T.D. performs at every Dolphins home game, but his job isn't done when the season is over. He can be found throughout South Florida, making appearances at schools, parades, hospitals and various other functions.

A 10-time Pro Bowl mascot, T.D. also has performed at the Chinese New Year's Day Parade in Hong Kong, was the first mascot to participate in the Hall of Fame Game in Canton, Ohio, and has traveled overseas to meet American troops abroad on three military tours.

When T.D. originally debuted, he had not yet been named. The Dolphins' "Name the Mascot Contest" drew more than 13,000 entries from all 50 states and more than 22 countries. Sara Fernandez of Miami was the first to submit the name "T.D.," and she won two tickets to Super Bowl XXXII when the name was selected at the annual Dolphins Awards Banquet on June 4, 1997.

Prior to T.D., the club had a live dolphin named "Flipper," who was situated in a fish tank in the open end of the Orange Bowl. The club also had "Dolfan Denny" patrol the sidelines for several seasons. However, with the debut of T.D., the Dolphins finally had an official mascot.

If you'd like to score a T.D. at your next event, please email KHeinle@dolphins.com.

MIAMI DOLPHINS LOGO HISTORY

On April 25, 2013, the Miami Dolphins unveiled the fifth team logo in the organization's history. The new logo was developed during a creative process spanning more than a year and a half and incorporated input from ownership, members of the organization, former players and the franchise's loyal fans.

Highlighting the evolution is the return to the original aqua and orange color scheme that has come to embody the team and the surrounding Miami area. The iconic elements, the sun and the dolphin, remain prominent and allow the redesigned logo to remain connected throughout the team's history while representing the constant influence of the South Florida environment and community.

Within the logo, the aqua, along with the marine blue, first introduced in 1997 and now finessed through this process, are inspired by the color of South Florida's Atlantic Ocean; while the orange is representative of the bright South Florida sun. The dolphins' positioning has been refined and now features the moment of most power in the marine mammal's trajectory, right before it breaks the plane of the water. The sun has also been refined to incorporate more rays as well as an overall enhancement to a more bright and vibrant color.

The original logo featured the dolphin jumping in front of a sunburst using the team's base colors (aqua, coral and white). In 1974, the dolphin was repositioned in front of the sunburst and the aqua color was strengthened. In 1989, there was a further strengthening of the aqua color and the dolphin's tail was elongated. In 1997, the traditional logo and colors were kept as a base, while the sunburst on the logo was accentuated and the dolphin was strengthened with a stronger definition of its shape. In addition, the sunburst was more prominently displayed with the elimination of the hashmarks around the sun's perimeter, while the dolphin's features were accentuated by navy highlights.

HARD ROCK STADIUM

Hard Rock Stadium is a global entertainment destination that serves as home to the Miami Dolphins, The Miami Open, University of Miami football team, Orange Bowl, Super Bowl LIV and the 100th season of the NFL, 2021 College Football Playoff National Championship, major concerts, international soccer and a host of world-class events.

The multi-purpose, open-air complex completed a multi-year renovation fine tuned to enhance the fan experience. On June 17, 2014, the Miami-Dade County Commission approved a Performance-Based Marquee Event Grant Agreement, which moved forward Hard Rock Stadium's modernization plan. The agreement provides bonus payments to the Miami Dolphins for hosting major events in exchange for Dolphins Chairman of the Board & Managing General Partner Stephen Ross taking financial responsibility for the renovation of Hard Rock Stadium without county assistance. The modernization was privately funded by Ross at an estimated cost of more than $550 million.

Phase I of the project was completed for the 2015 season and changed every seat in the stadium, rebuilt the concourses on the 100 and 300 levels, moved seats 25 feet closer to the field on the north and south sidelines, introduced five new premium spaces and offered guests improved food, enhanced concourses and 16 new restroom facilities throughout the facility. For the 2016 season, Hard Rock Stadium installed a state-of-the-art canopy that keeps as many as 92 percent of the spectators in the shade and four high-definition video boards. Unveiled in 2017 were remodeled, modernized suites throughout the stadium offering a more intimate club space on the 200 level with improved amenities and fare.

Hard Rock Stadium hosted its first football game in August 1987 and its first regular season Major League Baseball game in April 1993. It has been home to five Super Bowls, four BCS National Championships and was the first stadium to host the NFL Pro Bowl after 30 years of the game being held in Hawaii.

HISTORY

Now in its 31st year of operation, Hard Rock Stadium was the first of its kind to be constructed entirely with private funds, costing $115 million when it was completed in 1987. The late Dolphins Chairman of the Board & Managing General Partner Joe Robbie led the financing campaign to build "Joe Robbie Stadium." The stadium revolutionized the economics of professional sports when it opened that year. Inclusion of a club level, along with executive suites, helped to finance the construction of the stadium. Season ticket members committed to long-term agreements and in return they received first-class amenities in a state-of-the-art facility.

On March 7, 1990, H. Wayne Huizenga, then Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Blockbuster Video and Huizenga Holdings Inc., agreed to purchase fifty percent of Joe Robbie Stadium and became the point man in the drive to bring Major League Baseball to South Florida. That effort was rewarded in July 1991, when South Florida was awarded a National League expansion franchise. On Jan. 24, 1994, Huizenga acquired the remaining fifty percent of the stadium to give him 100 percent controlling interest.

On Aug. 26, 1996, Pro Player, the sports apparel division of Fruit of the Loom, sponsored the renaming of Joe Robbie Stadium as Pro Player Stadium. It became the first sports marketing and product company to entitle a stadium or arena.

The first football game in Joe Robbie Stadium was held on Aug. 16, 1987, when the Miami Dolphins met the Chicago Bears in a preseason battle. The game also marked the 22nd anniversary of the Dolphins franchise. The stadium hosted the National Football League's premier game, Super Bowl XXIII, on Jan. 22, 1989. It marked the return of the Super Bowl to South Florida after a 10-year absence. Subsequent Super Bowls include Super Bowl XXIX (Jan. 29, 1995), Super Bowl XXIII (Jan. 31, 1999), Super Bowl XLI (Feb. 4, 2007) and Super Bowl XLIV (Feb. 1, 2010). Hard Rock Stadium has the honor of hosting South Florida's record 11th Super Bowl in 2020, the 100th anniversary of the NFL.

Major League Baseball officially began in South Florida in the spring of 1993 as the Florida Marlins opened their inaugural campaign as a National League team. On April 5, 1993, the "new" look of Joe Robbie Stadium as a baseball facility was unveiled to the public for the first time as the Florida Marlins earned a 6-3 win over the Los Angeles Dodgers. On Sept. 28, 2011, the Marlins played their final game at the stadium. A crowd of 34,615 watched as the Marlins dropped a 3-1 decision to the Washington Nationals. In all, the Marlins played 1,504 games in the stadium and posted a record of 781-723.

In 1997, the stadium hosted four World Series games between the Marlins and the Cleveland Indians, including Game 1 on Oct. 18, 1997, the first Series game ever played at the stadium, and Game 7 on Oct. 26, 1997, which the Marlins won, 3-2 in 11 innings, to capture their first World Championship.

Before the arrival of the Marlins, the stadium had played host to 13 spring training games that attracted 370,000 fans and paved the way for baseball in South Florida.

The stadium was renamed Dolphins Stadium in Jan. 2005, as part of a major plan renovation initiated by Huizenga. In April 2006, two high-definition video boards, the largest and second largest in professional sports at that time, were unveiled. A new fascia LED ribbon-board was installed in July 2006.

In 2007, Hard Rock Stadium underwent $250 million in improvements and innovations, adding 360,000 square feet of programmable space, new casual seating and gathering areas throughout the stadium, an all-new club level, refurbished luxury suites, new team merchandise store and other amenities. In 2010, corporate offices were built on the east side of Hard Rock Stadium in order to consolidate the business offices of the Miami Dolphins. "A Perfect Moment In Time" statue honoring Don Shula and the team's undefeated season in 1972 was unveiled and proudly adorns the entrance of the offices.

In 2008, Huizenga sold 50 percent of the team, stadium and surrounding developable land to Stephen M. Ross, Chairman of Related Companies, an international real estate development company. Huizenga remained the managing general partner of the franchise until he sold another 45 percent of the team and stadium to Ross in Jan. 2009. Ross became managing general partner with 95 percent stake of the Dolphins and the stadium while Huizenga retained a five percent share of both and remained a 50 percent partner in the land.

In one of his first moves to improve the fan experience at the stadium, in May 2009, Ross and celebrated singer songwriter Jimmy Buffett announced Dolphin Stadium would be renamed Land Shark Stadium. The unique branding brought Buffett's Margaritaville and Land Shark themes to enhance the game-day experience. To mark the announcement, Buffett performed three songs and unveiled the new lyrics to his iconic song "FINS," written expressly for the team.

On Jan. 20, 2010, the stadium's name was changed to Sun Life Stadium as the international financial services organization made Miami and South Florida a major part of a multi-city philanthropic endeavor through a comprehensive marketing partnership with the Miami Dolphins and the Miami Dolphins Foundation.

On Aug. 17, 2016, the Dolphins and Hard Rock International announced an 18-year agreement to name the newly renovated facility Hard Rock Stadium. As part of the agreement, the iconic lifestyle brand became the official Dolphins' hotel and resort partner, casual dining restaurant partner, hospitality partner and Native American Tribe.

Major League Baseball's premier event, the World Series, was played at the stadium in 1997 and 2003. The building is recognized throughout the industry as one of the busiest multi-purpose facilities in the world due in large part to Hard Rock Stadium's expertise in hosting big events.

Hard Rock Stadium has hosted numerous world class international soccer matches, including the International Champions Cup Finals in 2013 and 2014. The facility is the first to host El Clasico Miami, a Relevent Sports' soccer match between Real Madrid and FC Barcelona hosted for the first time in North America. The event was July 29, 2017 and was preceded by a match on July 26 between Paris Saint-Germain F.C. and Juventus F.C. at Hard Rock Stadium. The stadium has hosted the sport's most recognizable clubs including Manchester United, FC Barcelona, Chelsea FC and AC Milan. U2's 360 Tour broke the record for highest concert attendance in the stadium's history when a crowd of 75,529 attended the show on June 29, 2011. The record was broken as Hard Rock Stadium hosted the largest ever crowd for an entertainment event when 78,363 attended WrestleMania on April 1, 2012. At the time, that figured marked record attendance for the WWE.

PLAYING SURFACE

Hard Rock Stadium is equipped with Bermuda 419 grass. All of the sod used by the Dolphins and Hard Rock Stadium goes through a six-month enhancement process of being harvested and installed on plastic to thicken the sod and toughen the turf to meet the standards of the NFL. Hard Rock Stadium also has purchased 13 field grow lights to make up for the loss of direct sun light due to the shade canopy installed over the seating bowl, as well as eight large oscillating fans to keep the grass as dry as possible on the surface. The mission is to provide the best playing surface in the NFL and for all international events.

SEATING PRODUCTS

Hard Rock Stadium's modernization included doubling unique seating experiences from eight to 16. Some of the seating products include:

THE 72 CLUB

The 598 seats in the 72 Club take the premium seating experience to another level. It's the most luxurious seating experience in all of South Florida sports and entertainment. Seats are double-padded, have 11 inches more legroom and are located at midfield. At any point in-game, guests are able to enjoy sideline field views and a private drink rail, located directly on the north side of the field, before walking to their private club designed by the Rockwell Group.

LIVING ROOM BOXES

Hard Rock Stadium has created private four-person boxes known as Living Room Boxes. Located on the 35-yard line and within the Atos Club presented by DELL EMC and Ford Field Club in the end zones, Living Room Boxes are the biggest, most comfortable seats in the stadium. These boxes give guests the ability to watch replays and highlights on their own private screens.

NORTH SIDELINE CLUB

The North Sideline Club is a club located between the 30-yard lines on the north side that offers wider, padded seats for fans and an air conditioned club to enjoy pre-game and throughout the game. The club is designed by the Rockwell Group.

LIFEWTR LOUNGE

A 3,300-square-foot private club located in the east end zone, the LIFEWTR Lounge has 144 seats with an open-air, shared suite experience. It features an all-you-can-eat game day buffet, open bar (beer, wine, soda and LIFEWTR) and televisions featuring all the day's NFL action.

CORNER TERRACES

The 100 level Corner Terraces provide a unique social experience where guests can watch the game from a high-top table and comfortable swivel chairs. Corner Terraces provide guests the enjoyment of sitting with family or friends without being confined to a row of seats.

THE NINE

The NINE is the ultimate luxury hospitality experience at Hard Rock Stadium. Designed as open-air suites between the 30-yard lines that connect to a private club designed by the Rockwell Group, the NINE presents guests with complimentary black car service, a private entrance and a dedicated game day concierge for a truly unforgettable experience.

EXECUTIVE SUITES

Hard Rock Stadium's 147 suites were completely renovated during the 2017 offseason. These suites offer luxury and comfort in the ultimate setting to watch any event. Suites vary in size from 10 seats up to 50 seats offering air conditioning, multi-feed sound systems, refrigerators, ice-makers and private telephone services. Suite attendants provide personal service in each suite during the games. Centerplate caters the suites with a wide-variety of food and beverages.

THEATRE BOXES

Hard Rock Stadium features Theatre Boxes on the Club and Suite Level. These 4-6 person individual boxes are located in a shared suite environment with inclusive food and beverage. This seating product is a perfect option for families or small businesses who may not have a need for a full suite but want to enjoy the amenities of the suite experience.

PARTY TERRACES

Phase III of the renovation brought party terraces on the 300 level of Hard Rock Stadium. These party terraces have a bar that services guests on the concourse, as well as a double-sided bar with views of the field. Each corner includes two semi-private spaces that each can hold up to 100 people – creating a new experience for a total of 800 guests per event. The Dolphins additionally have made a commitment to donate a party terrace of 100 military tickets each game to local troops serving our country.

LIV AT HARD ROCK STADIUM

The South Beach experience made its way to the stadium and Dolphins football games in 2010. The 10,000-square-foot LIV at Hard Rock Stadium has the look and feel of the LIV nightclub. Complete with a pair of bars, private cabanas and tables and a dance floor and DJ booth, the space overlooks the west end zone and creates a nightclub experience for the fan before, during and after the game.

DINING

Hard Rock Stadium in 2013 embarked on a journey of listening to guests, asking what they prefer for their game day experience. Years later, the commitment to bring fresh, diverse flavor to fans remains strong. An emphasis is placed on innovative, local cuisine, and together with hospitality provider Centerplate, the venue curates an unparalleled food and beverage experience throughout the facility to all fans.

From 1966-68, a live dolphin was situated in a water tank in the open (east) end of the Orange Bowl. He would jump in the tank to celebrate touchdowns and field goals. Flipper was removed from the Orange Bowl after 1968.

In the 1994 feature film, "Ace Ventura", starring Jim Carrey, the plot involved Snowflake, a fictional live dolphin who did tricks after the Dolphins score a touchdown and was the basis of the film after he was kidnapped as part of a revenge plot against Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino.

HARD ROCK STADIUM SEATING

THE ORANGE BOWL

The 1986 season marked the end of an era for the Miami Dolphins as the team played its final season in the Orange Bowl.

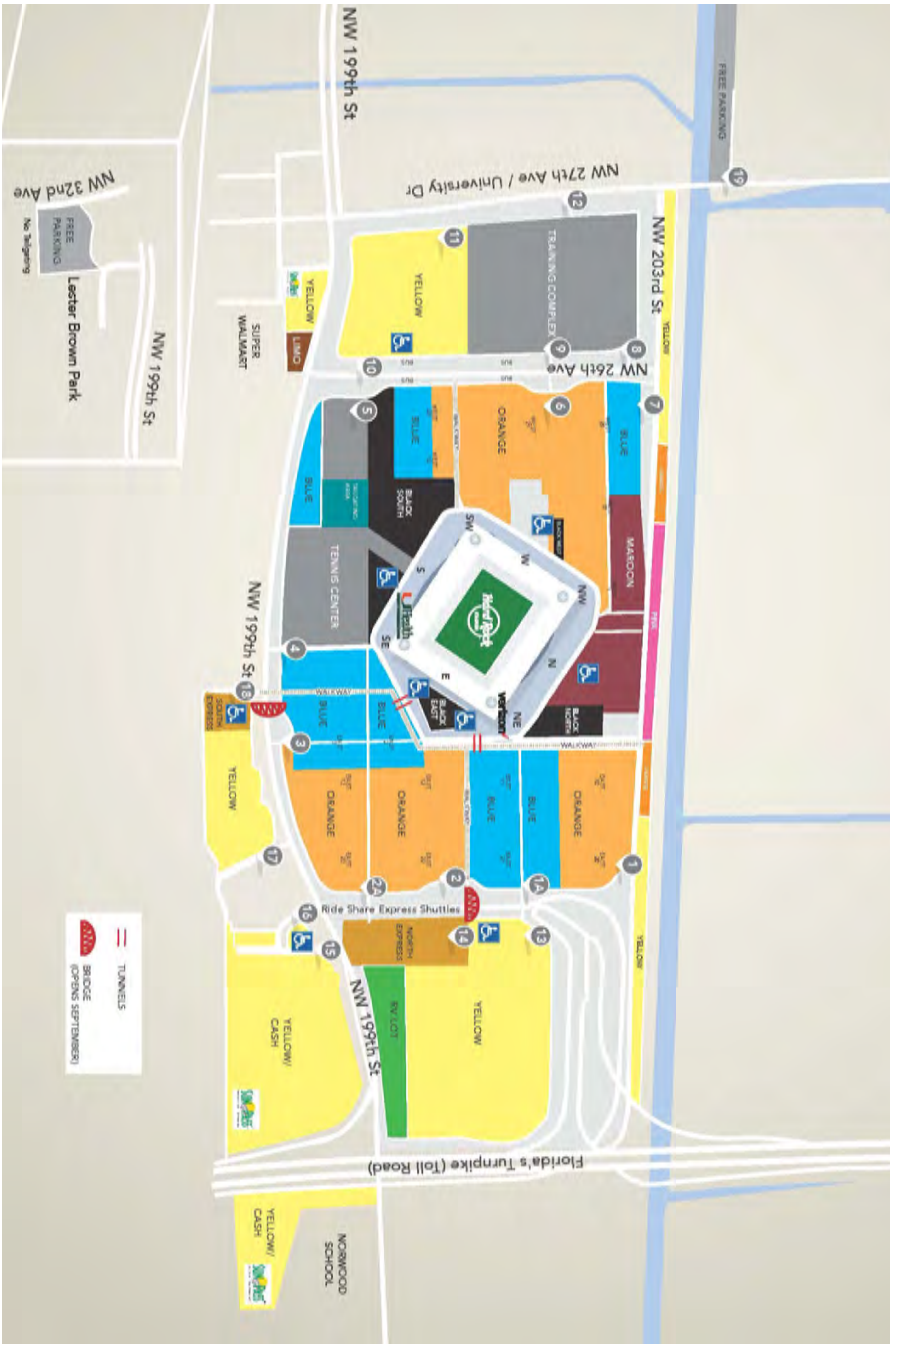

In 21 years at the venue, the Dolphins posted a 110-38-3 (.738) regular-season record. In the playoffs, Miami was 10-4 at the 75,206-seat Orange Bowl, giving the team a 120-43-3 (.736) mark in all games played there.

Miami played in the Orange Bowl from the team's initial season in 1966 through the 1986 campaign. From 1966 to 1969, the Orange Bowl had a grass playing field. The playing surface was changed to Poly-Turf in 1970, was replaced in 1972 and finally removed in March 1976, so that Prescription Athletic Turf could be installed.

The Orange Bowl was the site of many great sporting events, including five Super Bowls, the annual Orange Bowl Classic, Olympic soccer matches and championship boxing matches.

The 2007 season was the final one for the Orange Bowl. The University of Miami, who called the Orange Bowl home from 1937-2007, played its final game there on Nov. 10, 2007, when it dropped a 48-0 decision to the University of Virginia. The final collegiate game at the Orange Bowl occurred on Dec. 1, 2007 when Florida International defeated North Texas, 38-19. The final organized game took place on January 4, 2008 in "The O-D All-American Bowl," a high school all-star game. A "Farewell To The Orange Bowl" celebration was held on Jan. 26, 2008. Approximately 15,000 people watched a team of ex-Miami Hurricanes beat a team of ex-Dolphins, 65-51, in a flag-football exhibition. Demolition began in March of 2008 and was completed in May.

BAPTIST HEALTH TRAINING FACILITY AT NOVA SOUTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY

On July 11, 1993, the Miami Dolphins officially moved into their new training facility at Nova Southeastern University in Davie, Florida, from their long-time base at St. Thomas University (formerly Biscayne College) in Miami. On Aug. 8, 2012, the Dolphins announced a comprehensive marketing and community partnership agreement with Baptist Health South Florida. The partnership includes the naming rights to the team's training facility as well as sports medicine care through Miami Orthopedics & Sports Medicine Institute. As a result of the partnership, the complex became officially known as the Baptist Health Training Facility at Nova Southeastern University.

The $10 million state-of-the-art facility covers 393,784.4 square feet and incorporates the latest technology and advances that were utilized in the design of other NFL training facilities.

The Baptist Health Training Facility not only houses the Dolphins' football operation personnel, but it also serves as the site of the club's preseason training camp and all offseason conditioning programs.

The facility includes a large locker room area, sauna and steam rooms, a full size 18-by-40 foot cold plunge pool, whirlpools, a state-of-the-art weight training room, rehab area that includes four nap pods, one float pod, two-room electric cryotherapy chamber and massage area as well as a sports science lab.

In addition to the physical training needs, modern support facilities also were constructed. Those include a full-size kitchen and dining lounge, player lounge, conference rooms, equipment rooms, laundry areas, video editing labs, an auditorium that functions as a site for major press conferences as well as for full team and staff meetings, video production studio and the Dolphins Pro Shop, which sells official team merchandise.

Administrative offices, located on the second floor, include the head coach's office with an adjacent conference room overlooking the practice fields. Offensive and defensive coaches' offices flank these areas. Other office space exists for personnel and administrative staff members.

At the rear of the facility are two full-sized grass football fields. The Dolphins also have their own indoor practice field, which was completed in July 2006. The 96,000-square foot structure sits on a three-acre tract adjacent to the two outdoor fields. The 100-yard field is made of Matrix® Turf with Helix Technology and organic infill, manufactured by Hellas Construction.

With a primary emphasis to design the complex in a "fan-friendly" manner, a bleacher structure adjacent to the fields was constructed, utilizing elements of Hard Rock Stadium. When the Miami Gardens stadium was revised to accommodate baseball, large sections of seats from the venue were removed. Those sections were relocated to the Nova Southeastern facility as part of the new complex. As a result, the bleacher facility at the Baptist Health Training Facility at Nova Southeastern University can accommodate up to 2,400 spectators, including 600 in chair-back seats, for open practice sessions and other special events. The structure also provides fans permanent amenities such as concession areas, a merchandise pro shop and restrooms. The Dolphins unveiled several exciting changes for the 2016 training camp to improve the fan experience, including a brand new canopy over the seated area, providing fans with shade and a more comfortable experience than ever before.

TAYLOR HAS THREE TOURS OF DUTY WITH DOLPHINS

When future Hall of Fame defensive end/linebacker Jason Taylor played in the season opener on Sept. 12, 2011 vs. New England, he became the first player in team history to have been a member of the Dolphins' roster with three different tours of duty interrupted by stints with other teams (1997-07, 2009, 2011). The last NFL player to appear in a game in three different stints with one franchise was linebacker Jeremiah Trotter, who played for the Philadelphia Eagles for a third time in 2009 after having previously played for them from 1998-2001 and 2004-06.

DOLPHINS REGULAR SEASON WIN STREAKS AMONG NFL BEST

Since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger, the Dolphins and New England Patriots are the only teams to have two regular season winning streaks of 16 or more games. Miami won 16 consecutive games from 1971-73 (1 in 1971, 14 in 1972, 1 in 1973) and another 16-game streak from 1983-84 (5 in 1983, 11 in 1984). New England had a 21-game streak from 2006-08 (3 in 2006, 16 in 2007, 2 in 2008) and an 18-game streak from 2003-04 (12 in 2003, 6 in 2004). Teams that had one streak of 16 or more consecutive wins since 1970 include Indianapolis' NFL-record 23 consecutive regular season wins from 2008-09 (9 in 2008, 14 in 2009), Carolina's 18-game streak from 2014-15 (4 in 2014 and 14 in 2015) and Pittsburgh's 16-game streak from 2004-05 (14 in 2004, 2 in 2005).

DOLPHINS HOLD NFL RECORD FOR CONSECUTIVE HOME WINS

The Dolphins own the NFL record for consecutive home games won. Over a four-year stretch from 1971-74, the team compiled 27 straight regular season wins at the Orange Bowl. The streak began in the second home game of 1971, a 41-3 decision over New England on October 17, and ended in the 1975 season-opener, a 31-21 loss to Oakland on September 22. The most recent team to threaten this mark was the Green Bay Packers, who won 25 consecutive regular season contests at Lambeau Field between 1995-98 before dropping a 37-24 decision to Minnesota on October 5, 1998. The Denver Broncos won 24 straight home games from 1996-98.

THE MIAMI MIRACLE

On Dec. 9, 2018, the Dolphins defeated New England on a 69-yard touchdown with no time remaining, a win dubbed "The Miami Miracle." It was the first time in team history that the Dolphins won a game on a touchdown with no time remaining in the fourth quarter and the 69-yard score was the longest play to win an NFL game with no time remaining in the fourth quarter since the 1970 AFL/NFL merger.

The play began with a pass from QB Ryan Tannehill to WR Kenny Stills. Stills lateraled the ball to WR DeVante Parker, who then lateraled the ball to RB Kenyan Drake. Drake weaved through defenders and picked up a key block from G Ted Larsen before racing to the end zone for the 34-33 victory.

WAKE GAVE MIAMI A WALK-OFF WIN

Defensive end Cameron Wake gave Miami a walk-off win when he sacked Cincinnati quarterback Andy Dalton in the end zone for a safety to score the winning points in the Dolphins' 22-20 overtime win on Halloween 2013. This game marked only the third time in league history that a game in overtime ended on a safety. The other two times occurred when the Minnesota Vikings defeated the St. Louis Rams 23-21 (11/5/89) and when the Chicago Bears defeated the Tennessee Titans 19-17 (11/14/04).

DOLPHINS WIN THE NFL'S LONGEST GAME

The Dolphins kicked off the 2018 season on Sept. 9 with a 27-20 victory over Tennessee in the longest game played in the NFL since the 1970 AFL/NFL merger at a time of seven hours and eight minutes.

The contest was delayed on two separate occasions due to lightning in the area. The first delay came with 1:11 remaining in the second quarter and lasted one hour and 57 minutes. Following the conclusion of the first half, both teams remained on the field for a halftime duration of three minutes and 30 seconds.

The second delay occurred with 6:57 left in the third quarter and halted play for two hours and two minutes.

At the time of the second stoppage, the Dolphins led 7-3. When play resumed, there was a barrage of scoring as the Dolphins kicked a field goal in the third quarter and both teams scored 17 points each in the fourth quarter, leading Miami to the 27-20 win.

The seven hour and eight minute contest topped the previous NFL record of five hours and 16 minutes in a 2013 game between Chicago and Baltimore.

DOLPHINS ARE TRUE GLOBETROTTERS

The Miami Dolphins have been the NFL's globetrotters in their history, having played regular season games in London (four times) and Toronto as well as preseason contests in London, Berlin, Tokyo and Mexico City.

The Dolphins and Bills took part in the NFL's first-ever regular season game staged in Canada on Dec. 7, 2008 as Miami recorded a 16-3 victory at the Rogers Centre in Toronto. On Oct. 28, 2007. The Dolphins also battled the New York Giants at London's Wembley Stadium before a crowd of 81,176 in the first-ever NFL regular season game that was staged outside of North America. Miami returned to Wembley on Sept. 28, 2014, and earned 38-14 win against Oakland before a crowd of 83,436 and made its third regular season appearance in London when the team fell to the New York Jets, 27-14, at Wembley Stadium on Oct. 4, 2015. The Dolphins most recent appearance was on Oct. 1, 2017 when they fell to the New Orleans Saints, 20-0, at Wembley Stadium.

From 1986-2003, the NFL held American Bowl games and the Dolphins made four appearances in the preseason series. Miami was 4-0 in those games played on foreign soil, with wins in London (1988), Tokyo (1991), Berlin (1992) and Mexico City (1997). The Dolphins became the first NFL team to win four American Bowl contests, and they also became the first team to win an American Bowl matchup in each of the three continents in which the games have been played.

LEAGUE LEADERS IN FEWEST SACKS ALLOWED

The Dolphins hold NFL records for most seasons leading the league in fewest sacks allowed (10 – 1973, 1982-90) and most consecutive seasons leading the league in the same category (1982-90). In addition, during the 1988 and 1989 seasons the Dolphins set an NFL record by not allowing a quarterback sack in 19 consecutive games. The streak far outdistanced the previous NFL mark of five straight games, which was accomplished on many occasions. In 1988, Miami set the NFL's single-season sack record by allowing only seven sacks in the 16-game season.

A PERFECT MOMENT IN TIME

On January 31, 2010, prior to kickoff of the Pro Bowl game played at the stadium, the Miami Dolphins unveiled the "Perfect Moment In Time" statue in honor of Hall of Fame Coach Don Shula. The 10-foot tall bronze sculpture of Shula riding on the shoulders of Hall-of-Fame linebacker Nick Buoniconti and reserve offensive lineman Al Jenkins after winning Super Bowl VII to complete the Perfect Season was unveiled in front of the team's corporate headquarters at Gate E at the stadium. The event marked the return of the Dolphins front office to Miami-Dade County after 16 years. Additionally on that day, the stadium's new address was announced as 347 Don Shula Drive in honor of the head coach's career victory total.

JOE ROBBIE ALUMNI PLAZA

On Sept. 12, 2011, just hours before the season opener against the New England Patriots, Dolphins Chairman of the Board/Managing General Partner Stephen Ross was accompanied by Tim Robbie and Hall of Famers Dan Marino, Bob Griese, Larry Little and Dwight Stephenson as Ross re-dedicated a statue of team founder Joe Robbie on the newly named Joe Robbie Alumni Plaza, located at Gate C of the Hard Rock Stadium.

Later during the 2011 season on Dec. 4, a little more than an hour before the Dolphins and Oakland Raiders game, the Dolphins unveiled the newly minted Walk of Fame. The Walk of Fame surrounds the statue of the late Robbie as the centerpiece of the Joe Robbie Alumni Plaza. Hall of Famers Don Shula, Marino, Griese, Nick Buoniconti, Jim Langer, Little, Larry Csonka, Stephenson and Paul Warfield joined Robbie in having their names immortalized in bronze as the inaugural inductees into the Walk. The second class of the Walk of Fame was inducted on Dec. 16, 2012 and included Tim Bowens, A.J. Duhe, Manny Fernandez, Nat Moore, Earl Morrall and Don Strock. On Dec. 29, 2013, Kim Bokamper, O.J. McDuffie, Eugene "Mercury" Morris and Keith Sims were officially inducted as the third Walk of Fame class. On Sept. 21, 2014, the Dolphins inducted the fourth class to the Walk of Fame, which included Jeff Cross, Sam Madison, Tony Nathan and Ed Newman. A fourth class was inducted on Dec. 2, 2018 and included Dick Anderson, Mark Clayton, Mark Duper, Jon Giesler, John Offerdahl and Jason Taylor.

LIGHTS, CAMERA, HARD ROCK STADIUM

Hard Rock Stadium has not only been host to championship sporting events, the venue has also served as a backdrop to some of the most popular films of the past quarter century. Those motion pictures shot at the stadium include Ace Ventura: Pet Detective, which starred Jim Carrey and Courteney Cox and featured Dolphins great Dan Marino as himself; Marley and Me, starring Owen Wilson and Jennifer Aniston; the Oliver Stone-directed Any Given Sunday starring Al Pacino, Jamie Foxx and Dennis Quaid, and Rock of Ages, in which the scene filmed at the stadium included actors Tom Cruise, Julianne Hough, Russell Brand and Alec Baldwin.

Hard Rock Stadium served as a backdrop to an episode of the television show Seinfeld titled The Label Maker in which Jerry and Newman attend Super Bowl XXIX. Additionally, parts of the opening of the HBO television series Arli$$ were shot on the field during a Dolphins game. Hard Rock Stadium also played a role in episodes of television shows Man Caves, with former NFL defensive tackle Tony Siragusa and Designing Spaces, the Big Game Bubba Burgers edition.

Commercials for products such as Pepsi, Bud Light, Omega Watches, Just for Men, Margaritaville products, Gatorade, Papa Johns and Equinox, were also filmed at Hard Rock Stadium.

WEEK 1

SEPT. 9, 2018 | MIAMI GARDENS, FLA.
HARD ROCK STADIUM
ATTENDANCE: 65,184 | TV: FOX

TENNESSEE 20	MIAMI 27

SCORING SUMMARY

	1	2	3	4	F
Tennessee	3	0	0	17	20
Miami	0	7	3	17	27

In what had to be one of the strangest season openers in NFL history, the Dolphins struck for big plays to defeat the Tennessee Titans at Hard Rock Stadium.

Jakeem Grant scored on a 102-yard kickoff return in the first minute of the fourth quarter to break a 10-10 tie and Ryan Tannehill later hit Kenny Stills with a 75-yard touchdown pass to highlight the 27-20 victory.

Reshad Jones also played a big role in the victory. His 54-yard return of his second interception of the game set up Jason Sanders' 30-yard field goal that gave the Dolphins a 10-point cushion with 3:49 left in the fourth quarter. Tennessee kicked a field goal with 11 seconds left in their hope of pulling off a miracle comeback, but rookie Jerome Baker recovered the ensuing onside kick to clinch the victory.

Jones became the first Dolphins safety since 2004 to have two interceptions in one game.

Stills' touchdown was his second of the game. He had a 10-yard TD reception in the second quarter that gave the Dolphins a 7-3 lead.

Grant's touchdown, the second-longest kickoff return in franchise history behind only a 105-yarder by Mercury Morris in 1973, came right after Tennessee had tied the game with a 1-yard touchdown run by Dion Lewis. Grant became the fourth player to have punt and kickoff returns for touchdowns for the Dolphins, as he joined Ted Ginn Jr., Marcus Thigpen and Freddie Solomon.

Tennessee also scored on a kickoff return, with Darius Jennings answering Stills' long touchdown with a 94-yard touchdown to make it 24-17.

Thanks to two delays right around two hours because of lightning near Hard Rock Stadium, the game set a record as the longest in NFL history. The game lasted a little more than seven hours, easily beating the previous mark of 5 hours, 16 minutes, according to the Elias Sports Bureau.

The first delay occurred late in the second quarter and the second took place midway through the third quarter.

The Dolphins' 98-yard scoring drive in the second quarter was the third-longest in team history and the longest since a 99-yard drive Sept. 24, 1989 against the New York Jets.

The game first was delayed almost two hours because of lightning around Hard Rock Stadium. The stoppage came with 1:11 left in the first half and Tennessee facing a third-and-1 from its 24-yard line.

The second delay came with 6:47 left in the third quarter and lasted 2 hours and 2 minutes.

MIAMI 20 | N.Y. JETS 12

	1	2	3	4	F
Miami	7	13	0	0	20
N.Y. Jets	0	0	6	6	12

The Dolphins used a big first half to produce their first 2-0 start in five years.

Ryan Tannehill threw two touchdown passes and the defense came up with two takeaways to help the Dolphins build a 20-0 lead on their way to a 20-12 victory against the New York Jets at MetLife Stadium.

It's the Dolphins' first 2-0 start since 2013 when they started 3-0.

Albert Wilson and A.J. Derby caught the touchdown passes and running back Kenyan Drake had the other touchdown for the Dolphins, who got interceptions by safety T.J. McDonald and cornerback Xavien Howard along with a fumble recovery by linebacker Raekwon McMillan.

Tannehill ended the first half 12-for-15 for 116 yards with two touchdowns and a 138.5 passer rating.

The Dolphins spoiled the first home game for Jets rookie quarterback Sam Darnold, who passed for 334 yards and a touchdown, but had a 74.6 passer rating because of those two interceptions.

The Dolphins didn't score in the second half but the offense came up with a clutch game-clinching drive that featured four first downs and ate up the final 5:56 of the game.

Frank Gore became the fourth-leading rusher in NFL history, passing Curtis Martin with an 8-yard run in the third quarter. He now trails only Emmitt Smith, Walter Payton and Barry Sanders. Gore had a key 20-yard reception on a fourth-quarter drive that helped the Dolphins run out the clock.

Tannehill was used as a runner in this game, starting from the first snap when he kept the ball on an option play and sprinted for a 20-yard gain before sliding. He later had a 5-yard run off a similar play. He had a key 14-yard gain on another keeper in the fourth quarter before clinching the victory with an 8-yard run on third-and-6 on the final play before the two-minute warning with the Jets out of timeouts.

Defensive end Robert Quinn again was a force along the defensive line. He induced a false start penalty, later pushed Sam Darnold into the pocket and right into the arms of Jordan Phillips for the Dolphins' first sack of the season, and then had a sack himself.

Punter Matt Haack was an unsung hero in the first half as he had four punts inside the 20-yard line, including one that forced the Jets to start at their 4-yard line.

The Dolphins opened the scoring after their first takeaway, McDonald's interception that he returned 31 yards to the Jets 14-yard line. After Wilson gained 3 yards on a Wildcat run, Drake went in almost untouched on third-and-1 thanks to some key blocks by Laremy Tunsil and Ted Larsen, the new starting left guard after four-time Pro Bowl selection Josh Sitton was placed on injured reserve.

McMillan's fumble recovery at the Jets 49-yard line after fellow linebacker Kiko Alonso knocked the ball loose from wide receiver Robby Anderson set up the Dolphins' second touchdown.

Head Coach Adam Gase pulled out his bag of tricks Sunday, and it helped produce a thrilling comeback victory for the Dolphins.

Jakeem Grant scored two touchdowns in the fourth quarter off gadget plays and the Dolphins overcame a 17-7 deficit to defeat the Oakland Raiders 28-20 at Hard Rock Stadium and move to 3-0 on the season.

Grant gave the Dolphins the lead for good with 7:18 on a 52-yard pass from wide receiver Albert Wilson (a quarterback in high school) after quarterback Ryan Tannehill handed the ball to Frank Gore, who then flipped it to Wilson.

Grant earlier scored on a 16-yard reception when he took a flip from Tannehill as he was running across the line of scrimmage to the right with the quarterback in shotgun formation.

The Dolphins added to their lead when Wilson scored on a 74-yard reception on the final snap before the two-minute warning off the same play, except this one when he was running to the left.

Wilson's touchdown came two plays after cornerback Xavien Howard preserved the Dolphins' 21-17 lead when he came up with his second interception of the game, his third in two games. Howard picked off Derek Carr in the end zone after Oakland had a first-and-10 from the Miami 13-yard line.

Oakland kicked a field goal with 20 seconds left to the final points of the game before Wilson recovered the ensuing onside kick to clinch the victory.

Tannehill, who preceded Wilson's TD pass with an 18-yard scramble, earlier threw a 34-yard touchdown strike to Kenny Stills.

Oakland dominated the time of possession and had the advantage in yardage in a game that physically was difficult for the Dolphins.

The Dolphins lost defensive linemen William Hayes and Akeem Spence in the first half.

Hayes sustained a knee injury when he sacked Carr on third down, one play after he tackled running back Doug Martin for a loss.

Spence was ejected from the game in the second quarter when he was penalized after Cameron Wake had sacked Carr on third down. The penalty kept alive a drive that ate up 8:36 and ended with a short field goal by Mike Nugent.

Tight end A.J. Derby missed the second half after being sidelined by a foot injury, and defensive end Andre Branch didn't return after sustaining a knee injury in the third quarter.

SCORING SUMMARY

New England	3	21	7	7	38

It was a difficult afternoon for the Miami Dolphins at Gillette Stadium.

Tom Brady passed for three touchdowns and running back James White had rushing and receiving scores as the New England Patriots handed the Dolphins their first loss of the season, 38-7.

Running back Frank Gore scored the Dolphins' only touchdown with 2:42 left in the fourth quarter on a 6-yard reception from quarterback Brock Osweiler, who replaced Ryan Tannehill in the fourth quarter with the outcome already decided.

Along with White, Cordarrelle Patterson and Philip Dorsett caught TD passes and rookie first-round pick Sony Michel had his first NFL rushing touchdown.

For the Dolphins, the highlights were few and far between.

Rookie first-round pick Minkah Fitzpatrick, who made his second NFL start with two-time Pro Bowl selection Reshad Jones again sitting out because of a shoulder injury, had his first career interception in the fourth quarter.

Fellow Dolphins rookie Kalen Ballage appeared in his first NFL game and his first professional carry in the fourth quarter, and it was good for 2 yards.

Cornerback Bobby McCain had a pick on New England's second offensive possession.

McCain, however, missed the second half after sustaining a knee injury.

Center Daniel Kilgore sustained an arm injury in the first half and did not return.

The Dolphins began the game without five injured players, including safety Reshad Jones and wide receiver DeVante Parker. Also on the inactive list were defensive end Andre Branch, linebacker Chase Allen and tight end A.J. Derby.

The Dolphins went into halftime trailing 24-0 after being outgained 272-75 in the first half and failing to convert a third down until the final play of the half.

The game started on a good note for the Dolphins, with Tannehill completing a 22-yard pass to Kenny Stills on the first snap of the game. But it went downhill from there.

Cincinnati	0	0	3	24	27

The Dolphins played inspired football for three quarters despite being short-handed, but they couldn't hold off the Cincinnati Bengals.

Cincinnati scored 24 unanswered points in the fourth quarter to defeat the Dolphins 27-17 at Paul Brown Stadium.

Randy Bullock kicked a 20-yard field goal with 3:30 remaining to give Cincinnati the lead before rookie defensive end Sam Hubbard scored on a 19-yard fumble return, the second touchdown by a Bengals defensive lineman in that forgettable fourth quarter.

The Dolphins led 17-0 in the third quarter and took a 17-3 lead into the fourth.

They built their lead thanks to a 28-yard touchdown pass from Ryan Tannehill to running back Kenyan Drake and a 71-yard punt return by Jakeem Grant, who became the first player in franchise history with a punt return and a kickoff for touchdowns in the same season.

Grant was sidelined for a period of time in the first half after being injured on the opening kickoff, but he didn't show any ill effects on his punt return when he cut to the right and tightroped the right sideline after getting around the Cincinnati coverage team. Grant initially was ruled out of bounds at the 2-yard line, but the call was corrected after a replay review.

The Dolphins led 14-0 at the half, thanks mostly to some big plays on special teams and a key interception.

With the Dolphins leading 7-0, Vincent Taylor blocked a 37-yard field goal attempt to preserve that margin.

The Dolphins turned back a Cincinnati scoring threat on the Bengals' first possession when safety Reshad Jones, back in the lineup after missing two games, got his hand on a pass intended for A.J. Green and linebacker Kiko Alonso picked off the deflection.

It was the 10th interception of the season for the Dolphins, who had nine all of 2017.

The Dolphins opened the scoring with an impressive 11-play, 95-yard drive that ended with Tannehill's touchdown pass to Drake. The Dolphins converted two third-down situations on the drive and also overcame a first-and-20 situation.

The big plays on defense weren't limited to Alonso's interception, however, because defensive ends Cameron Malveaux and Robert Quinn, defensive tackle Davon Godchaux and rookie safety Minkah Fitzpatrick all had tackles for loss. Fitzpatrick's tackle of Tyler Boyd on a wide receiver screen on third-and-2 from the Cincinnati 25-yard line forced the punt that Grant returned for a touchdown.

Chicago	0	0	21	7	0	28
Miami	7	0	6	15	3	31

The Dolphins overcame adversity Sunday when they pulled out a heart-stopping victory at Hard Rock Stadium.

Jason Sanders kicked a 47-yard field goal as time expired in overtime to give the Dolphins a 31-28 victory against the Chicago Bears.

The kick capped a wild overtime, which came after a wild second half.

The Dolphins appeared headed for victory on the opening possession of overtime before Kenyan Drake fumbled into the end zone with a clear path to a game-winning touchdown. Chicago then drove into field goal position, but former Dolphins kicker Cody Parkey was wide right on a 53-yard attempt.

Drake did the bulk of the work on the game-winning drive, starting it with a 4-yard run and then adding a 15-yard reception to move the ball to the Bears 38-yard line.

The Dolphins put up big numbers against the No. 1 defense in the NFL, finishing with 541 total yards. Quarterback Brock Osweiler, starting in place of injured starter Ryan Tannehill, threw for a career-high 380 yards; running back Frank Gore rushed for 101 yards; and wide receiver Albert Wilson had 155 receiving yards, including touchdowns of 43 and 75 yards in the fourth quarter.

This was the first time the Dolphins had a 300-yard passer, a 100-yard rusher and a 100-yard receiver since 1991 when Dan Marino (307), Mark Higgs (131) and Tony Martin (106) did it in a 33-14 victory against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

The Dolphins and Bears combined for 49 points in the second half after Miami went into halftime with a 7-0 lead.

Osweiler passed for three touchdowns, the first a 5-yard connection with tight end Nick O'Leary for the only score of the first half.

Sanders made three field goals, including kicks of 50 and 25 yards in the third quarter.

The Dolphins defense gave up big plays, but also came up with three takeaways. Linebacker Kiko Alonso recovered a fumble and forced another that was recovered by cornerback Xavien Howard, and safety T.J. McDonald had an interception.

Alonso's fumble recovery and McDonald came near or inside the Dolphins end zone and kept points off the boards.

The Dolphins kept fighting back after falling behind the Detroit Lions, but they couldn't quite complete the comeback at Hard Rock Stadium.

Quarterback Brock Osweiler, making his second start in place of the injured Ryan Tannehill, passed for 195 yards and two touchdowns, and Kenyan Drake had a 54-yard scoring run in a 32-21 loss against the Detroit Lions.

Osweiler's touchdown passes went to Kenny Stills (5 yards) and Danny Amendola (24 yards), the second coming with exactly 6 minutes left in the fourth quarter.

Drake's touchdown was the longest run of the season for the Dolphins, topping a 32-yard run by Frank Gore against the Chicago Bears last Sunday.

Matthew Stafford threw two touchdown passes, both to tight end Michael Roberts, and LeGarrette Blount had a rushing touchdown for the Lions. Matt Prater kicked four field goals, including a 50-yarder right after the two-minute warning that all but clinched the victory for Detroit.

The Dolphins' last hopes disappeared when Jason Sanders was wide left on a 46-yard field goal attempt with 48 seconds remaining.

It was a difficult afternoon for the Dolphins defense, which gave up 250 rushing yards and failed to come up with a takeaway for the first time this season.

Rookie running back Kerryon Johnson had a 24-yard run on the Lions' first offensive snap and later had a 71-yard run, which was the longest against the Dolphins since 2005. Johnson finished with 158 rushing yards.

The Dolphins never led in the game and trailed 17-7 at halftime and 26-14 after the third quarter.

After the Dolphins went three-and-out on the opening possession of the game, the Lions marched 64 yards in six plays to take a 7-0 lead on Stafford's 15-yard touchdown pass to Roberts.

Johnson's 71-yard run set up a field goal that increased the Detroit lead to 10-0 before the Dolphins responded with a touchdown drive to cut their deficit to three points.

The drive featured a 25-yard completion to Albert Wilson and a 27-yard pass to rookie tight end Mike Gesicki on a third-and-1 before ending with Osweiler's TD pass to Stills in the back of the end zone on third-and-goal.

SCORING SUMMARY

Miami	7	3	10	3	23
Houston	7	7	14	14	42

The Dolphins had some memorable offensive plays Thursday night, but the Houston Texans simply had more.

Wide receiver DeVante Parker had a career-high 134 receiving yards, Kenyan Drake had two touchdowns, and wide receiver Danny Amendola threw a touchdown pass, but it wasn't enough for the Dolphins to prevent a 42-23 loss at NRG Stadium.

Rookie kicker Jason Sanders accounted for the rest of the Dolphins scoring with three field goals, from 37, 41 and 46 yards.

Houston quarterback DeShaun Watson threw five touchdown passes, including two to rookie tight end Jordan Thomas and two to wide receiver DeAndre Hopkins. One of those was a 48-yard connection, and the other touchdown pass was a 73-yard hook-up with Will Fuller.

Former Dolphins running back Lamar Miller rushed for 133 yards, including a 58-yard run early in the third quarter.

The game featured some highlight-reel plays, including a 46-yard reception by Parker on a pass that was momentarily caught by Jakeem Grant, knocked loose and then bounced off a Texans defender's helmet. There also was a circus one-handed catch by Hopkins that was nullified by offsetting penalties.

Most of all, there was disappointment for the Dolphins.

In addition to the two long pass plays, the Dolphins also gave up 188 rushing yards.

The Dolphins entered the second half trailing 14-10, but were outscored 28-13 in the final two quarters.

The deficit quickly grew to 21-10 after the 58-yard run by Miller. That set up Watson's second touchdown pass to Thomas, which came on a fourth-and-goal from the 2-yard line.

Amendola's touchdown pass cut the deficit to 21-17 and made the Dolphins the first team in NFL history to have two wide receivers with TD passes in the same season. Albert Wilson was the first to do it when he connected with Grant against the Oakland Raiders in Week 3.

Houston answered Amendola's touchdown pass just two plays later when Watson connected with Fuller on the long touchdown pass.

The Dolphins cut their deficit to 28-20 late in the third quarter when Sanders kicked a 41-yard field goal.

N.Y. JETS 6 | MIAMI 13

The Dolphins defense bounced back in a big way.

Linebacker Jerome Baker had a pick-six, one of four interceptions for the defense, and Cameron Wake and Akeem Spence each had two sacks in a 13-6 victory at Hard Rock Stadium.

Baker's touchdown with 10:48 left in the fourth quarter gave the Dolphins a 13-3 lead. The Jets moved back within a touchdown with a 56-yard field goal by Jason Myers.

After the Jets moved closer with a 56-yard field goal by Jason Myers, the Dolphins clinched their victory with interceptions by safeties T.J. McDonald and Walt Aikens. In the first half against the Jets, linebacker Kiko Alonso had his third interception of the season, moving within one of the team single-season record for linebacker, which was set by John Bramlett in 1967.

Baker became the first Dolphins rookie since 2009 to return an interception for a touchdown. Cornerback Vontae Davis did it back then against Buffalo.

Wake's two sacks gave him 17 multi-sack games in his brilliant career.

In this defensive struggle, there weren't many offensive highlights, though running back Frank Gore continued his climb on the NFL's all-time charts. With a 7-yard run in the third quarter, Gore passed Barry Sanders to move into sixth place for most yards from scrimmage.

The Dolphins led 6-3 at halftime after a defensive battle that saw the teams combine to go 0-for-10 on third-down conversions before the Dolphins converted in the second quarter.

Head Coach Adam Gase was aggressive, going for it twice on fourth down in the first half with the Dolphins converting both times.

The Dolphins advanced into Jets territory on the opening possession of the game after a 25-yard completion from Brock Osweiler to Danny Amendola on the first snap, but the drive ended with a sack on third down.

The Dolphins opened the scoring early in the second quarter on Jason Sanders' 43-yard field goal, which was set up by Alonso's interception that was accompanied by a personal foul penalty on the Jets.

The Dolphins added to their lead with Sanders' second field goal with 1:11 left in the half that culminated a 14-play, 51-yard drive. The big play in the drive was Osweiler's 7-yard pass to Kenyan Drake on fourth-and-3 from the Jets 38-yard line. That was followed shortly thereafter by a 16-yard completion to Jakeem Grant on third-and-12 from the Jets 33.

The Jets cut into the Dolphins lead by marching 45 yards in 51 seconds to get a 48-yard field goal by Myers with 20 seconds left. The big play in the drive was a 20-yard completion from Sam Darnold to running back Elijah McGuire.

Rookie first-round pick Minkah Fitzpatrick showed off his versatility by lining up at boundary cornerback and safety, as well as nickel corner.

Wide receiver Kenny Stills returned to action after missing the Thursday night game against the Houston Texans because of a groin injury.

WEEK 10

ATTENDANCE: 78,076 | TV: CBS

MIAMI 12 | GREEN BAY 31

	1	2	3	4	F
Miami	3	6	3	0	12
Green Bay	7	7	14	3	31

The Dolphins got a lot of big plays on special teams, but those weren't enough for them to pull out a victory at Lambeau Field on Sunday.

Kicker Jason Sanders tied the Dolphins rookie record with four field goals, Leonte Carroo recovered a fumble on a punt return and gained 14 yards on a run off a fake punt, and Brandon Bolden partially blocked a punt to highlight the day on special teams.

Unfortunately for the Dolphins, Aaron Rodgers threw two touchdown passes and Aaron Jones ran for two touchdowns to lead the Packers to 31-12 victory.

Sanders' field goals came from 35, 27, 47 and 40 yards and accounted for all the Dolphins scoring. He tied the rookie record first set by Dan Carpenter in 2008.

Frank Gore rushed for 90 yards on 13 attempts and had a 39-yard run in the first quarter. In the process, he set an NFL record with a 14th consecutive season with at least 500 rushing yards, breaking the tie he shared with Walter Payton and Emmitt Smith.

Robert Quinn had 1.5 sacks for the defense, which came up with a big fourth-down stop in the second quarter but failed to come up with a takeaway.

The game slipped away from the Dolphins in the second half when they were outscored 17-3, even though they became the first team this season to keep Green Bay from scoring on its first possession after halftime.

They cut the Packers lead to 14-12 after Bolden's partial block resulted in a 2-yard punt and gave them the ball at the Green Bay 28.

But Green Bay answered with a 60-yard touchdown drive after Sanders' kickoff went out of bounds, with Jones ending the drive with a 10-yard run. Cornerback Bashaud Breeland's interception of Brock Osweiler, making his fifth consecutive start in place of the injured Ryan Tannehill, set up Green Bay's final touchdown before Mason Crosby added a field goal in the fourth quarter.

Osweiler completed 23 of 37 passes for 213 yards with no touchdowns and the one interception. Danny Amendola had the most productive receiving day with seven catches for 72 yards.

SCORING SUMMARY

Miami	7	7	3	7	24
Indianapolis	7	7	0	13	27

The Dolphins used big plays to put themselves in position to win at Lucas Oil Stadium, but they couldn't hold a fourth-quarter lead and the result was a disappointing loss.

Adam Vinatieri kicked a 32-yard field goal on the final play of regulation to give the Indianapolis Colts a 27-24 victory after the Dolphins lead 24-14 early in the fourth quarter.

The winning score came after Andrew Luck threw a 34-yard pass to Chester Rogers on third-and-9 after escaping what appeared to be a certain sack.

The game marked the return to action for Ryan Tannehill, who hadn't played since Week 5 at Cincinnati, and the quarterback had a solid performance. Tannehill completed 17 of 25 passes for 204 yards and two touchdowns with no interceptions, good for a 119.4 passer rating. He also gained 14 yards on three rushing attempts.

Tannehill's touchdown passes went to Kenyan Drake for 32 yards in the first quarter and to wide receiver Leonte Carroo for 74 yards in the second quarter.

Drake also had a rushing touchdown and cornerback Xavien Howard had two interceptions. Defensive end Cameron Wake's sack in the third quarter ended a five-game streak for quarterback Andrew Luck not getting sacked.

Luck did manage to threw three touchdown passes, extending his streak with three or more TD passes to eight games. He connected twice with tight end Eric Ebron and once to fellow tight end Jack Doyle.

Drake scored on a 14-yard run early in the fourth quarter to give the Dolphins a 24-14 lead.

But Indianapolis came back with a 46-yard field goal by Vinatieri and a 12-yard touchdown pass to Ebron before the game-winning kick.

Rookie kicker Jason Sanders broke a 14-14 tie in the third quarter when he made a 29-yard field goal shortly after linebacker Kiko Alonso partially blocked an Indianapolis punt to give the Dolphins the ball at the Colts 42.

Vinatieri was short on a 53-yard attempt in the third quarter. The miss came right after Wake dropped Luck for a sack on a third-and-7 from the Dolphins 20-yard line.

BUFFALO 17	MIAMI 21

	1	2	3	4	F
Buffalo	0	6	3	8	17
Miami	7	7	0	7	21

This time, it was the Dolphins' turn to come back in the fourth quarter and they pulled out a victory after a major scare.

Ryan Tannehill's third touchdown pass of the game, a 13-yard strike to Kenny Stills, with 8:42 left gave the Dolphins a 21-17 victory against the Buffalo Bills.

Tannehill earlier threw touchdown passes to wide receiver DeVante Parker, as he produced his second three-touchdown game of the season—he also did it against Oakland in Week 3.

Cornerback Xavien Howard came up with two interceptions for a second consecutive week and for the third time this season, a first in Dolphins history. In the process, Howard took over the NFL lead with seven interceptions.

Buffalo rookie first-round pick Josh Allen threw two touchdown passes to wide receiver Zay Jones, the son of former Dolphins linebacker Robert Jones, and the two also connected on a two-point conversion.

Allen also had 135 rushing yards, most of them on scrambles to escape pressure.

Stills' touchdown came after Buffalo had taken its first lead of the game.

The game-winning drive covered 75 yards and included a 25-yard defensive pass interference penalty on linebacker Matt Milano against rookie tight end Mike Gesicki, followed by a 20-yard run by Kenyan Drake.

Buffalo drove to the Miami 23-yard line on its next possession, but cornerback Bobby McCain and Robert Quinn came up with back-to-back sacks before kicker Steven Hauschka was wide left on a 55-yard field goal attempt.

Buffalo had one last chance and got to the Dolphins 25. A completion to Jones to the 5-yard was overturned after video review and on fourth-and-11 from the 30 a scrambling Allen under threw former Dolphins tight end Charles Clay, who was wide open in the end zone.

The Dolphins led 14-6 after a first half that featured 11 combined penalties and two special teams miscues by Buffalo.

For the second consecutive week, the Dolphins opened the game with a touchdown drive, Tannehill hitting Parker with a 18-yard touchdown pass to the first score.

A big play on the drive was a roughing-the-passer penalty that moved the ball ton the Buffalo 33-yard line. The drive also featured the first rushing attempt of the season for veteran running back Brandon Bolden, who gained 10 yards to the Bills 19.

Buffalo got into the end zone early in the second quarter when Allen threw a 15-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Zay Jones, but Hautschka missed the extra-point attempt and the Dolphins still led 7-6.

NEW ENGLAND 33 | MIAMI 34

New England	6	21	0	6	33
Miami	7	14	7	6	34

With what might go down as the greatest play in franchise history, the Dolphins pulled off a miraculous victory against the New England Patriots on Sunday.

Kenyan Drake scored on a 69-yard play that featured two laterals to turn a disappointing 33-28 loss into an exhilarating 34-33 victory at Hard Rock Stadium.

Out of timeouts, the Dolphins had the ball at their 31-yard line following a 16-yard kickoff return by Kalen Ballage when quarterback Ryan Tannehill hit Kenny Stills in the middle of the field at the Miami 45. Stills then lateraled to DeVante Parker, who quickly lateraled it to Drake.

Drake did the rest, weaving his way through the New England secondary.

He got around two defenders before reaching the end zone and the last New England player to dive in vain in an effort to stop him was perennial Pro Bowl tight end Rob Gronkowski.

As he reached the back of the end zone, Drake threw the ball high into the stands as his teammates rushed from the sideline in celebration.

The touchdown came seconds after a field goal had given New England an insurmountable five-point lead.

Drake's game-winning touchdown was the ninth lead change of a wild, wild affair and the Dolphins' fifth victory in their past six home games against New England.

The dramatic victory capped a brilliant day for Tannehill, who overcame an ankle injury late in the first half, to pass for three touchdowns and compile a 155.2 passer rating.

Veteran running back Brandon Bolden, signed in September after being released by the Patriots, had his first two rushing touchdowns of the season after getting his first carry a week earlier. It was the first two-touchdown game of his career, which began in 2012.

Fellow running back Frank Gore rushed for 92 yards and had a 24-yard reception while moving past Hall of Famer LaDainian Tomlinson into fifth place on the NFL's all-time yards from scrimmage list.

Stills caught one of touchdown passes from Tannehill, part of his 135-yard day.

And then there was Drake, who was relatively quiet until his gigantic play, for which he was credited with 52 receiving yards.

SCORING SUMMARY

Minnesota	21	0	3	17	41

The Dolphins got big plays from two of their rookies Sunday, but it wasn't enough to help produce a victory at U.S. Bank Stadium in Minnesota.

First-round pick Minkah Fitzpatrick returned an interception 50 yards and fourth-round pick Kalen Ballage had a 75-yard run to account for the Dolphins touchdowns in their 41-17 loss against the Minnesota Vikings.

Fitzpatrick's pick-six came in the second quarter and cut the Dolphins deficit to 21-7. Combined with third-round pick Jerome Baker's interception return against the New York Jets on Nov. 4, it made the Dolphins first team in the NFL since the 2015 Green Bay Packers with two rookies with a pick-six in one season.

Ballage's run made the score 21-17 in the third quarter and was the second-longest run ever by a Dolphins rookie, behind only a 77-yard run by Leroy Harris in 1977. Ballage finished the game with 123 rushing yards, his first NFL 100-yard game.

The Dolphins made it a game after they fell behind 21-0, but they couldn't get any closer after Ballage's touchdown.

The Minnesota pass rush took over after that point, and the Vikings finished the game with nine sacks.

The Vikings got two touchdown runs from Dalvin Cook and two touchdown passes from Kirk Cousins, to Stefon Diggs and Aldrick Robinson. Latavius Murray also had a rushing touchdown.

Dan Bailey kicked two field goals for the Vikings, and Jason Sanders kicked one for the Dolphins.

Running back Frank Gore left the game late in the first quarter after sustaining an ankle injury and did not return. He made his 122nd consecutive start against the Vikings, by far the longest active streak in the NFL among running backs. The longest-running streak is 17, by Carolina's Christian McCaffrey and Tampa Bay's Peyton Barber.

Long-snapper John Denney became the second player to appear in a Dolphins game at the age of 40 or older. He turned 40 on Wednesday.

The Dolphins started slowly and found themselves with their first 21-0 first-quarter deficit since 2005.

Fitzpatrick got the Dolphins going with his pick-six, which came on a third-and-15 from the Dolphins 47 when he read an intended screen pass to wide receiver Stefon Diggs, jumped in front of him and made the easy catch-and-run to the end zone.

JACKSONVILLE 17 | MIAMI 7

The Dolphins lost a defensive battle in their home finale.

Running back Brandon Bolden scored a touchdown on the Dolphins' opening drive, but the offense struggled the rest of the way in a 17-7 loss against the Jacksonville Jaguars that officially eliminated the Dolphins from playoff contention.

The Dolphins ended up with 183 yards on offense. They finished with a 6-2 home record.

Linebacker Telvin Smith's 33-yard interception return in the fourth quarter was the only touchdown of the final three quarters.

It came after Jacksonville broke a 7-7 tie on a 26-yard field goal by Kai Forbath.

Trailing 17-7, the Dolphins' ensuing possession ended after a third-down sack. Rookie cornerback Jalen Davis later forced a Jacksonville fumble after a third-down completion, but the ball rolled directly to another Jaguars player.

The Dolphins ended up with six sacks, including one by each of the top four defensive ends—Cameron Wake, Robert Quinn, Andre Branch and Charles Harris, who recorded his first sack of the season. Davis had his first NFL sack and another sack was credited to the team.

Miami played without three starters on defense, including Pro Bowl cornerback Xavien Howard. Safety T.J. McDonald was inactive because of an ankle injury and linebacker Kiko Alonso was active but didn't play after being listed as questionable Friday because of knee/hamstring injuries.

For the third time in four games, the Dolphins opened the game with a touchdown drive. This one was a pretty eight-play drive that included a 20-yard completion from Ryan Tannehill to Danny Amendola on a third-and-6 followed by a 31-yard catch-and-run by rookie running back Kalen Ballage.

Bolden capped the drive with a 4-yard touchdown off a shovel pass.

Jacksonville answered with a 13-play touchdown drive that was kept alive by a roughing-the-passer penalty on Quinn after the Jaguars had a 6-yard pass play on third-and-8 from the Miami 31.

Two plays after the penalty, Leonard Fournette scored from 1 yard out.

The Dolphins squandered a great scoring opportunity midway through the second quarter after the ball slipped out of Cody Kessler's hand as he started his throwing motion and Branch, who played his first four NFL seasons with the Jaguars and served as a game captain Sunday, recovered the fumble at the Jacksonville 37.

After three plays gained 5 yards, rookie kicker Jason Sanders was wide right on a 47-yard field goal attempt, only his second miss of the season.

Blake Bortles replaced Kessler at quarterback later in the second quarter after a quarterback hit by Quinn.

Jacksonville attempted a 56-yard field goal on the final play of the first half after a 44-yard punt return by Dede Westbrook, but Kai Forbath mis-hit the ball and it never had a chance.

MIAMI 17 | BUFFALO 42

The Dolphins' 2018 season came to an end Sunday at New Era Field in Buffalo.

Quarterback Ryan Tannehill caught a touchdown pass from wide receiver Kenny Stills and safety Reshad Jones returned an interception for a touchdown, but it wasn't enough for the Dolphins to avoid a 42-17 loss against the Buffalo Bills.

The Dolphins ended the season with a 7-9 record.

Rookie quarterback Josh Allen accounted for five Buffalo touchdowns, throwing for three and rushing for two, including a 30-yarder in the fourth quarter.

With his 29-yard touchdown in the second quarter, Jones tied Zach Thomas' Dolphins career record for pick-sixes with his fourth.

Tannehill became the second quarterback in Dolphins history to catch a touchdown pass, joining David Woodley, who did it in the 1982 season opener against the New York Jets at Shea Stadium.

The other Dolphins points came on a short field goal by rookie Jason Sanders in the third quarter.

John Denney, wrapping up his 14th NFL season, appeared in his 224th consecutive game, tying the league record for long-snappers held by Ethan Albright, whose 14-year career began in 1995 with the Dolphins.

Jones' touchdown capped a remarkable final minute of the first half, which saw the Dolphins erase a 14-0 deficit to go into the locker room tied at 14.

After Kenyan Drake converted a third-and-7 situation from the Buffalo 22 with a 19-yard gain to the 3-yard line, he took a handoff from Tannehill, flipped the ball to Stills, who settled into the backfield before lofting a pass to Tannehill.

On the second snap after Tannehill's touchdown, on a second-and-12 from the Buffalo 23, Jones stepped in front of tight end Jason Croom to pick off Josh Allen and then beat Allen to the end zone.

The Buffalo Bills took the opening kickoff and drove 66 yards for a touchdown on their first possession.

Allen finished the drive with a 1-yard touchdown sneak, one play after the Bills converted a third-and-16 with a 46-yard pass to Chris Ivory after Allen started scrambling in the pocket and got away from pressure by Cameron Wake.

The Bills were in that third-and-16 situation because of a sack by rookie linebacker Jerome Baker.

THE 200-YARD MAN

Running back Jay Ajayi rushed for 200 yards in three contests in 2016, including back-to-back games in Week 6 and Week 7, becoming one of only four players to accomplish that feat in NFL history. Two of his 200-yard games came against the Buffalo Bills while the other was vs. the Pittsburgh Steelers. Ajayi joined O.J. Simpson (1973 and 1976), Earl Campbell (1980) and Ricky Williams (2002) as the only players in NFL history to rush for 200-plus yards in consecutive games. He became one of just four NFL players to ever rush for 200 yards at least three times in the same season. The others to do so are Campbell (1980, four times), Simpson (1973, three times) and Tiki Barber (2005, three times). Ajayi rushed for 420 yards in two games against Buffalo in 2016, the fourth-highest rushing total against one team in a single season, trailing Jamal Lewis (500 vs. Cleveland in 2003), Simpson (469 vs. New England in 1973) and LaDainian Tomlinson (430 vs. Oakland in 2003).

DOLPHINS NO. 1 OVERALL DRAFT PICKS

The Dolphins have had five former No. 1 overall picks play for the team, but only one was selected by the Dolphins. Former No. 1 picks to play for the Dolphins include wide receiver Irving Fryar (1984 by New England), defensive tackles Steve Emtman (1992 by Indianapolis), Dan Wilkinson (1994 by Cincinnati), defensive end Mario Williams (2006 by Houston) and tackle Jake Long (2008 by Miami). This does not include running back Jim Grabowski (drafted in the 1966 AFL draft by Miami), but signed instead with the NFL's Green Bay Packers or quarterback Bernie Kosar, who was selected as the first overall pick in the 1985 supplemental draft by the Cleveland Browns before joining the Dolphins later in his career.

DUAL 100-YARD RUSHING GAMES

In the history of the franchise, the Dolphins have had four dual 100-yard individual rushing games and the team is 4-0 in those games. The combination of Larry Csonka and Jim Kiick had two dual 100-yard games, both of which were during the 1971 season. Kiick (20 carries for 108 yards) and Csonka (20-103-1) first accomplished the feat on Sept. 26 at Buffalo. Csonka (20-137-2) and Kiick (17-121) again both surpassed the 100-yard mark on Oct. 24 at the N.Y. Jets. In 1974, Benny Malone (19-104-1) and Don Nottingham (10-102-1) both rushed for 100-plus yards on Oct 27 at Baltimore. In 1975, Nottingham (21-102-3) teamed with Mercury Morris (31-125) to both gain 100-yards on Oct. 5 at Green Bay.

DUAL 100-YARD RECEIVING GAMES

In the history of the franchise, the Dolphins have had 22 dual 100-yard receiving games, 24 including playoffs. The most frequent duo has been Mark Clayton and Mark Duper, who combined for four dual 100-yard receiving games. Overall, Clayton was part of eight such games while Duper was in seven. The most recent game in which the Dolphins had two players attain the 100-yard mark occurred on Sept. 18, 2016 when Jarvis Landry accumulated 137 yards on 10 receptions and DeVante Parker totaled 106 yards on eight catches at New England. The Dolphins are 9-13 in regular season games when they have had a pair of 100-yard receivers and 10-14 overall, including playoffs.

TAMPA BAY 26	MIAMI 24

	1	2	3	4	F
Tampa Bay	6	10	7	3	26
Miami	3	7	6	8	24

The Dolphins' preseason opener featured the return of quarterback Ryan Tannehill to game action, some strong performances by a few rookies and a wild finish.

The Tampa Bay Buccaneers pulled out a 26-24 victory at Hard Rock Stadium when Chandler Catanzaro kicked a 27-yard field goal with 23 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter.

That came after the Dolphins took their only lead of the game, 24-23, when quarterback Bryce Petty threw a 6-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Isaiah Ford with 1:50 left and the two then connected on a two-point conversion.

Tannehill looked sharp in his first game since December 2016. Tannehill completed his first four passes while playing the opening series of the game, opening the game with a rollout and 15-yard strike to Kenny Stills.

He later completed passes of 7 yards to running back Kenyan Drake, 5 yards to Stills, and 5 yards to Danny Amendola.

His one drive ended with a missed 53-yard field goal attempt by rookie kicker Jason Sanders.

The drive featured a 10-yard run by Drake, one of four runs of 10 yards or longer by the Dolphins in the first half.

Among rookies who had solid performances were draft picks Jerome Baker, Kalen Ballage and Cornell Armstrong, as well as undrafted free agents Anthony Moten and Buddy Howell.

The Dolphins' first touchdown of the preseason came on a 7-yard run by Senorise Perry in the second quarter. It capped a 75-yard drive where Perry gained 34 yards on three carries, as well as gaining 8 yards on a screen pass.

Ballage also had success on the ground, with gains of 14 and 9 yards, and he added a 10-yard reception on a screen pass to convert a third down. He did have a fumble after catching a screen pass, and that led to Tampa Bay's second touchdown of the game, a 2-yard run by rookie Ronald Jones.

The play was doubly painful for the Dolphins, who lost linebacker Mike Hull to a knee injury on the play. Hull eventually was carted off the sideline and immediately was ruled out for the rest of the game.

MIAMI 20 | CAROLINA 27

The Dolphins got some big plays in the running game and a couple of interceptions on defense, but the inability to get into the end zone until the final minute proved costly against the Carolina Panthers on Friday.

The Dolphins were limited to four field goals, three by Jason Sanders and one by Greg Joseph, when they dropped a 27-20 decision at Bank of America Stadium.

Miami's only touchdown came when Bryce Petty, the fourth quarterback to see action for the Dolphins, scrambled from 15 yards out with 29 seconds left, completing the play by diving into the end zone. It completed an impressive 73-yard drive for Petty, who also led a touchdown drive in the preseason opener against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Jeremy Langford ran it in for the two-point conversion following Petty's touchdown.

Kenyan Drake had a 34-yard run in the first half and Buddy Howell added a 31-yard gain the fourth quarter for the offense, while Xavien Howard and Maurice Smith each had an interception.

The Dolphins had a first-and-goal at the 9-yard line after the Howard interception and a first-and-10 at the Carolina 12 after Smith's interception, but they were forced to settle for two short field goals. The Dolphins were 0-for-3 in the red zone before Petty's touchdown.

Another big highlight for the Dolphins was the performance of veteran defensive end Robert Quinn, who sacked Cam Newton twice in the first half, including one on third down to stop a drive.

Ryan Tannehill played five series and completed 14 of 17 passes for 100 yards with no touchdowns and no interceptions. He had a passer rating of 91.2.

Brock Osweiler was 10-for-13 for 68 yards, while David Fales went 1-for-6. Petty was 5-for-6 for 58 yards.

The night didn't start off well for the defense, which allowed a 71-yard touchdown run by Christian McCaffrey on Carolina's second offensive snap, but there were plenty of highlights for the starters.

Defensive tackle Davon Godchaux sacked Newton when Carolina went for a two-point conversion following McCaffrey's touchdown.

Linebacker Raekwon McMillan also dropped McCaffrey for a 2-yard loss after perfectly reading a screen pass.

Kenyan Drake had a 34-yard run in the first half and Buddy Howell added a 31-yard gain the fourth quarter for the offense, while Xavien Howard and Maurice Smith each had an interception.

The Dolphins had a first-and-goal at the 9-yard line after the Howard interception and a first-and-10 at the Carolina 12 after Smith's interception, but they were forced to settle for two short field goals. The Dolphins were 0-for-3 in the red zone before Petty's touchdown.

Another big highlight for the Dolphins was the performance of veteran defensive end Robert Quinn, who sacked Cam Newton twice in the first half, including one on third down to stop a drive.

Ryan Tannehill played five series and completed 14 of 17 passes for 100 yards with no touchdowns and no interceptions. He had a passer rating of 91.2.

Brock Osweiler was 10-for-13 for 68 yards, while David Fales went 1-for-6. Petty was 5-for-6 for 58 yards.

The night didn't start off well for the defense, which allowed a 71-yard touchdown run by Christian McCaffrey on Carolina's second offensive snap, but there were plenty of highlights for the starters.

Defensive tackle Davon Godchaux sacked Newton when Carolina went for a two-point conversion following McCaffrey's touchdown.

Linebacker Raekwon McMillan also dropped McCaffrey for a 2-yard loss after perfectly reading a screen pass.

MIAMI 34 | ATLANTA 7

The Dolphins took control early and never looked back in their preseason finale Thursday night.

The Dolphins scored 21 points in the first quarter for the first time in a preseason game since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger and cruised to a 34-7 victory against the Atlanta Falcons at Mercedes-Benz Stadium.

The victory, the third-most lopsided in Dolphins preseason history, gave them a 1-3 preseason record.

With the Dolphins resting most of their starters, Brock Osweiler got the start at quarterback and guided the three touchdown drives in the first quarter thanks to a lot of help from rookie running backs Kalen Ballage and Buddy Howell.

Ballage, back in action after missing the previous two preseason games because of a concussion, scored on a 9-yard run and had three catches for 37 yards, including a 16-yard gain on the first offensive play of the game.

For good measure, Ballage also had a tackle in punt coverage.

Howell, the undrafted free agent from FAU, had the other two first-quarter touchdowns, first on a 1-yard reception and later on a 1-yard run.

That second score came after linebacker Stephone Anthony picked off a pass after it was deflected by cornerback Torry McTyer, who was one of many Dolphins defenders who impressed in that first half.

Defensive ends Jonathan Woodard and Claudy Mathieu each had a sack; Cameron Malveaux forced an incompletion with pressure and later batted down a pass at the line of scrimmage, and linebacker Chase Allen made the tackle when the Dolphins stopped a fourth-and-1 run on the first play of the second quarter.

That led to a 33-yard field goal by Greg Joseph after David Fales completed consecutive passes to wide receiver Isaiah Ford.

Osweiler threw a second touchdown pass on the final play of the third quarter when he hit Francis Owusu with a perfect back-shoulder throw near the pylon to convert a fourth-and-2 from the Atlanta 14-yard line.

Osweiler, who played the first and third quarters, finished the game 16-for-25 for 147 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions and a passer rating of 106.6.

Jason Sanders closed out the scoring with a 56-yard field goal with 4:33 left in the fourth quarter after earlier missing a 53-yard attempt in the second quarter.

Fales, who played the second and fourth quarters, completed 13 of 20 passes for 94 yards with no touchdowns, one interception and a passer rating of 55.0.

ALONSO'S PICK-SIX WAS A LATE PICK ME UP

Linebacker Kiko Alonso made the game-winning play in Miami's Week 10 victory at San Diego in 2016, picking off Chargers quarterback Philip Rivers and returning it for a 60-yard touchdown to give the Dolphins a 31-24 lead with 1:01 to play. Alonso's touchdown was the latest a Dolphins player had returned an interception for a touchdown to give Miami the lead since at least 1991. It was the latest any NFL player had given his team a lead since Atlanta's Robert Alford had a 59-yard interception return in overtime to defeat Washington on Oct. 11, 2015.

SHULA IS COACH TO HALL OF FAMERS

Hall of Fame and former Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula has had 15 of his former players enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. This total of 15 is the third-most players that an NFL head coach has had inducted into the Hall of Fame, trailing only George Halas, who had 25 players enshrined, and Vince Lombardi, who had 17 players inducted.. Of this group, seven played for Shula while he was head coach with the Baltimore Colts (1963-69), while eight were on his teams with the Dolphins (1970-95).

Hall of Famers who played under Shula in Baltimore include DE Gino Marchetti (Class of 1972), WR Raymond Berry (1973), OT Jim Parker (1973), RB Lenny Moore (1975), QB Johnny Unitas (1979), LB Ted Hendricks (1990) and TE John Mackey (1992).

The Dolphins contingent includes WR Paul Warfield (1983), FB Larry Csonka (1987), Jim Langer (1987), QB Bob Griese (1990), G Larry Little (1993), C Dwight Stephenson (1998), LB Nick Buoniconti (2001) and QB Dan Marino (2005).

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

The Dolphins selected DT Christian Wilkins in the first-round of the 2019 NFL draft, who was a member of two national championship teams at Clemson (2016, 2018). Wilkins was the fifth Dolphins player selected since 2016 to win a national title. S Minkah Fitzpatrick was Miami's first-round pick of the 2018 NFL draft, and was a member of two national championship teams at Alabama (2015, 2017). In the 2017 NFL draft, Miami picked two players who won national championships in college – LB Raekwon McMillan, who won the title as a true freshman at Ohio State in 2014, and CB Cordrea Tankersley, who won a national championship as a senior at Clemson in 2016. In the 2016 NFL draft, the Dolphins selected RB Kenyan Drake in the third round. Drake won two national championships at Alabama in 2012 and 2015.

DOLPHINS NAME

Mariners, Marauders, Mustangs, Missiles, Moons, Sharks, Suns. None of those names suggested to the American Football League expansion franchise in 1965 could raise a fin to the runaway winner.

"Dolphins" was submitted by 622 entrants in a contest which attracted 19,843 entries and more than a 1,000 different names. The dozen finalists were delivered to a seven-member screening committee of local media.

The bottlenose dolphin, an intelligent creature with an irresistible built-in grin, has inspired wonder for centuries. Plutarch observed 1,900 years ago that the dolphin "is the only creature who loves man for his own sake." Every trainer will have a tale of the dolphin's cleverness and ingenuity, and scientists are fascinated by a dolphin's natural equipment which far surpasses the range of Navy sonar equipment.

Mrs. Robert Swanson with Dolphins founder Joe Robbie.

"The dolphin is one of the fastest and smartest creatures of the sea," Joe Robbie said in announcing the team name on October 8, 1965. "Dolphins can attack and kill a shark or a whale. Sailors say bad luck will come to anyone who harms one of them."

Mrs. Robert Swanson of West Miami won two lifetime passes to Dolphins games with her nickname entry. The tiebreaker was picking the winner and score of the 1965 game between the University of Miami and Notre Dame. It ended in a scoreless tie.

The second delay occurs with 6:57 left in the third quarter and halts play for two hours and two minutes. Play resumes again at 6:55 p.m.
Sept. 16	The Dolphins improve to 2-0 on the season with a 20-12 win against the New York Jets at MetLife Stadium, In the game, RB Frank Gore records an 8-yard run in the third quarter to surpass Hall of Famer Curtis Martin for fourth place on the NFL all-time rushing leaders chart.
Sept. 23	Miami's 28-20 win against the Oakland Raiders at Hard Rock Stadium improves the team's record to 3-0. In the contest, WR Albert Wilson finds a streaking WR Jakeem Grant on a trick play for a go-ahead 52-yard touchdown with 7:18 remaining in the game. The play marks the longest touchdown pass by a non-quarterback in Dolphins history. With a 74-yard touchdown reception later in the fourth quarter, Wilson becomes the first Dolphins player to throw and catch a touchdown pass in the same game was WR Mark Clayton against Buffalo in 1983. According to Elias Sports Bureau, Wilson becomes the fourth player in NFL history to record a passing and receiving touchdown of 50-plus yards in the same game. The three previous players to accomplish the feat are David Patten in 2001, Tom Tracy in 1960 and Jimmy Conzelman in 1923.
Oct. 7	With his 70-yard punt return touchdown at the end of the first half of Miami's game at the Cincinnati Bengals at Paul Brown Stadium, WR Jakeem Grant becomes the first player in Dolphins history to score a touchdown via reception, kickoff return and punt return in the same season. Grant returned a kickoff 102 yards against Tennessee in the season opener and had a pair of touchdown receptions, including one for 52 yards, against Oakland in Week 3. Grant also becomes the second player in league history (Dante Hall, 2003) with a 100+ yard kickoff-return touchdown, 70+ yard punt-return touchdown and 50+ yard touchdown catch in a single season.
Oct. 14	Rookie K Jason Sanders hits a 47-yard field goal as overtime expires to give the Dolphins a 31-28 win against the Chicago Bears at Hard Roc k Stadium. RB Frank Gore rushes for 101 yards and becomes just the fifth NFL player since the merger in 1970 to rush for 100+ yards at the age of 35 or older. Additionally, WR Albert Wilson catches six passes for 155 yards. Wilson tied the game twice in the fourth quarter with a pair of touchdowns – one for 43 yards and one for 75 yards. His 150 receiving yards in the fourth quarter are the third-most in the fourth quarter of an NFL game since 1991.
Nov. 4	With a 7-yard run in the third quarter, RB Frank Gore surpasses Hall of Fame RB Barry Sanders to move into sixth place in NFL history in career scrimmage yards during Miami's 13-6 win against the New York Jets at Hard frock Stadium. He finishes the game with 20 rushing attempts for 53 yards and one reception for 6 yards, increasing his total career yards from scrimmage to 18,204.
Dec. 9	On a thrilling final play, the Dolphins get the ball into the hands of RB Kenyan Drake, who weaves through New England defenders for 52 yards and scores the winning touchdown in a 34-33 victory against the New England Patriots at Hard Rock Stadium in a game known as the "Miami Miracle." Trailing 33–28 with 7 seconds remaining in regulation, the Dolphins have the ball at their own 31-yard line. QB Ryan Tannehill throws a pass over the middle that is caught by WR Kenny Stills, who laterals the ball to the right side of the field that is caught by WR DeVante Parker at midfield. Parker then tosses the ball to Drake, who runs the ball 52 yards for a touchdown to win the game. The total game-winning play encompasses 69 yards, which is the longest play to win an NFL game with no time remaining in the fourth quarter since the 1970 AFL/NFL merger. It is the first time in team history that the Dolphins win a regular season game with a walk-off game-winning touchdown. The play goes on to win the Bridgestone Performance Play of the Year Award at the 8th Annual NFL Honors Award Show on Feb. 2, 2019.

PLAYOFF HISTORY

1970 AFC PLAYOFF

OAKLAND 21, MIAMI 14
DEC. 27, 1970

OAKLAND-ALAMEDA COUNTY COLISEUM
OAKLAND, CALIF.

Oakland quarterback Daryle Lamonica unloaded an 82-yard touchdown pass to Rod Sherman with 9:34 left to play as Oakland spoiled the Dolphins' first appearance in the playoffs, 21-14, on a field oozing with mud. The Dolphins, who had won six consecutive games to finish the season 10-4 and gain a wild-card berth, took a 7-0 lead in the second quarter when Bob Griese fired a 16-yard strike to Paul Warfield in the end zone. Lamonica matched that TD with a 22-yard toss to Fred Biletnikoff only 1:50 before halftime. Raiders right cornerback Willie Brown intercepted a wet and wobbly pass by Griese and fled 50 yards along the sideline for the tie-breaking TD. It came minutes after Jake Scott recovered an Oakland fumble at the Miami 10-yard line. The heave to Sherman was insurance. Only three plays earlier, Dolphins kicker Garo Yepremian missed a 24-yard field goal attempt for the second time in the game. Oakland's George Blanda also missed a 23-yarder.

1971 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 27, KANSAS CITY 24 (2 OTs)
DEC. 25, 1971

KANSAS CITY MUNICIPAL STADIUM
KANSAS CITY, MO.

Garo Yepremian ended 82 minutes and 40 seconds of an epic struggle by booting a 37-yard field goal with 7:40 elapsed in the second overtime, lifting the Dolphins past Kansas City, 27-24, on Christmas Day. The Dolphins battled from behind three times to tie the AFC West champions, the third time on Bob Griese's five-yard pass to tight end Marv Fleming with 96 seconds remaining in regulation. Kansas City running back Ed Podolak, who amassed 350 yards of all-purpose running, returned the ensuing kickoff 78 yards to the Dolphin 22 where Curtis Johnson missed a desperation tackle. With 35 seconds on the clock, Jan Stenerud missed a 32-yard field-goal try. Stenerud had a 42-yarder blocked by Nick Buoniconti in the fifth quarter, and Yepremian was short with a 45-yard effort. But Larry Csonka crashed 29 yards to the Chiefs 36, and that put Yepremian, the NFL's scoring leader, in position to win it. Goal posts were on the goal line; in 1974 the uprights were moved to the end line.

1971 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 21, BALTIMORE 0 — ORANGE BOWL
JAN. 2, 1972 — MIAMI, FLA.

Three lightning plays and a persistent defense propelled the Dolphins into Super Bowl VI with a 21-0 rout of Baltimore before an all-time Orange Bowl record crowd of 78,939. Strong safety Dick Anderson intercepted a Johnny Unitas pass which was deflected by Curtis Johnson, and behind a wall of six open-field blocks, Anderson weaved 62 yards for a third-quarter touchdown. "My eyes were popping as I ran," Anderson said. "I've never seen so many people land on their heads." Before Anderson's convoy made it 14-0, the Dolphins staggered the defending Super Bowl champions when Bob Griese and Paul Warfield hooked up for a 75-yard TD pass. Warfield applied the clincher when he escaped 50 yards with a Griese pass, setting up a five-yard TD slam by fullback Larry Csonka. The Colts had not been held scoreless for 97 games over seven seasons. They were stopped at the Dolphins' 9 in the second quarter. Jim O'Brien missed two field-goal attempts and had another blocked by Lloyd Mumphord.

SUPER BOWL VI

DALLAS 24, MIAMI 3
JAN. 16, 1972

TULANE STADIUM
NEW ORLEANS, LA.

A 252-yard rushing attack and sharp passing by Roger Staubach spurred the Dallas Cowboys to a 24-3 victory over the Dolphins at Tulane Stadium. Duane Thomas pranced 95 yards on 19 carries, fullback Walt Garrison added 74 yards on 14 carries and Staubach passed twice for touchdowns to Lance Alworth and Mike Ditka. Staubach, who was sacked twice in the first quarter, bounced back to complete 12 of 19 passes, and he scrambled from the Dolphin pass rush five times. The Dolphins were frustrated all day; in the first quarter, Larry Csonka lost a fumble and Bob Griese was chased by tackle Bob Lilly for a 29-yard loss. Griese also fumbled away a snap at the Dallas 16 in the fourth period. Although it was an intriguing 10-3 at halftime, the Cowboys marched 71 yards in eight plays after the kickoff, and Thomas swept three yards for the touchdown.

1972 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 20, CLEVELAND 14 ORANGE BOWL
DEC. 24, 1972 MIAMI, FLA.

On the ropes in the fourth quarter after an unprecedented 14 victories, the Dolphins responded to a poised Earl Morrall and drove 80 yards for a touchdown with 4:56 to play for a 20-14 victory over the Cleveland Browns. Morrall, the NFL's leading passer after replacing the injured Bob Griese 10 weeks earlier, had completed only four passes for 38 yards. But he threw 15 and 35 yards to Paul Warfield, reaching the Browns 20, and a pass interference call against linebacker Billy Andrews put the ball at the eight. Halfback Jim Kiick then bulled eight yards up the middle on a trap for the winning points. The triumph was sealed with a minute to play when Dolphins linebacker Doug Swift intercepted Cleveland QB Mike Phipps at the Dolphin 20. Despite stealing five of Phipps' passes, the Dolphins were stung by a 27-yard TD pass to Fair Hooker and trailed 14-13 with 8:11 to play.

1972 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 21, PITTSBURGH 17
DEC. 31, 1972

THREE RIVERS STADIUM
PITTSBURGH, PA.

Quarterback Bob Griese, playing 11 weeks after he had broken his right leg, ignited a third-quarter touchdown drive with a 52-yard pass to Paul Warfield, and the Dolphins overtook the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-17, in unusually warm 63-degree weather. Griese was given the nod in the second half after Earl Morrall had flipped a nine-yard touchdown pass to Larry Csonka for a 7-7 halftime deadlock. Punter Larry Seiple broke loose on a daring 37-yard run on fourth down to set up that TD. Trailing 10-7, Griese directed TD drives of 80 and 49 yards with Jim Kiick blasting two and three yards for the scores. Steelers quarterback Terry Bradshaw, who closed the gap with four straight completions on a 71-yard TD drive, was intercepted by Nick Buoniconti at midfield with 2 1⁄2 minutes to play. In addition to Seiple's dash, the Dolphins converted fourth-down situations on both Griese-led drives.

SUPER BOWL VII

MIAMI 14, WASHINGTON 7
JAN. 14, 1973

MEMORIAL COLISEUM
LOS ANGELES, CALIF.

"This is the ultimate," Coach Don Shula said quietly after his unbeaten Dolphins dominated the Washington Redskins, 14-7, to cap a perfect season. It was Shula's first Super Bowl triumph in three tries. A record Super Bowl paid crowd of 90,182 saw the Dolphins surge to a 14-0 halftime lead even as one touchdown was nullified by an offside penalty. Miami intercepted three of Bill Kilmer's passes, and Manny Fernandez scuttled the Redskin running game with 17 tackles. An original Dolphin, Howard Twilley, eluded cornerback Pat Fischer to snare a 28-yard touchdown pass from Bob Griese in the first quarter. Griese's 57-yard TD bomb to Paul Warfield was erased by the penalty, but a 32-yard interception return by linebacker Nick Buoniconti set up the Dolphins' second score. Safety Jake Scott thwarted Kilmer with an end zone interception and 55-yard runback. The Redskins finally scored on a bizarre 49-yard fumble recovery by Mike Bass after a blocked field goal and attempted pass by kicker Garo Yepremian. Scott was named MVP.

1973 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 34, CINCINNATI 16 ORANGE BOWL
DEC. 23, 1973 MIAMI, FLA.

A defense which had allowed only 15 touchdowns all season kept the Cincinnati Bengals out of the end zone while the Dolphins hammered 241 yards on the ground for a convincing 34-16 victory. Mercury Morris scooted 106 yards on 20 carries and Bob Griese completed 11 of 18 passes, including TDs of 13 yards to Paul Warfield and seven yards to Jim Mandich. Garo Yepremian converted field goals of 50 and 46 yards in the second half to widen the winning margin. The Dolphins led 21-3 when a lapse just before halftime gave life to the Bengals. Safety Neal Craig intercepted Griese and returned it 45 yards for a score, and Horst Muhlmann booted field goals of 46 and 12 yards – the second coming after Morris fumbled a kickoff – to make it 21-16.

1973 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 27, OAKLAND 10
DEC. 30, 1973

ORANGE BOWL
MIAMI, FLA.

A relentless running attack with Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris accounting for 203 of the 266 yards, respectively, powered the Dolphins to a 27-10 triumph over the Oakland Raiders for a third straight American Conference title. Csonka, a 237-pound battering ram who had his third consecutive 1,000-yard season, scored three touchdowns with his 117 yards on 29 carries. The Dolphins covered 64 and 63 yards exclusively on the ground for a 14-0 halftime lead. Then as the Raiders battled to within 17-10, Bob Griese directed ground assaults of 63 yards, culminating in a field goal, and 42 yards, ending in Csonka's third TD. Defensively, safety Dick Anderson forced a fourth-down fumble by Marv Hubbard at midfield, and the Dolphins took possession with a 20-10 lead and six minutes to play. Oakland had stopped Miami's 18-game winning streak, 12-7, three months earlier.

SUPER BOWL VIII

MIAMI 24, MINNESOTA 7
JAN. 13, 1974

RICE STADIUM
HOUSTON, TEXAS

Winning for the 32nd time in 34 games, the Dolphins repeated as Super Bowl champions and proved themselves "Best Ever" with a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings at Rice Stadium. There was no doubt from the beginning. The Dolphins swept 62 yards in 10 plays with the opening kickoff, scoring on Larry Csonka's five-yard smash. Minnesota punted, and the onslaught resumed with a 56-yard, 10-play Dolphin drive capped by Jim Kiick's one-yard plunge. It was 17-0 before the Vikings crossed their 40, and a fourth-down fumble by Minnesota's Oscar Reed was recovered by safety Jake Scott at the Dolphins' six-yard line. A brilliant, diving catch by Paul Warfield netted 27 yards on a third-quarter TD drive that hiked the score to 24-0. Csonka finished with his best-ever total of 145 yards on 33 carries. The Dolphins rushed for 703 yards and outscored opponents 85-33 in the three-game playoff blitz. Csonka's yardage was a Super Bowl record and he was named MVP.

1974 AFC PLAYOFF

OAKLAND 28, MIAMI 26
DEC. 21, 1974

OAKLAND-ALAMEDA COUNTY COLISEUM
OAKLAND, CALIF.

Oakland quarterback Ken Stabler, falling in the clutches of Vern Den Herder, unloaded a wobbly eight-yard pass that Clarence Davis wrestled from three defenders in the end zone, and the Raiders scored a stunning 28-26 victory over the defending champion Dolphins. Stabler, who had spent the last of his timeouts, appeared to have thrown an interception. But running back Davis clutched the football when bodies were untangled with 26 seconds remaining. It was the fourth TD pass for lefthander Stabler and his second "freak" score. Four minutes earlier Cliff Branch fell while catching a pass at the Dolphins' 27, but defender Henry Stuckey also slipped, and Branch got up and escaped for a 72-yard TD. The Dolphins, trailing by two points, went ahead with 2:08 remaining as rookie Benny Malone broke two tackles on a 23-yard touchdown run along the sideline.

HOUSTON 17, MIAMI 9 — ORANGE BOWL
DEC. 24, 1978 — MIAMI, FLA.

The Houston Oilers amassed a 455-209 margin in total yardage, and aided by five Dolphins turnovers, gained a 17-9 victory in a battle of AFC wild-card entries at the Orange Bowl. Toni Fritsch kicked a 35-yard field goal with 7:25 remaining to snap a 7-7 tie that existed since the first quarter. An interception by linebacker Greg Bingham led to a clinching 50-yard touchdown drive capped by Earl Campbell's one-yard dive with 1:55 to go. Campbell, the NFL rushing leader with 1,450 yards as a rookie, had been checked for only 16 yards on 13 carries in the first half. Dolphins quarterback Bob Griese, playing with very sore ribs, connected with tight end Andre Tillman for a 13-yard TD after Earnie Rhone had recovered a fumbled punt at the Houston 21. But Griese completed only 13 of 28 passes. Twice the Dolphins lost the ball inside the Oilers 10-yard line when the game was tied. Houston's Dan Pastorini wore a flak jacket to protect three broken ribs, and he passed for 261 of his 306-yard total in the first half.

1979 AFC PLAYOFF

PITTSBURGH 34, MIAMI 14 THREE RIVERS STADIUM
DEC. 30, 1979 PITTSBURGH, PA.

Launching a drive to their fourth Super Bowl title in six years, the Pittsburgh Steelers scored touchdowns on their first three possessions and coasted to a 34-14 victory at Three Rivers Stadium. Miami managed only 25 yards rushing against the Steel Curtain and was stopped twice in the second quarter after achieving a first down inside the Steelers 10-yard line. The Dolphins got as close as 20-7 with a seven-yard TD pass from Bob Griese to Duriel Harris in the third period, but Pittsburgh responded with a 69-yard TD drive. The Steelers marched 62, 62 and 56 yards for their first-quarter scores when quarterback Terry Bradshaw completed 8 of 10 passes, including touchdowns to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, who was standing alone in the end zone. Don Strock directed a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive after relieving Griese in the fourth quarter.

1981 AFC PLAYOFF

SAN DIEGO 41, MIAMI 38 (OT)
JAN. 2, 1982

ORANGE BOWL
MIAMI, FLA.

A record-setting showcase of the passing game resulted in NFL playoff marks for most points (79), most total yards (1,036) and most drama as the San Diego Chargers outlasted the Dolphins 41-38 in overtime. "The Miracle That Died" was the Miami Herald headline after the Dolphins rallied behind reserve quarterback Don Strock to overcome a 24-point deficit. The Pro Football Hall of Fame voted the contest as the "NFL's Game of the '80s." Strock completed 29 of 43 passes for 403 yards and four touchdowns, spurring the Dolphins to a 38-31 lead. A 12-yard sweep by Tony Nathan on the first play of the fourth quarter put the Dolphins on top. But Chargers quarterback Dan Fouts, who passed for an NFL record 4,802 yards during the season, led an 82-yard drive capped by a 9-yard pass to James Brooks to tie the game with 58 seconds remaining. Five players had more than 100 yards in receptions, topped by Chargers tight end Kellen Winslow with 13 catches for 166 yards. Fouts, who finished with 433 yards on 33 of 53 marksmanship, hooked up with Charlie Joiner for 39 yards to the Dolphins 10-yard line. Rolf Benirschke then kicked a 29-yard field goal to end the struggle after 13:52 of overtime. Benirschke had missed a 27-yard attempt eight minutes earlier, and Miami's Uwe von Schamann had two attempts blocked – a 43-yarder on the last play of regulation and a 35-yarder after 11:27 of overtime. It was the first game in NFL history in which two quarterbacks passed for more than 400 yards.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (FIRST ROUND)

MIAMI 28, NEW ENGLAND 13 ORANGE BOWL
JAN. 8, 1983 MIAMI, FLA.

For the first time in nine years, the Miami Dolphins won a playoff game, defeating the New England Patriots 28-13. Dolphins QB David Woodley had one of his finest games, completing 16 of 19 passes for 246 yards and two TDs. He was a perfect 8-8 in the second half. The Dolphins had not experienced a playoff win since January 13, 1974, when they downed Minnesota in Super Bowl VIII. The Dolphins took command in the second quarter, putting together back-to-back TD drives of 76 and 79 yards that turned a 3-0 deficit into a 14-3 halftime advantage. The four Miami TDs came on a pair of two-yard passes from Woodley to tight end Bruce Hardy, a one-yard run by Andra Franklin and Woody Bennett's two-yard burst up the middle. Franklin finished with 112 yards on 26 carries, but lost the ball three times on fumbles. Two of those fumbles resulted in John Smith field goals of 23 and 42 yards for New England.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (SECOND ROUND)

MIAMI 34, SAN DIEGO 13
JAN. 16, 1983

ORANGE BOWL
MIAMI, FLA.

The Dolphins choked off the famed Chargers offense and won 34-13. The Dolphins defense stopped the San Diego offense, holding it to a total of 247 yards – 203 yards below its league-leading average - while holding the Chargers scoreless in the second half. Dolphins defenders intercepted QB Dan Fouts five times, sacked him three times and held the Chargers to 15 completions for 191 yards – their lowest output since a January, 1982, playoff game in the ice at Cincinnati. The Dolphins offense kept Fouts and Company on the sideline by utilizing ball control that produced 80 plays to San Diego's 54 and an overwhelming time of possession advantage; the Dolphins had the ball for 40:46 to the Chargers' 19:14. Dolphins QB David Woodley guided his team to a 214-yard ground attack while connecting on 17-22 passes for 195 yards and two TDs. Woodley opened the scoring with a three-yard pass to Nat Moore in the first quarter and made it 14-0 by directing Miami 89 yards on 13 plays. Chargers kickoff returner Hank Bauer fumbled a kickoff which was recovered by Uwe von Schamann at the Chargers 23-yard line. Seven plays later, Woodley hit tight end Ronnie Lee on a six-yard look-in pass for the score. On the next kickoff, Dolphins rookie Rich Diana recovered a fumble by the Chargers' James Brooks, but this time Miami had to settle for a 29-yard von Schamann field goal. The Chargers scored two late TDs, one on a 28-yard pass from Fouts to Charlie Joiner and the other on Chuck Muncie's one-yard dive that ended the San Diego scoring. Von Schamann added a second field goal shortly before the end of the first half and Woodley scored on a seven-yard QB draw early in the fourth quarter.

1982 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 14, N.Y. JETS 0 — ORANGE BOWL
JAN. 23, 1983 — MIAMI, FLA.

For the third time in as many games in 1982, the Miami Dolphins defeated the New York Jets, this time on a rainy, mud-soaked Orange Bowl field. The Dolphins set an AFC Championship Game record by holding the Jets to 139 total yards. A.J. Duhe set an AFC playoff record with three interceptions, including one he returned for a 35-yard TD. The Dolphins set an NFL record by being the first team to have defeated the same team three times in a season – two times during the regular season and once in a playoff game. On nine occasions since the AFL-NFL merger, teams had met three times in a season – but no team had won all three games. Before a crowd of 67,396, the Dolphins' Woody Bennett rumbled seven yards up the middle to score the only points the Dolphins would need. That came in the third quarter after the teams had trudged through a scoreless first half on the soggy Prescription Athletic Turf.

SUPER BOWL XVII

WASHINGTON 27, MIAMI 17
JAN. 30, 1983

ROSE BOWL
PASADENA, CALIF.

The Washington Redskins, behind the power running of John Riggins, came from behind to win Super Bowl XVII in the famed Rose Bowl, beating Miami 27-17. Before the second-largest crowd for a Super Bowl – 103,667 fans – the Redskins took the lead for the first time with a little more than 10 minutes left on the clock. The game was marked by a Super Bowl record performance by Fulton Walker, who returned four kickoffs 190 yards, including a 98-yard TD that gave Miami a 17-10 halftime lead. It was the first kickoff returned for a TD in Super Bowl history and the longest kickoff return in playoff history. Riggins ran up 166 yards on 38 carries, both Super Bowl records. On a short-yardage play – fourth-and-one from the Redskin 43 with 10:01 to play – Riggins broke a tackle and scored on a 43-yard run. Riggins accounted for 181 total yards, five more yards than the entire Miami offense could manage in the game. In the first quarter, Miami jumped to a quick lead with a 76-yard David Woodley to Jimmy Cefalo pass for a TD.

1983 AFC PLAYOFF

SEATTLE 27, MIAMI 20 ORANGE BOWL
DEC. 31, 1983 MIAMI, FLA.

The Miami Dolphins saw their season end on a sour note as they lost a 27-20 decision to the Seattle Seahawks in the first round of the AFC playoffs. Before 71,032 fans in the Orange Bowl, Dolphins rookie quarterback Dan Marino returned from his December 4 knee injury. On their second possession, the Dolphins launched a 12-play, 80-yard drive ending with a 19-yard TD pass from Marino to tight end Dan Johnson (PAT missed). A 59-yard return by Zachary Dixon on the ensuing kickoff led to a six-yard scoring toss from Seattle's Dave Krieg to Cullen Bryant with the extra point, giving the Seahawks a one point lead. Miami immediately retaliated, using a 17-yard Marino to Mark Duper hook-up to pave the way for a 32-yard circus catch by Duper for the touchdown. Early in the third quarter, a David Overstreet fumble in Seattle territory set the Seahawks up for a 55-yard TD march featuring a 28-yard completion from Krieg to Paul Johns, and culminating in a one-yard run by Curt Warner. Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter gave Seattle a 17-13 lead. The Dolphins managed to regain the lead at 20-17 following a Gerald Small interception (18-yard return) and Woody Bennett's two-yard run with only 3:43 remaining. However, the lead was shortlived as the Seahawks came right back to score on Warner's short run following a pair of Krieg to Steve Largent completions for a total of 56 yards. Miami's Fulton Walker then fumbled the Seattle kickoff, thus leading to a 37-yard Johnson field goal. Another Walker kickoff fumble iced the game for the Seahawks, who were participating in the playoffs for the first time in their eight-year history.

1984 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 31, SEATTLE 10
DEC. 29, 1984

ORANGE BOWL
MIAMI, FLA.

The Miami Dolphins, led by quarterback Dan Marino's three touchdown passes and a defense that shut out the opposition in three of four quarters, defeated the Seattle Seahawks 31-10 before 73,469 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins moved in front on their second possession and stayed there. Running back Tony Nathan keyed the 68-yard drive by gaining 38 yards on four carries, including the touchdown on a 14-yard run. A 26-yard Marino to Mark Clayton completion was the long play of the scoring march. A 32-yard interception return by Seattle's John Harris and a 25-yard pass from Dave Krieg to Steve Largent paved the way for Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal that cut Miami's lead to 7-3. The Dolphins, however, came right back to score on their next series as a 20-yard reception by Woody Bennett preceded Marino's 34-yard scoring hook-up with Jimmy Cefalo. The Seahawks made it 14-10 at halftime when Largent scored on a 56-yard catch-and-run play. After Miami's defense had stopped Seattle on the Dolphins 24-yard line to open the second half, the Dolphins embarked on a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive that included a Bruce Hardy touchdown catch from three yards out. After the Seahawks' Jeff West managed just a seven-yard punt, Clayton made an acrobatic catch on a tipped ball in the end zone for a 33-yard TD. Miami closed out the scoring on Uwe von Schamann's 37-yard field goal in a drive that featured a 32-yard Marino to Hardy pass.

JAN. 6, 1985

ORANGE BOWL
MIAMI, FLA.

The Miami Dolphins, led by Dan Marino's 421 yards passing (four touchdowns) and Mark Duper's 148 yards receiving, advanced to Super Bowl XIX by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers, 45-28, in the AFC Championship Game before 76,029 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins scored on their first offensive series as they moved 67 yards in four plays following a William Judson interception, with the TD coming on a 40-yard pass from Marino to Mark Clayton. Pittsburgh's first score came on Rich Erenberg's seven-yard run that had been set up by Walter Abercrombie's 38 yards gained in the 66-yard march. A 26-yard Uwe von Schamann field goal preceded a 65-yard toss from the Steelers' Mark Malone to John Stallworth that gave Pittsburgh a 14-10 lead. The Dolphins then scored two TDs in the final 2:52 of the first half, the first score coming on a 41-yard reception by Duper. After Lyle Blackwood's interception, Marino hit TE Joe Rose for a 28-yard gain before Tony Nathan gave the Dolphins a 24-14 lead on a two-yard run. Miami then scored on its first three second-half possessions, leading off with Marino's 36-yard scoring strike to Duper. The Steelers closed the gap to 31-21 on Malone's 19-yarder to Stallworth (33-yarder to Louis Lipps in drive). Completions to Duper (41 yards), Nathan (20 yards) and Nat Moore (28 yards) then led to a one-yard TD dive by Woody Bennett. Moore then caught a six-yard touchdown pass before Wayne Capers closed out the scoring with a 29-yard TD reception.

SUPER BOWL XIX

SAN FRANCISCO 38, MIAMI 16
JAN. 20, 1985

STANFORD STADIUM
PALO ALTO, CALIF.

The Miami Dolphins, unable to score in the game's final two quarters, dropped a 38-16 decision to the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl XIX before 84,059 fans in Stanford Stadium. The Dolphins were outgained in the contest by a 537-314 margin with the 49ers maintaining possession for 37:11. Miami opened the scoring on its first possession as Uwe von Schamann converted a 37-yard field goal (key play – Dan Marino's 25-yard completion to Tony Nathan). San Francisco jumped ahead 7-3 when QB Joe Montana led the Niners on an eight-play, 78-yard drive that culminated in a 33-yard TD toss to Carl Monroe. The Dolphins scored their only touchdown of the game on their next series as two Marino completions to Mark Clayton (18, 13 yards) and a 21-yarder to Dan Johnson paved the way for Johnson's two-yard scoring catch. Touchdown runs of eight and two yards by Roger Craig and Montana's six-yard scamper gave San Francisco a 28-10 lead. Von Schamann then connected on field goals of 31 and 30 yards in the final 12 seconds of the first half to close the Dolphins' deficit to 28-16. The 49ers upped their lead on their initial second-half possession on Ray Wersching's 27-yard field goal, before closing out the scoring on Craig's 16-yard scoring reception (key play – 40-yard Montana to Wendell Tyler pass play).

1985 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 24, CLEVELAND 21 ORANGE BOWL
JAN. 4, 1986 MIAMI, FLA.

Most people had not given them much of a chance to win, but the 8-8 Cleveland Browns nearly upset the 12-4 Dolphins in the Orange Bowl. It would take two Ron Davenport touchdowns in the final 17 minutes to send Miami to a 24-21 victory and the AFC Championship Game against New England the following week. Fuad Reveiz put the Dolphins on the board early with a 51-yard field goal on Miami's first drive of the game. But Cleveland came back to score 21 unanswered points, and held a 21-3 advantage midway through the third quarter. Cleveland rookie quarterback Bernie Kosar hit Ozzie Newsome with a 16-yard touchdown pass for the Browns first points of the day. Earnest Byner ran in from 21 yards out just before the half, and then he broke a 66-yard touchdown jaunt 3:38 into the second half. Just like that, the improbable began to look possible. Dan Marino connected with Nat Moore for a six-yard touchdown pass just over six minutes later and Miami had closed the margin to 21-10. Then it was time for Davenport to show his stuff. First, he hit the hole for a 31-yard touchdown run late in the third period and then he closed the scoring and put Miami up for good, going over from one yard out with just 1:57 remaining in the game.

1985 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

NEW ENGLAND 31, MIAMI 14 ORANGE BOWL
JAN. 12, 1986 MIAMI, FLA.

The New England Patriots garnered a bid to their first Super Bowl by snapping an 18-game losing streak to the Dolphins in Miami with a 31-14 triumph, in what would be the final NFL postseason game at the Orange Bowl. The Patriots' only previous victory in Miami came in the first meeting between the two teams in 1966. New England backs Craig James (22-105) and Robert Weathers (16-87) combined for 192 yards rushing and quarterback Tony Eason was on target with a 10-12 performance for 71 yards as the Pats set up a Super Bowl date with the Chicago Bears. After New England got on the board first with a Tony Franklin 23-yard field goal, the Dolphins stormed back for their only lead of the afternoon when Dan Marino passed 10 yards to Dan Johnson early in the second quarter. Eason brought New England right back with three touchdown tosses, and the Pats led 24-7 after three quarters. Miami's last score of the day came early in the fourth quarter when Tony Nathan grabbed a 10-yard TD pass from Marino. New England fullback Mosi Tatupu ended the game's scoring with a one-yard TD jaunt midway through the fourth quarter.

1990 AFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF

MIAMI 17, KANSAS CITY 16
JAN. 5, 1991

JOE ROBBIE STADIUM
MIAMI, FLA.

Dan Marino threw two fourth quarter touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a dramatic come-from-behind 17-16 playoff win over the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 67,276 at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the final period, Marino hit on all eight of his pass attempts for 101 yards and two touchdowns. Including the third quarter, Marino hit on his last ten pass attempts to lead the Dolphins back from a 13-3 deficit to a 17-16 win. The Chiefs opened the scoring in the first quarter when Charles Washington blocked a Reggie Roby punt and returned the ball to Miami's 37-yard line. However, Miami's defense stiffened and held the Chiefs to a 27-yard field goal by Nick Lowery. Miami kicker Pete Stoyanovich tied the score at 3-3 in the second period by booting an NFL playoff record 58-yard field goal. Stoyanovich's kick broke the previous record of 54 yards by Detroit's Eddie Murray on Dec. 24, 1983, against San Francisco and it was the second-longest kick of Stoyanovich's career. The Chiefs took a 10-3 halftime lead by scoring on a 26-yard touchdown strike from Steve DeBerg to Stephone Paige. The Chiefs extended their lead to 16-3 on a pair of third quarter field goals by Lowery from 25 and 38 yards. In the fourth quarter, the Dolphins closed the score to 16-10 as Marino hit fullback Tony Paige with a one-yard touchdown pass. The key play in the drive was a two-yard run by Sammie Smith on a fourth-and-two from Kansas City's 45-yard line. The Dolphins forced the Chiefs to punt on their next possession and received the ball on their own 15-yard line with 10:39 left in the game. The Dolphins converted three third downs and drove to the Chiefs' 12-yard line with 3:28 left in the contest before Marino hit Mark Clayton with a 12-yard touchdown pass to give Miami a 17-16 lead. However, the Chiefs had a chance to win the game as they drove from their own 22-yard line to the Dolphin 34 before Lowery's 52-yard field goal attempt was just short.

1990 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

BUFFALO 44, MIAMI 34 RICH STADIUM
JAN. 12, 1991 ORCHARD PARK, N.Y.

The Miami Dolphins saw the 1990 season come to an end with a 44-34 loss to the Buffalo Bills in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest in the snow and ice at Rich Stadium. The game was an offensive shootout as the teams combined for 78 points, 48 first downs, 923 total net yards, 662 passing yards, 261 rushing yards, nine touchdowns and five field goals. Individually, Dan Marino (23 of 49 for 323 yards with three TDs and two INTs) and Jim Kelly (19-29-339-3-1) both passed for over 300 yards. Kelly became the only quarterback to throw for over 300 yards against the Dolphin defense in 1990. Mark Duper (three catches for 113 yards and a score) and Buffalo's Andre Reed (4-122-2) and James Lofton (7-149-1) all went over the 100-yard receiving mark. On the ground, the Bills' Thurman Thomas (32 carries for 117 yards and two TDs) and Miami's Sammie Smith (21-99) led the way. Buffalo dominated the first quarter and jumped out to a 13-3 lead. The Bills scored on their first possession as Kelly hit Reed with a 40-yard touchdown strike and the Dolphins answered the score with a 49-yard field goal to close the score to 7-3. Buffalo added a pair of Scott Norwood field goals – from 24 and 22 yards – to close the first quarter scoring. The Bills struck first in the second quarter on a five-yard run by Thomas to lead 20-3. Miami answered the score on its next possession as Marino and Duper combined for a 64-yard touchdown. The Bills came right back and scored as Kelly threw 13 yards for a score to Lofton to take a 27-10 lead. On their next possession Miami was forced to punt, however the Bills' Al Edwards fumbled the punt and Reggie Roby recovered for Miami on Buffalo's 47-yard line. Miami drove down to the two-yard line where Marino ran in for the score to narrow Buffalo's lead to 27-17 at the half. The Dolphins and Buffalo exchanged third quarter field goals as Stoyanovich hit from 22 yards and Norwood connected from 28 yards. Miami closed the score to 30-27 early in the fourth quarter as Marino threw a two-yard touchdown pass to offensive guard Roy Foster. It was the first reception and touchdown of Foster's career as he became the first offensive or defensive lineman to score an offensive touchdown in a post-season contest since Chicago Bears' defensive tackle William Perry rumbled in from a yard out in Super Bowl XX on January 26, 1986. However, the Bills struck back for 14 quick points to put the game away. First, Thomas scored his second touchdown of the game on a five-yard run. On the ensuing kickoff, Miami returner Marc Logan fumbled the ball and Norwood recovered for Buffalo on the Dolphins' 29-yard line. Two plays later, Kelly and Reed combined for a 26-yard scoring toss and a 44-27 lead. The Dolphins scored the final touchdown of the game with just 1:15 remaining as Marino hit Tony Martin with an eight-yard touchdown pass.

1992 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

MIAMI 31, SAN DIEGO 0
JAN. 10, 1993

JOE ROBBIE STADIUM
MIAMI, FLA.

Miami cornerback Troy Vincent recorded a pair of interceptions and quarterback Dan Marino threw three touchdown passes to lead the Miami Dolphins to a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers in the AFC Divisional Playoffs before a crowd of 71,224 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's 31-point margin of victory was the largest by the team in a playoff game. The previous largest margin of victory in the post-season by the Dolphins was three 21-point wins as Miami had a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on January 2, 1972 in the Orange Bowl, a 34-13 win over the San Diego Chargers on January 16, 1983 in the Orange Bowl and a 31-10 win over the Seattle Seahawks on December 29, 1984 in the Orange Bowl. Overall, the Miami defense totaled four interceptions (also safety Louis Oliver and linebacker Bryan Cox), a forced fumble (by cornerback Stephen Braggs), a fumble recovery (by linebacker Dwight Hollier) and a sack (by defensive end Jeff Hunter). The Dolphins held the Chargers to just ten first downs (three rushing and seven passing), 202 yards of total offense (70 rushing and 132 passing) and three of 15 on third down conversions. The Chargers' 15 possessions ended in seven punts, four interceptions, twice on downs, once on a lost fumble and once at the end of the first half. Following a scoreless first quarter, the Dolphins exploded for 21 points in the second quarter to take a 21-0 lead at the half. Miami's 21 points in the second quarter was the most scored by the Dolphins in any quarter of a playoff game in team history. The previous team high for points in a quarter was 20 points which was scored by Miami in the second quarter against San Diego on January 6, 1983. Miami opened the scoring following a Vincent interception which gave the team possession on San Diego's 48-yard line. Marino led the Dolphins on a nine-play, 48-yard drive which was capped-off as Marino tossed a one-yard scoring pass to fullback Tony Paige. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-0 later in the period as the team again gained possession of the ball following a Vincent interception and drove 37 yards and scored on a nine-yard connection from Marino to tight end Keith Jackson. Miami scored the final points of the first half as Marino again connected with Jackson and the tight end made a diving 30-yard reception in the end zone for the score. Jackson became just the fourth player in team history to record two touchdown receptions for the Dolphins in a playoff contest. Miami and San Diego played to a scoreless third quarter before the Dolphins scored the game's final ten points in the fourth quarter. Miami increased its lead to 24-0 early in the final stanza as kicker Pete Stoyanovich booted a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins scored the final points of the game as running back Aaron Craver scored on a 25-yard run to increase the margin to 31-0.

JAN. 7, 1993 MIAMI, FLA.

The Miami Dolphins suffered five turnovers (two interceptions and three fumbles) as the team dropped a 29-10 decision to the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Championship Game before a crowd of 72,703 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Buffalo opened the scoring midway through the opening period as defensive end Bruce Smith sacked Miami quarterback Dan Marino and forced a fumble which was recovered by Bills linebacker Darryl Talley on the Dolphins' 47-yard line. Buffalo scored off the takeaway as Steve Christie converted on a 21-yard field goal. Miami tied the score at 3-3 later in the period as Pete Stoyanovich converted on a 51-yard field goal attempt. The Bills took a 10-3 lead early in the second period as quarterback Jim Kelly threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to running back Thurman Thomas. On Miami's next possession, Marino's pass attempt was batted in the air by Buffalo defensive end Phil Hansen and intercepted by Hansen on the Dolphins' 17-yard line. The Bills increased their lead to 13-3 as Christie kicked on a 33-yard field goal. Buffalo took a 20-3 lead early in the third quarter by capitalizing on another Miami turnover as kick returner Mike Williams fumbled the second half kickoff and Buffalo's Carwell Gardner recovered the ball on the Dolphins' 25-yard line. The Bills scored four plays later as running back Kenneth Davis ran into the end zone for a two-yard touchdown. Buffalo increased its lead to 26-3 as Christie hit on a pair of field goals from 21 and 31 yards. Miami closed the score to 26-10 as Marino connected with wide receiver Mark Duper on a 15-yard touchdown pass. With the TD pass, Marino extended his streak to ten consecutive playoff games with one or more touchdown passes which is tied with the Raiders' Ken Stabler (1973-77) for the NFL's all-time record for consecutive post-season games with a touchdown pass. In addition, Duper's touchdown reception was his fifth post-season touchdown catch and broke the team's playoff record for career touchdown receptions. Duper was tied with wide receiver Paul Warfield (four TDs on 34 career playoff catches) and tight end Bruce Hardy (four TDs on 26 catches). Buffalo closed the scoring later in the period as Christie converted his fifth field goal of the game with a 38-yarder.

1994 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

MIAMI 27, KANSAS CITY 17 JOE ROBBIE STADIUM
DEC. 31, 1994 MIAMI, FLA.

Dan Marino threw a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 27-17 win in a First-Round playoff contest against the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 69,757 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game was billed as Marino-Montana III and the duel between the two future Hall of Famers lived up to the pregame hype. Marino completed 22 of 29 passes for 257 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions and Montana countered by hitting on 26 of 37 passes for 314 yards with two scores and an interception. The first half was an offensive shootout which was tied at 17-17 with neither team being forced to punt. Kansas City opened the scoring as Montana tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Derrick Walker. Miami answered the score on its first possession as Bernie Parmalee scored on a one-yard run. The Chiefs came right back to close the first quarter scoring at 14-7 as Montana threw a short pass to fullback Kimble Anders who turned the play into a 57-yard catch and run for the touchdown. Miami cut the score to 14-10 early in the second quarter as Pete Stoyanovich booted a 40-yard field goal. Kansas City upped its lead to 17-10 later in the quarter as Lin Elliott booted a 21-yard field goal. The Dolphins closed the first half scoring as Marino tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ronnie Williams. The scoring pass set an NFL record as it marked Marino's 11th consecutive post-season game with a touchdown toss. He moved past a tie with Montana (San Francisco/Kansas City) and Ken Stabler (Oakland) for the longest all-time streak of playoff games with a touchdown pass in NFL history. The Dolphins dominated the second half and outscored the Chiefs by a 10-0 margin. Miami took its first lead of the ballgame at 24-17 on the first drive of the third quarter as Marino and Irving Fryar connected on a seven-yard touchdown pass. Miami increased its lead to 27-17 on a 40-yard field goal late in the third period. The Dolphins forced a pair of turnovers by the Chiefs in Miami territory to preserve the win. First, cornerback J.B. Brown intercepted a Montana aerial on the goal line to stop a drive and then safety Michael Stewart forced and recovered a fumble by Marcus Allen on the Dolphins' 34-yard line.

1994 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

SAN DIEGO 22, MIAMI 21
JAN. 8, 1995

JACK MURPHY STADIUM
SAN DIEGO, CALIF.

Natrone Means rushed for 139 yards and a touchdown to lead the Chargers to a 22-21 win over the Miami Dolphins in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest before a crowd of 63,381 at Jack Murphy Stadium. San Diego had the first scoring threat of the game as they drove down to Miami's 26-yard line, but Miami's Marco Coleman forced a fumble by Means to stop the drive. Following the takeaway, the Dolphins opened the scoring as Dan Marino capped a nine-play, 79-yard drive with an eight-yard scoring pass to tight end Keith Jackson. The Chargers closed the score to 7-3 on their next possession as John Carney booted a 20-yard field goal. Prior to the field goal attempt, San Diego had a first-and-goal from the Dolphins' six-yard line but the Miami defense stiffened and held the Chargers out of the end zone. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-3 on their next possession as Marino and Jackson connected again in the end zone for a nine-yard touchdown pass. Jackson's two touchdown receptions in the contest tied Miami's all-time single-game playoff record, which was accomplished five previous times. San Diego answered the touchdown with another field goal as Carney connected on a 21-yard effort. Once again, San Diego had a first-and-goal on Miami's six-yard line and the Dolphin defense limited the Chargers to a field goal. Miami closed the first half scoring as Marino threw a 16-yard touchdown pass to Mike Williams with just 27 seconds left in the first half to take a 21-6 lead. San Diego opened the third quarter with a long drive which was halted when Means was held for no gain on a fourth-and-one play from Miami's one-yard line and the Dolphins took possession of the ball. However, on Miami's first play following the goal line stand, Dolphins running back Bernie Parmalee was tackled in the end zone for a safety to bring the score to 21-8. Following a free kick by Miami's John Kidd, the Chargers got the ball on their own 46-yard line and drove for a 24-yard touchdown run by Means to cut the score to 21-15. Miami had the ball for just one play — the safety by Parmalee – in the entire third quarter. San Diego took a 22-21 lead with just 35 seconds left in regulation as Stan Humphries threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mark Seay. The Dolphins had one final chance to win the game as Marino drove the team down to the Chargers' 30-yard line but Pete Stoyanovich's 48-yard field goal attempt with just eight seconds remaining was wide right.

1995 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

BUFFALO 37, MIAMI 22 RICH STADIUM
DEC. 30, 1995 ORCHARD PARK, N.Y.

The Buffalo Bills cruised out to a 24-0 halftime lead en route to a 37-22 victory in an AFC First Round Playoff game in front of 73,103 fans at Rich Stadium. The contest proved to be the last game for Don Shula as head coach of the Dolphins. The Bills, led by running back Thurman Thomas' 158 yards, grounded out an AFC Playoff record 341 rushing yards, breaking the old mark of 318 set by the San Diego Chargers against Boston in 1963. Miami quarterback Dan Marino tied an NFL postseason record, with Bernie Kosar while he was a member of the Cleveland Browns in 1986, with 64 passing attempts and completed 33 (tied for second-highest in NFL postseason) of them for 422 yards (third-highest in NFL postseason). The two teams set an NFL postseason record with 1,038 combined total net yards, breaking the old mark of 1,036 by the Dolphins and the San Diego Chargers in an overtime game in 1981. The Bills took an early 7-0 lead when Thomas scored on a one-yard touchdown run. Buffalo kicker Steve Christie put the Bills ahead 10-0 with a 48-yard field goal. Buffalo needed just four plays to go 68 yards and took a 17-0 advantage when fullback Darick Holmes ran 21 yards for a touchdown with 9:54 left in the half. On the Dolphins' next possession, they drove to the Buffalo 40-yard line but Marino was hit by Bills defensive end Phil Hansen as he threw and the tipped ball was intercepted by linebacker Marlo Perry. It took Buffalo just 49 seconds to make the score 24-0 as Kelly connected with Steve Tasker on a 37-yard touchdown pass. The Bills added to their lead in the third quarter by driving 55 yards on ten plays and extended their lead to 27-0 when Christie booted a 23-yard field goal late in the third quarter. Miami got on the board when they took the ball on their next possession and drove 67 yards on nine plays and made the score 27-7 when Marino hit wide receiver O.J. McDuffie on a five-yard touchdown pass. The Bills increased their lead to 34-7 when they culminated a 61-yard drive with a 44-yard touchdown run by fullback Tim Tindale with 9:31 remaining in the game. The Dolphins cut the lead to 34-14 on their next possession as Marino connected with wide receiver Randal Hill on a 45-yard touchdown to close out a seven-play, 68-yard drive. The Bills answered with an eight-play, 44-yard drive that saw Christie kick a 42-yard field goal to make the score 37-14. Miami then took its next possession and marched 73 yards on eight plays and cut the lead to 37-22 when running back Terry Kirby ran one-yard for the score and a two-point conversion from Marino to McDuffie was good. The Dolphins then attempted an onside kick and safety Michael Stewart recovered at the Buffalo 49-yard line. However, Miami's last threat of the game was stopped when Marino was intercepted by Bills cornerback Ken Irvin at Buffalo's 13-yard line with 1:51 left in the game. McDuffie set a club postseason record (tied with nine others for sixth-highest all-time in NFL postseason) with 11 receptions for 154 yards (a new Dolphin postseason record, surpassing Mark Duper's 148 yards vs. Pittsburgh in 1985).

1997 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

NEW ENGLAND 17, MIAMI 3
DEC. 28, 1997

FOXBORO STADIUM
FOXBORO, MASS.

The New England Patriots recorded their third win of the 1997 season over the Dolphins, and their fourth straight over Miami dating back to 1996, by holding Miami to just a field goal in their 17-3 triumph in a first-round playoff game at Foxboro Stadium. The loss was the Dolphins' third straight in the postseason. New England held Miami to 162 yards of total offense, the lowest total in the 32-game postseason history for the Dolphins, below a 176-yard performance against Washington in Super Bowl XVII. In addition, the three points scored by the Dolphins equalled the fewest points scored by the team in a playoff game with a 24-3 loss to the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl VI. Overall, New England forced three Miami turnovers, while the Patriots did not commit any miscues and 14 of New England's 17 points resulted from a Dolphins turnover. The Patriots sacked Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino four times on the day and Marino was held without a touchdown for the first time in 14 career playoff games. The Dolphins got to the Patriots' 39 late in the first quarter, but were stopped on third and fourth-and-one. The Patriots had an opportunity to take a 3-0 lead early in the second quarter, but Adam Vinatieri missed wide left on a 48-yard field goal attempt. Three plays later, Chris Slade intercepted a Dan Marino pass and returned it 22 yards to the Dolphins' 29. That led to a 24-yard touchdown pass from Drew Bledsoe to Troy Brown three plays afterward, on third-and-five, 4:33 into the second quarter. New England took over at its own 40 with 2:16 left in the first half and drove to the Dolphins' 30 before Vinatieri missed wide right on a 47-yard field goal try with 30 seconds on the clock. On the second play of the second half, Todd Collins picked off a Marino pass and brought it back 40 yards for a touchdown. The Patriots extended their lead to 17 points with 1:58 left in the third quarter when Vinatieri capped a 15-play, 67-yard drive with a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins got their only points of the game nine seconds into the fourth quarter, on an Olindo Mare 38-yard field goal. Miami had gained possession at the Patriots' 43 after a Corey Harris 40-yard kickoff return and a ten-yard tripping penalty on the Patriots. Harris recovered the ensuing onside kick, and the Dolphins took over at their own 44. On the next play, however, Chris Canty stripped the ball from Marino and Slade recovered at the Dolphins' 41. Miami got into New England territory on each of its last two possessions – getting as far as the 45 and 43 – but were stopped on fourth down on each occasion.

1998 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

MIAMI 24, BUFFALO 17 PRO PLAYER STADIUM
JAN. 2, 1999 MIAMI, FLA.

The Dolphins recorded their first playoff win since the 1994 season, snapping a three-game losing streak in the postseason with a 24-17 win in an AFC First-Round Playoff game over the Buffalo Bills at Pro Player Stadium. Doug Flutie connected with Eric Moulds for a 65-yard completion on the game's first play from scrimmage, but Terrell Buckley stripped the ball and Brock Marion returned the fumble 17 yards to the Dolphins' 29-yard line. That led to a 16-play, 57-yard drive which used 8:23 of the clock and ended with an Olindo Mare 31-yard field goal. Miami made it a 6-0 game on Mare's second field goal of the afternoon, from 40 yards out, 4:24 into the second quarter. The score capped an 11-play, 66-yard drive that consumed 6:22 of the clock. Mare attempted an onside kick on the ensuing kickoff that was recovered by the Bills' Dan Brandenburg. Three plays later, Buffalo took its first lead of the game when Thurman Thomas ran it in from one-yard out, two plays after Flutie and Moulds combined for a 37-yard completion to the Dolphins' five-yard line. Buffalo got to the Dolphins' six-yard line with 24 seconds remaining in the first half, but Marion picked off a Flutie pass and returned it 19 yards. A personal foul penalty on the Bills put the Dolphins at their own 35. Dan Marino then completed a 52-yard pass to Oronde Gadsden who then lateraled the ball to O.J. McDuffie, putting the Dolphins at the Bills' nine-yard line. Mare, however, hit the right upright on a 26-yard field goal attempt as time expired in the half. The Dolphins regained the lead at 13-7 on Karim Abdul-Jabbar's three-yard touchdown run with 2:32 left in the third quarter. Abdul-Jabbar rushed for 21 yards on the 52-yard drive, which was accomplished in 12 plays and saw the Dolphins connect on three third down conversions. Stanley Pritchett punched it in for the two-point conversion. Buffalo answered less than two minutes later with a 32-yard touchdown pass from Flutie to Moulds which tied the game at 14 with 48 seconds left in the third quarter. Miami got the ball back and embarked on a 17-play, 77-yard drive that ended with Mare's third field goal of the game, from 23 yards out, 5:15 into the fourth period. Four plays afterward, Jerry Wilson forced the ball loose from Andre Reed after a reception and Terrell Buckley recovered, returning it six yards to midfield. The Dolphins capitalized off that turnover when Marino connected with Lamar Thomas for an 11-yard scoring strike on third-and-seven with 3:32 remaining in the game, capping the eight play drive. The Bills took over at their own 20 and got to the Dolphins' 15-yard line before Steve Christie connected on a 33-yard field goal with 1:33 left in the game. Kurt Schulz recovered the ensuing onside kick for Buffalo, giving them possession at their own 31 with 1:30 to play. The first play of the drive was a 30-yard completion from Flutie to Moulds, putting the Bills at the Dolphins' 39-yard line. From there, Buffalo converted three consecutive third downs, giving them a first-and-goal from the Dolphins' five-yard line with 17 seconds remaining. Trace Armstrong then sacked Flutie, forcing the ball loose, which was recovered by Shane Burton to preserve the victory. Moulds finished the game with an NFL playoff record 240 receiving yards.

1999 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

MIAMI 20, SEATTLE 17 KINGDOME
JAN. 9, 2000 SEATTLE, WASH.

In the last game ever played at the Kingdome, the Dolphins recorded their first road playoff win since 1972 with a 20-17 triumph over the Seattle Seahawks. The Seahawks' second possession of the game started at the Dolphins' 47 after Miami was forced to punt from its own four-yard line. From there, Seattle needed eight plays before Jon Kitna connected with Sean Dawkins for a nine-yard touchdown pass on third-and-three, with 6:18 to play in the first quarter. The score marked the second third-down conversion on the drive for the Seahawks. Kitna and Mike Pritchard hooked up for a pair of completions on the drive, totaling 29 yards. Brock Marion returned the ensuing kickoff 47 yards to midfield. The Dolphins then moved 37 yards in seven plays, leading to an Olindo Mare 32-yard field goal with 2:05 remaining in the opening quarter. The Seahawks re-gained their seven-point advantage with 45 seconds left in the first half on Todd Peterson's 50-yard field goal, which capped an eight-play, 49-yard drive that used 3:45 of the clock. The Dolphins took over at their own 40 on the opening possession of the second half after Peterson's kickoff went out of bounds. Led by Dan Marino, who completed all six of his passes, totaling 56 yards, Miami embarked on a ten-play, 60-yard drive that consumed 6:05 of the clock and ended with a one-yard touchdown pass from Marino to Oronde Gadsden on third-and-goal. The touchdown pass was the 31st for Marino in his playoff career, moving him past Terry Bradshaw into sole possession of second on the NFL's all-time postseason list. The key play on the march was a 27-yard completion from Marino to O.J. McDuffie on third-and-seven from the Seattle 46. Charlie Rogers took the ensuing kickoff and raced 85 yards for a touchdown to give Seattle the lead once again. The Dolphins pulled to within four points on Mare's 50-yard field goal with 2:22 to play in the third quarter, culminating a six-play, 32-yard drive in which Autry Denson rushed for 25 yards. The ensuing onside kick was recovered by Miami's Shawn Wooden, and the Dolphins took over at their own 42. Although they could not take advantage of that opportunity, Tom Hutton's punt that followed pinned Seattle at their own six. Down by four points with 9:09 to play, Miami gained possession at their own 15. On the third play of the series, they faced a third-and-17 from their own 8 when Marino hit Tony Martin for a 23-yard completion. From there, Miami marched the length of the field in just eight more plays, the final one being a two-yard TD run by J.J. Johnson with 4:48 to play in the game. Two plays prior to the score Marino connected with Gadsden for a 24-yard completion on third-and-10 from the Seahawks 29, giving them a first-and-goal from the 5. Seattle went three and out on their next series, and a Terrell Buckley interception with 23 seconds remaining ended any Seattle comeback hopes. The Dolphins dominated the second half of the game, as they gained 230 yards while holding Seattle to just 32 yards over the final 30 minutes of the game. Miami registered a club playoff record six sacks on the afternoon, including three by Trace Armstrong, who was named NFL Defensive Player of the Week for the Wild Card Round of the playoffs.

The Dolphins allowed the most points in club history and suffered their worst defeat ever as well. The Jaguars took a 7-0 lead on an eight-yard touchdown pass from Mark Brunell to Jimmy Smith on the first series of the game, 4:28 into the contest. 2000 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

MIAMI 23, INDIANAPOLIS 17 (OT) — PRO PLAYER STADIUM
DEC. 30, 2000 — MIAMI, FLA.

The Miami Dolphins recorded the second-largest comeback win in team playoff history as they rallied from a 14-0 halftime deficit to earn a 23-17 overtime win against the Indianapolis Colts at Pro Player Stadium. The Dolphins faced a fourth-and-six from the Colts' 39 on their first possession of the game, but could not convert. The Colts took over and marched 47 yards in seven plays, en route to a Mike Vanderjagt 32-yard field goal. The Dolphins made it to the Colts' 33 late in the first quarter, but on third-and-14, Chad Cota intercepted a Jay Fiedler pass in the end zone. Vanderjagt lined up to attempt his second field goal in as many series, but the run by holder Hunter Smith on the fake was short of the first down. On the next play from scrimmage, Chad Bratzke intercepted a Fiedler pass and returned it four yards to the Dolphins' 25. That led to a seven-play, 17-yard drive that culminated with a Vanderjagt 26-yard field goal. Fiedler suffered his third interception in as many series three plays later when Cota picked off his second pass of the day, giving the Colts the ball at the Dolphins' 18. Two plays later, Peyton Manning connected with Jerome Pathon for a 17-yard score. That was followed by a Manning to Ken Dilger pass for the two-point conversion. The Dolphins had a chance to put their first points on the board with 31 seconds left in the first half, but Olindo Mare missed wide right on a 38-yard field goal attempt. The Dolphins opened the second half with a two-yard scoring run by Lamar Smith, 6:51 into the half. The Dolphins cut the lead to four points 4:37 into the fourth quarter on a 38-yard field goal by Mare, which capped a nine-play, 53-yard drive. The Colts answered with a nine-play, 45-yard march which ended with a Vanderjagt 50-yard field goal. The Dolphins took over at their own 20 with 4:55 to play in the game, and marched the length of the field in 14 plays towards the game-tying score, a nine-yard touchdown pass from Fiedler to Jed Weaver on third-and-goal, with 34 seconds remaining in the game. Fiedler threw for 52 yards on the drive, as he completed six of 10 passes while also rushing three times for 15 yards. The Colts got into field goal position 5:44 into the overtime period, but Vanderjagt missed wide right on a 49-yard field goal attempt. The Dolphins took over at their own 39, and on the third play from scrimmage, they got into Colts territory at the 48 on a six-yard completion from Fiedler to Jeff Ogden on third-and-three. Eight plays later, Smith gave the Dolphins their third straight victory in the first round of the playoffs on a 17-yard touchdown run with 3:34 left in overtime. Smith's 40 attempts represented a new NFL playoff single-game best. His yardage figure was the second-most ever in an NFL postseason contest.

2001 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

BALTIMORE 20, MIAMI 3
JAN. 13, 2002

PRO PLAYER STADIUM
MIAMI, FLA.

The Dolphins dropped their first home playoff game since January 17, 1993, snapping a three-game home playoff win streak. Twan Russell stripped the ball from Jermaine Lewis on the game's opening kickoff and Tommy Hendricks recovered at the Ravens' 24-yard line, leading to an Olindo Mare 33-yard field goal four plays later. The score remained that way until the third play of the second quarter when Terry Allen scored on a four-yard run, culminating a 17-play, 90-yard drive in which Baltimore ran the ball 12 times totaling 61 yards, led by Allen, who rushed for 27 yards on four carries. With just more than a minute remaining in the first half, Jamie Sharper recovered a Travis Minor fumble at the Dolphins' 41-yard line. The Ravens were unable to capitalize, however, as Matt Stover's 40-yard field goal attempt as time expired hit the left upright. Baltimore extended its lead to 11 points with 1:20 to play in the third quarter when Elvis Grabc hit Travis Taylor in the end zone for a four-yard touchdown pass on third-and-goal, capping an 11-play, 99-yard drive. The key play was a 45-yard completion from Grbac to Taylor on third-and-one from the Ravens' 10-yard line. Peter Boulware stripped the ball from Jay Fiedler on a sack on the third play of the fourth quarter, and Boulware recovered at the Dolphins' 37-yard line. That resulted in a Matt Stover 35-yard field goal six plays afterward. Stover added his second field goal in as many series with a 40-yarder with 2:01 to play in the game. That three-pointer came 11 plays after a Duane Starks interception after the Dolphins had made it to the Ravens' 42-yard line. Baltimore rushed for 49 yards on eight attempts on the scoring drive.

2016 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF

PITTSBURGH 30, MIAMI 12 HEINZ FIELD
JAN. 8, 2017 PITTSBURGH, PA.

he Dolphins' magical 2016 season came to a disappointing end. The Dolphins quickly fell behind 14-0 and could never recover in a 30-12 loss against the Pittsburgh Steelers in a first-round playoff game at Heinz Field. Antonio Brown and Le'Veon Bell each scored two touchdowns for the Steelers, who racked up 219 yards of offense in the first quarter alone. Brown ended Pittsburgh's first two possessions with touchdown catches of 50 and 69 yards. Bell set a Steelers postseason record with 169 rushing yards. Damien Williams scored the Dolphins' only touchdown on a 4-yard reception with 5:57 left in regulation. Andrew Franks kicked two first-half field goals. The Dolphins committed turnovers on three consecutive possessions, spanning the second and third quarters, the last of which led to Bell's second touchdown after cornerback Tony Lippett tried to time a jump over the center to block a field goal attempt but instead was offside to give Pittsburgh a first down. Matt Moore, making his fourth consecutive start in place of an injured Ryan Tannehill, completed 29 of 36 passes for 289 yards and one touchdown, but he lost two fumbles and threw an interception. Moore also was sacked five times after being sacked only once in his three starts in the regular season. He left the game for one play in the second quarter after taking a big hit from linebacker Bud Dupree that drew a roughing-the-passer penalty but returned to finish the game. After burning the Steelers for 204 rushing yards in the Dolphins' 30-15 victory at Hard Rock Stadium on Oct. 16, Jay Ajayi was held to only 33 yards on 16 rushing attempts Sunday before leaving the game with a shoulder injury late in the fourth quarter.

DOLPHINS IN THE HALL OF FAME

DON SHULA

INDUCTED: 1997 // BORN: 1/4/30 // COLLEGE: JOHN CARROLL
PLAYER: 1951-57 // ASSISTANT COACH: 1960-62
HEAD COACH: 1963-95 // DOLPHINS HEAD COACH: 1970-95
PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: DAVID AND MIKE SHULA

On July 26, 1997, Don Shula capped an illustrious career when he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, following his election into that shrine on Jan. 25, 1997, his first year of eligibility. Shula's unanimous election to the Hall was the ultimate honor in a career full of record-setting accomplishments.

For the past 24 years, Shula has served as Vice Chairman of the Miami Dolphins, having been named to that position on Jan. 5, 1996. This year marks his 50th season with the Dolphins, a tenure that started when he was named head coach of the club in 1970. He was enshrined on the Dolphins Honor Roll at Hard Rock Stadium on Nov. 25, 1996, and was inducted in the Dolphins Walk of Fame on Dec. 4, 2011.

Shula's record as head coach of the Dolphins (1970-95) and before that as head coach of the Baltimore Colts (1963-69) is unmatched in National Football League history. In 1995, he concluded his 33rd season as an NFL head coach and his 26th season as head coach of the Dolphins. He owns a career record of 347-173-6 (.665), including a regular season mark of 328-156-6 (.676), and is the winningest coach in NFL history. On Nov. 14, 1993 in Philadelphia, when the Dolphins defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 19-14, Shula won his 325th career game, moving him past the immortal George Halas (324-151-31) and setting an NFL record for most career victories, a mark once thought to be unreachable. Shula's 328 regular season wins also is an NFL record, surpassing Halas' former NFL mark of 318 regular season victories. Shula and Halas are the only NFL coaches to win 300 or more career games, as Shula recorded his 300th career win on September 22, 1991, with a 16-13 triumph over Green Bay in just his 29th year as an NFL head coach, as compared to 36 seasons for Halas to accomplish that feat.

In addition, Shula won Super Bowl titles in 1972 and 1973, one of only six coaches in NFL history to win consecutive Super Bowls. His 1972 team went 17-0, recording the only undefeated season in NFL annals. He is one of only two coaches (along with New England's Bill Belichick) to appear in six or more Super Bowls, and is one of only two coaches (along with Buffalo's Marv Levy) to reach the Super Bowl three straight seasons (1971-73). He also advanced to the Super Bowl with the Dolphins in 1982 and 1984, as well as in 1968 as head coach of the Baltimore Colts.

A remarkable 20 times in 33 seasons, Shula's teams reached the playoffs. His teams won at least 10 games 21 times in those 33 years, and he suffered only two losing seasons (6-8 in 1976 and 6-10 in 1988) in that span. He averaged more than 10 wins per season in his career (347 wins in 33 years as a head coach), and he was the youngest coach to win 100, 200 and 300 games.

During Shula's tenure with the Dolphins, from the time he replaced George Wilson on Feb. 18, 1970 to become the franchise's second-ever head coach through his final season in 1995, his winning percentage of .658 (257-133-2) during that time was the best record in all of professional sports. The Dolphins either won or shared first place in the AFC East 15 times in the 26 years under Shula, and reached the playoffs 16 times. His ultimate achievement was the NFL's only unbeaten, untied record of 17-0 in 1972, capped by a 14-7 win over the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl VII. He won a second consecutive Super Bowl title in 1973, defeating the Minnesota Vikings 24-7 in Super Bowl VIII, and compiled an overall record of 32-2 in those back-to-back seasons, a two-year mark that has yet to be surpassed.

Before joining the Dolphins, Shula spent seven years (1963-69) as head coach of the Colts. In that span he compiled a record of 73-26-4 (.728) and advanced to the playoffs four times, including two appearances in the NFL Championship Game, in 1964 and 1968 after 12-2 and 13-1 campaigns, respectively. He became the youngest head coach (33 years old) in the history of the NFL when he was named the Colts' head coach in 1963.

Shula succeeded Weeb Ewbank as head coach in Baltimore after serving three years (1960-62) as defensive coordinator of the Detroit Lions, with the team going 26-13-1 in that period. Shula entered the coaching ranks with an assistant's job at Virginia (1958) and Kentucky (1959) before joining the Lions.

Shula broke into the NFL as the lone rookie on Coach Paul Brown's defending NFL champion Cleveland

Browns in 1951. He was involved in the largest trade in modern NFL history, a 15-player deal with Baltimore in 1953, and Shula played four seasons with the Colts (1953-56) and one season at Washington (1957) at right cornerback. He had 21 career interceptions for 247 yards in seven seasons. In college, he was a running back at John Carroll University in Cleveland, and in 1950 he gained 125 yards when the Blue Streaks upset Syracuse, 21-15.

Shula also contributed to the growth of the NFL off the field by serving from 1975 though 1995 (including the last two years in that span as co-chairman along with George Young of the New York Giants) on the league's influential Competition Committee, which evaluates and recommends changes in playing rules to make the game more open and exciting, and to improve player safety.

In addition to his own election to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Shula was selected to present five other members for induction into the Hall (Larry Csonka, Bob Griese, Jim Langer, Larry Little and Dwight Stephenson), including two (Csonka and Langer) on the same day. Shula is one of three individuals (along with Al Davis and Edward DeBartolo) to present five or more inductees into the Hall.

Shula was further honored on Jan. 31, 2010, when NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell announced the establishment of a new league award – "The Don Shula NFL High School Coach of the Year Award" – which honors high school football coaches that display the integrity, achievement and leadership that Coach Shula exemplified throughout his NFL career. The Don Shula Award winner is recognized at the Super Bowl and receives $10,000 and his high school football program is awarded $15,000.

In addition, on that same day the Dolphins unveiled the "Perfect Moment in Time" statue in honor of Coach Shula. The 10-foot sculpture depicts Coach Shula raised upon the shoulders of two players, Nick Buoniconti and Al Jenkins, and captures the perfect moment in time immediately after the Dolphins completed their undefeated season in 1972. The statue adorns the entrance of the Dolphins' corporate headquarters at Hard Rock Stadium, and that office bears the address of "347 Don Shula Drive" to reflect the total number of victories Shula amassed during his career.

Along with his football responsibilities, Shula always has given considerable time, plus financial and emotional support, to many area charities. The Don Shula Foundation, formed primarily to assist breast cancer research, was established as a tribute to his late wife, Dorothy. Shula also has been active in the American Cancer Society, March of Dimes, American Red Cross, the United Way and Catholic Charities.

A member of the Class of 1951 at John Carroll, Shula helps fund a $1 million chair in the University's Department of Philosophy. On September 27, 2003, John Carroll University showed its appreciation for Shula's support of the school by naming its new stadium Don Shula Stadium. Shula also has received honorary doctorate degrees from John Carroll, St. Thomas University, the University of Miami and Florida Atlantic University.

Because of his success on the football field and his long-time civic and charitable service, Shula has received countless prestigious awards recognizing his contributions, including the 1993 Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year Award and the 1994 Horatio Alger Award. In addition, along with Ken Blanchard, in 1995 Shula co-authored "Everyone's A Coach," a highly acclaimed book that outlines the application of their managerial philosophies for business and personal success. Shula personifies those business principles himself, serving as an equity partner in two highly successful undertakings, Shula Enterprises, Inc. along with Don Shula's Steakhouse, LLLP. At age 82, Shula started a hamburger chain, "Shula Burger," and has opened 10 stores in the past four years under that umbrella.

Shula's oldest son, David, 60, and his wife, Leslie, have three sons, Danny, Christopher and Matthew. David served as the head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals from 1992-96, and when Don Shula's Dolphins played David Shula's Bengals on October 2, 1994 and October 1, 1995, both at Cincinnati's Riverfront Stadium, it marked the only two times in the history of professional sports that a father and son faced each other as head coaches. David currently is an assistant coach at Dartmouth. His son, Chris, is an assistant linebackers coach for the Los Angeles Rams, becoming a third-generation Shula to coach in the NFL, following his father and grandfather.

Shula's other son, Mike, 54, currently is in his first season as offensive coordinator for the New York Giants. He spent the previous seven years with the Carolina Panthers as the team's offensive coordinator (2013-17) and quarterbacks coach (2011-12). He joined the Panthers after serving four years as the QB coach of the Jacksonville Jaguars (2007-10). He spent four seasons (2003-06) as the head coach at the University of Alabama and led the Crimson Tide to a Cotton Bowl win and a 10-2 record in 2005. He had rejoined the Dolphins' staff as quarterbacks coach in 2000 after serving the four previous seasons as the offensive coordinator of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers; he also spent the 1991-92 seasons as a coaches' assistant under his father in Miami. Mike and his wife, Shari, have three daughters, Samantha, Brooke and Ryan.

Mike and David Shula presented their father for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1997, becoming the first pair ever to present a Hall of Famer for induction.

Shula's oldest daughter, Donna, has five children, Alex, Lindsey, Tyler, and twins Calvin and Carly. Another daughter, Sharon, resides in New York, while youngest daughter, Annie, lives and works in Broward County.

Shula and his wife, Mary Anne, who serves as Chairman of the Board for Shula Steak Houses, LLLP, reside in Miami Beach and continue to be very active in charitable and community affairs. They visited U.S. soldiers stationed in Iraq and Afghanistan as part of a USO tour to raise troop morale. They were married on Oct. 15, 1993, and their family together now includes eight children, 16 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

DON SHULA'S MILESTONES

Don Shula passed the immortal George Halas to become the winningest coach in NFL history when he registered victory number 325 in Miami's 19-14 win at Philadelphia on Nov. 14, 1993. Shula concluded coaching with a career record of 347-173-6 (.665). On Dec. 25, 1994, in Miami's 27-20 win over Detroit, Shula won the 319th regular season game of his career and broke the NFL record for most regular season coaching wins by Halas (318 wins). Shula owned a 328-156-6 (.676) regular season record. In 1991, Shula joined Halas (324 wins) as the only NFL coaches with 300 or more career wins. Shula accomplished his milestone 300th career win with a 16-13 triumph over the Green Bay Packers on Sept. 22, 1991. Shula won the 300th regular-season game of his coaching career with a 16-13 overtime win at New England on Dec. 27, 1992.

Shula added another historic career milestone in Miami's 30-7 win over the Buffalo Bills on Sept. 16, 1990, as he recorded his 200th regular season victory since joining the Dolphins in 1970. Shula joined Hall of Fame coaches Curly Lambeau (Green Bay), George Halas (Chicago) and Tom Landry (Dallas) as the only NFL coaches to earn 200 or more regular season wins with one NFL club.

85 NICK BUONICONTI

LINEBACKER
INDUCTED: 2001 // BORN: 1/15/40 // COLLEGE: NOTRE DAME '62
NFL: 1962-76 // DOLPHINS: 1969-76
PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: MARC BUONICONTI

Nick Buoniconti, the driving force of the Dolphins' famed "No-Name Defense," inspired his teammates with his outstanding play and fiery leadership. During his seven years with the Dolphins, the team advanced to three straight Super Bowls (1971-73) and won twice (1972, 1973), with one of those wins coming after their unparalleled undefeated season in 1972. Buoniconti was only 5-11 and 220 pounds and was considered to be too small to play middle linebacker. However, as many coaches noted, he always "played bigger than his size" during a stellar 14-year career with the Dolphins and the Boston Patriots.

Until Jason Taylor was elected in 2017, Buoniconti was the only member of the Dolphins defense to be elected to the Hall of Fame. He joined the team in 1969 after playing seven seasons with the Patriots. During his tenure with the Dolphins, he was honored as the team's Most Valuable Player three times (1969, 1970, 1973), named to the AFL All-Star game in 1969 and was selected to two Pro Bowls (1973, 1974) following the merger of the two leagues. In 1990, he was voted as a linebacker on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on Nov. 18, 1991, he was enshrined on the Dolphins Honor Roll at Hard Rock Stadium. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on Dec. 4, 2011 and was voted as one of the Dolphins' all-time top 50 players, as part of the franchise's 50th season celebration in 2015.

Before joining the Dolphins, Buoniconti helped the Patriots capture the 1963 AFL Eastern Division title, and he played in five AFL All-Star games. Overall in his 14-year career, he played in 183 games and recorded 32 career interceptions. He was named to the All-Time AFL team in 1970, and overall was named a first team All-AFL/AFC choice eight times.

A native of Springfield, Massachusetts, Buoniconti had an outstanding collegiate career at Notre Dame. Following his retirement from the Dolphins, he and his son, Marc, were the driving forces behind the establishment of the Miami Project to Cure Paralysis, one of the world's leading research and treatment centers for spinal cord injuries.

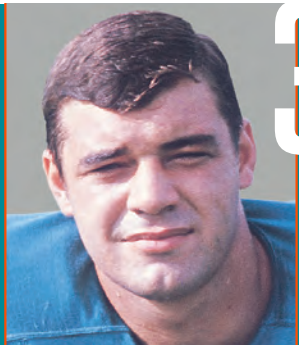

Buoniconti was elected to the Hall of Fame in 2001 after being named for the first time that year as a nominee from the pre-1976 era by the Hall's Seniors Committee.

Larry Csonka ranks as the Dolphins' all-time leading rusher with 1,506 carries for 6,737 yards (4.5 avg.) and 53 touchdowns. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, he put together three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (1971-73) as Miami advanced to the Super Bowl each year. Csonka shined in those three Super Bowls, averaging 6.3 yards a carry and going over 100 yards rushing in two of them. Originally drafted in the first round out of Syracuse in 1968, he was named the MVP of Super Bowl VIII after carrying 33 times for 145 yards (4.4 avg.) and two touchdowns as the Dolphins steamrolled the Minnesota Vikings, 24-7, for their second straight NFL title. Called a "modern-day Bronko Nagurski" by Dolphins Coach Don Shula, "Zonk" also played three seasons with the N.Y. Giants (1976-78) and one year with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975). His career rushing totals in the NFL when he retired following the 1979 season are: 1,891 carries for 8,081 yards (4.3 avg.) and 64 touchdowns. At the time of his retirement, he ranked No. 5 in NFL history for most total rushing attempts and sixth for most career rushing yards and rushing touchdowns. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his second year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted the fullback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team and was named as a running back on the Super Bowl Silver Anniversary all-time team. On Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphins Honor Roll at Hard Rock Stadium. Csonka was further honored when his number 39 was retired by the team during halftime ceremonies on Dec. 9, 2002, becoming the third Dolphin to have his number retired. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on Dec. 4, 2011 and was voted as one of the Dolphins' all-time top 50 players, as part of the franchise's 50th season celebration in 2015.

12 BOB GRIESE

QUARTERBACK
INDUCTED: 1990 // BORN: 2/3/45 // COLLEGE: PURDUE '67
NFL: 1967-80 // DOLPHINS: 1967-80
PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: DON SHULA

He was unquestionably the "thinking man's quarterback." Bob Griese, renowned for his poised leadership and ingenious play-calling, sustained the Dolphins offense with a flair for winning from 1967-80.

The bespectacled quarterback became the 14th passer in the NFL's 25,000-yard club in 1980. On the same day he reached that milestone, he suffered a shoulder injury which ultimately forced his retirement on June 25, 1981. His No. 12 jersey became the first in Dolphins history to be retired, on May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the team's annual awards banquet. In 1990 he was also voted the quarterback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphins Honor Roll at Hard Rock Stadium. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on Dec. 4, 2011. On June 16, 2015, a street next to Griese's high school stadium in Evansville, Indiana, was re-named "Bob Griese Pass" in his honor. And in 2015, he was voted as one of the Dolphins' all-time top 50 players, as part of the franchise's 50th season celebration.

Including playoffs, he had a .681 winning percentage (88-41-1) under Coach Don Shula. "Cornerstone of the franchise," Dolphins founder Joe Robbie called him. He was a consensus All-Pro quarterback in 1971 and 1977, made six appearances in the Pro Bowl and was voted the team's Most Valuable Player six times by South Florida media.

After becoming eligible for induction into the Hall of Fame in 1985, Griese was named as a finalist all five years before being elected to the Hall of Fame in 1990.

"He's probably the most unselfish guy I've ever been around," Shula said. "He got as much of a thrill calling the right running play for a touchdown as he did connecting on a bomb. That's just his makeup."

62 JIM LANGER

CENTER
INDUCTED: 1987 // BORN: 5/16/48 // COLLEGE: SOUTH DAKOTA STATE '70
NFL: 1970-81 // DOLPHINS: 1970-79
PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: DON SHULA

Jim Langer was the anchor of the Miami offensive line during the Dolphins' championship years of the 1970s. Coming out of South Dakota State in 1970, he was signed as a free agent by Cleveland but was released on the final cut. Langer was picked up on waivers by the Dolphins and, after spending most of the year on the taxi squad, played in the final five games of 1970, mainly on special teams. After serving as a backup at center the following season, he won the starting job in 1972, which he would hold until sidelined with a knee injury in 1979. A consensus All-Pro from 1973-77, Langer was a six-time Pro Bowl selection (five times as a starter). Over a 10-year period from 1970-79, he played in 128 straight games. He also made 109 consecutive starts between 1972-79. Voted the team's Most Valuable Player by South Florida media in 1975, Langer also holds the distinction of having played every offensive down in the Dolphins' perfect 1972 season. Wanting to spend the final years of his career near his Royalton, Minn. home, at his own request, Langer was traded to the Minnesota Vikings in 1980, where he played for two seasons (1980-81). He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In addition, on Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphins Honor Roll at Hard Rock Stadium. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on Dec. 4, 2011 and was voted as one of the Dolphins' all-time top 50 players, as part of the franchise's 50th season celebration in 2015.

GUARD
INDUCTED: 1993 // BORN: 11/2/45 // COLLEGE: BETHUNE COOKMAN '67
NFL: 1969-80 // DOLPHINS: 1969-80
PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: DON SHULA

A rumbling giant in the Dolphins' trenches for 12 seasons, Larry Little's very presence in leading a sweep was an intimidating force in a Miami running attack which led the NFL during the 1970s at 2,372 yards per season. Coming out of Bethune-Cookman in 1967, Little entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the San Diego Chargers for a $750 bonus. He was traded to the Dolphins on July 2, 1969, in exchange for Miami cornerback Mack Lamb, a former high school teammate. After having started just four games during his two seasons with the Chargers, Little emerged with the Dolphins and played in 158 regular season games with 152 starting assignments. He also started 12 playoff games for Miami and was a key ingredient of the Dolphins' back-to-back Super Bowl championship teams of 1972 and '73. Little earned All-Pro honors six times (1971-75 and 1977) and was a Pro Bowl selection on four occasions (1971-74). He was the first player in league history to be named as AFC Offensive Lineman of the Year three straight seasons (1970-72) by the NFL Players' Association. Little, who anchored the offensive line which helped set a then-NFL record with 2,960 rushing yards during the Dolphins' "perfect season" in 1972, was named by the National 1,000-Yard Club as the league's Outstanding Blocker for the '72 campaign. A native Floridian, Little was the first Dolphins player inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame, on March 6, 1978. In 1990, he was voted as a guard on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team. Little was elected into the Hall of Fame in his eighth year of eligibility after having been a finalist on three occasions. On Dec. 13, 1993, he was enshrined on the Dolphins Honor Roll at Hard Rock Stadium and was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on Dec. 4, 2011. He was voted as one of the Dolphins' all-time top 50 players, as part of the franchise's 50th season celebration in 2015.

Dwight Stephenson spent his entire career with the Dolphins, and was considered by many to be the "best at his position ever" in the NFL. He was selected to five straight Pro Bowls (1983-87), and earned starting honors in four of those contests (1983-86). His four Pro Bowl starts is tied for the fourth-most in team history. Stephenson anchored an offensive line which allowed the fewest sacks in the NFL each of his seasons as a starter and enabled Miami quarterback Dan Marino to set numerous passing records. His playing career ended prematurely after suffering torn anterior cruciate and lateral colateral ligaments in his left knee against the New York Jets on Dec. 7, 1987, when he was hit unexpectedly by Marty Lyons on a New York fumble return. Stephenson's greatest honor during his playing days came in 1985 when he was selected as the Miller Lite/NFL Man of the Year for his work in charity and community projects, the first Dolphin to win that award. Stephenson also served as an assistant offensive line coach on Don Shula's Dolphins staff in 1992. Before joining the Dolphins as a second-round draft choice in 1980, he had an outstanding college career at Alabama, where he was called "the greatest center I have ever coached" by the late Paul "Bear" Bryant. He was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in his sixth year of eligibility after having been a finalist on five occasions. In 1990, he also was voted as the center on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on Dec. 12, 1994, he was enshrined on the Dolphins Honor Roll at Hard Rock Stadium. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on Dec. 4, 2011 and was voted as one of the Dolphins' all-time top 50 players, as part of the franchise's 50th season celebration in 2015.

PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: GENE SLAUGHTER

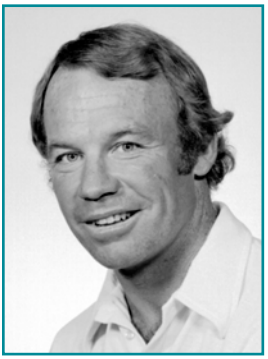

Paul Warfield sandwiched two stints with the Cleveland Browns (1964-69 and 1976-77) around a five-year career with the Dolphins. After spending his first six seasons in the NFL with the Browns, Warfield was acquired by Miami in January of 1970 in exchange for a first-round pick in the upcoming draft. In his five seasons with the Dolphins, Warfield had 156 receptions for 3,355 yards (21.5 avg.) and 33 touchdowns. When he left Miami following the 1974 season, Warfield ranked first on the team's career receiving yards and receiving touchdowns lists, while he was third on the Dolphins all-time record list for receptions. His 21.5 average per reception is still the highest in Miami history. His career receiving totals in the NFL are 427 receptions for 8,565 yards (20.1 avg.) and 85 touchdowns. At the time of his retirement following the 1977 season, Warfield's career catches were tied for the 17th most in NFL history, his career receiving yards were the sixth-most and his 85 touchdown catches were tied for the third-highest total in the league's history. A member of both the '72 and '73 Super Bowl championship teams, he was selected to play in the Pro Bowl all five years he was with the Dolphins (once as a starter), in addition to being named to three Pro Bowl squads with the Browns. Warfield, one of two Dolphins (along with Mark Ingram) in the team's history to score four touchdowns in one game, also played one season with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975) before finishing his career with Cleveland. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted as a wide receiver on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphins Honor Roll at Hard Rock Stadium. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on Dec. 4, 2011 and was voted as one of the Dolphins' all-time top 50 players, as part of the franchise's 50th season celebration in 2015.

CRIS CARTER

WIDE RECEIVER YEAR INDUCTED: 2013
NFL CAREER: 1987-2002 DOLPHINS: 2002
PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: DURON CARTER

A fourth-round pick of the Philadelphia Eagles in the 1987 Supplemental Draft, Cris Carter developed into one of the most prolific receivers in the NFL. He spent his first three seasons as a member of the Eagles (1987-1989) and then played with the Minnesota Vikings for 12 years (1990-2001), where he helped re-write the team's record book.

Carter finished his NFL career as a member of the Miami Dolphins, coming out of retirement to sign with Miami as a free agent on Oct. 21, 2002. He remained on the team's roster until the conclusion of the season, playing in five games with the Dolphins, including one start, and recorded eight catches for 66 yards (8.3 avg.) and one touchdown. He also was inactive for four games during that span due to a kidney injury.

Carter's career regular season totals include 1,101 receptions for 13,899 yards (12.6 avg.) and 130 touchdowns. At the time of his retirement, Carter ranked No. 2 in NFL history in receptions and receiving touchdowns (behind Jerry Rice) and was fourth in reception yardage. During his tenure in Minnesota, he led the Vikings in receptions for 10 straight years, recorded eight straight 1,000-yard seasons and also earned eight consecutive Pro Bowl berths. In 1994, Carter set a then-NFL record for receptions in a season when he hauled in 122 passes for 1,256 yards (10.3 avg.) and scored seven touchdowns. A year later in 1995 he registered his second straight 122-catch season and amassed a career-high 1,371 yards (11.2 avg.) and 17 touchdowns. His two-year total of 244 catches was the most in NFL history. He was named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s, and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2013.

An Ohio native, he played collegiately at Ohio State.

BILL PARCELLS

COACH/EXECUTIVE YEAR INDUCTED: 2013
NFL CAREER: 1983-90, 1993-99, 2003-06, 2008-10 DOLPHINS: 2008-10
PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: GEORGE MARTIN

Bill Parcells served the Miami Dolphins in an executive capacity, but he is best known for his success as a head coach in the NFL. In his 19 years as a head coach in the league, he experienced just five losing seasons. Four times he took struggling teams and turned them into winners. He won two Super Bowls, and his teams finished in either first or second place in their division 11 times.

Parcells spent almost three full seasons (2008-10) as the Executive Vice President of Football Operations of the Dolphins. He had an immediate impact, inheriting a 1-15 team and turning them around his first year, leading the Dolphins to an 11-5 record in 2008 along with the AFC East title and a playoff berth. The team's 10-game turnaround was tied for the biggest improvement in NFL history.

Parcells had the most success as head coach of the New York Giants. He took over that position in 1983, inheriting a Giants team that had just one winning season in its previous 10 years. After a 3-12-1 season in his first year, the Giants made the postseason as a wild-card team the next two years. In 1986, however, the Giants finished 14-2 and capped the year with a victory over the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXI. And in 1990 the team captured its second Lombardi Trophy with a dramatic 20-19 victory over the Buffalo Bills in Super Bowl XXV. Parcells took over as head coach of the New England Patriots, and in 1996 he led them to a berth in Super Bowl XXXI. After that he moved to the New York Jets, and in 1998 he guided them to a 12-4 record and advanced to the AFC championship game. His final stint as a head coach in the NFL came with the Dallas Cowboys from 2003-06. He led the team to playoff appearances twice during that tenure.

Overall Parcells spent 26 seasons as a coach and executive in the NFL. He compiled an overall coaching record of 172-130-1 in the regular season and 11-8 in the playoffs. He was named NFL Coach of the Year in 1986 and 1994 and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2013.

JUNIOR SEAU

LINEBACKER YEAR INDUCTED: 2015
NFL CAREER: 1990-2009 DOLPHINS: 2003-05
PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: SYDNEY SEAU

Junior Seau played three years (2003-05) as a linebacker for the Dolphins, but is best known as a perennial Pro Bowl performer for 13 seasons with the San Diego Chargers and also spent his last four years in the NFL as a member of the New England Patriots. During his 20-year career, he recorded 56.5 sacks along with 18 interceptions and was known for his leadership and his passionate style of play.

Seau was acquired by the Dolphins on April 16, 2003 from the Chargers in exchange for a 2004 fifth-round draft choice. During his tenure in Miami, Seau teamed with Jason Taylor, Zach Thomas and others to form the nucleus of one the strongest defensive units in the NFL. In 2003, his first season with the Dolphins, he started 15 games and finished second on the team with 133 tackles, the ninth time in his career he recorded 100 or more tackles in a season. He also added three sacks. He proved to be a key addition to a defense that allowed only 90.8 yards rushing per game, the fifth-best mark in the NFL, as the Dolphins became the only team in the league not to permit an individual 100-yard rusher. In 2004 he started the first eight games of the season, recording 68 tackles and a sack before being placed on injured reserve with a torn right pectoral muscle he injured on Nov. 1 at the New York Jets. At the time of the injury he was averaging eight tackles a game and ranked second on the team in tackles. Limited by injuries in 2005, Seau only played in seven games with the Dolphins (including five starts) and had 43 tackles and one sack before being placed on injured reserve on Nov. 24 with an Achilles tendon injury. He was released by Miami on March 6, 2006. In two of his three years with the Dolphins (2003-04) his teammates voted him the recipient of the Don Shula Leadership Award.

During his 13 years in San Diego (1990-2002), Seau was voted to 12 consecutive Pro Bowls, becoming just the fourth player since 1970 to be selected 10 or more straight times to the Pro Bowl. He recorded 100 or more tackles in eight of his seasons in San Diego and was selected the Chargers' Most Valuable Player six times. He was named the NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1992 by UPI and also was named to the All-Decade Team of the 1990s by the Pro Football Hall of Fame. In 1994 he led the Chargers to a berth in Super Bowl XXIX, the franchise's only Super Bowl appearance, and in the AFC Championship Game that season against the Pittsburgh Steelers he recorded 16 tackles despite playing with a pinched nerve in his neck. That same year he was named the NFL Man of the Year for his philanthropic efforts, and he was a constant and active contributor to his community throughout his career.

Following his tenure in Miami, Seau spent his final four seasons (2006-09) in the league with the New England Patriots. In 2007, he recorded 74 tackles and 3.5 while playing in all 16 games for Patriots' AFC Championship team that went undefeated in the regular season before losing to the New York Giants in Super Bowl XLII. Seau retired following his final season with the Patriots in 2009, and he died on May 2, 2012 in San Diego at the age of 43. He was elected to the Hall of Fame on Jan. 31, 2015 in his first year of eligibility.

A native of San Diego, Seau played collegiately at the University of Southern California (USC).

THREE DOLPHINS NAMED NFL MAN OF THE YEAR

The NFL's Man of the Year award is the highest off-the-field honor attainable by an NFL player. It recognizes players for their excellence both on the field and in their communities.

Center Dwight Stephenson (1985), quarterback Dan Marino (1998) and defensive end Jason Taylor (2007) have each won the award while playing for the Dolphins. Miami is one of only eight teams to have three or more of its players receive the honor since it was instituted by the league in 1970. Kansas City and Chicago have had five players win the award, Pittsburgh and San Diego both have had four players, while Miami, Cincinnati, Dallas and Philadelphia each boast three award winners.

DOLPHINS FATHER-SON COMBINATIONS

There have been three father-son coaching tandems in Dolphins history. The most recent was offensive line coach Jeremiah Washburn, who coached alongside his father, Jim Washburn, in 2016. The elder Washburn served as senior defensive assistant/pass rush specialist in 2016. Earlier, both Dave Shula (1982-88) and Mike Shula (1991-92, 2000-02) coached under their father, Don.

In 2005, DT Randy Crowder (1974-76) and LB Channing Crowder (2005-10) became the third father-son combination to play for the Dolphins in franchise history. They joined the Barbers, which included linebacker Rudy (1968) and fullback Kantroy (1999), and the Grieses, which consisted of Bob (1967-80) and Brian (2003), both quarterbacks. The Crowders were the first father-son tandem to both be drafted by the Dolphins, as Randy was taken in the sixth round in 1974 and Channing was selected in the third round in 2005. In addition, quarterback George Wilson, Jr., played with the Dolphins in 1966 under his father, George, Sr., who was the team's head coach.

DOLPHINS ON THE AIR

DOLPHINS RADIO NETWORK

On May 19, 2016, the Miami Dolphins announced a multi-year radio broadcast rights partnership with Miami's Sportsradio 560 WQAM, with the station becoming the official English flagship radio partner of the franchise. In addition, all Dolphins games are simulcast on KISS 99.9 FM "South Florida's NEW Country" and feature expanded pre-, halftime and postgame shows. The games also can be heard on Dolphins.com and throughout South and Central Florida on a variety of stations that make up the Miami Dolphins Radio Network.

The Dolphins previously had their games broadcast on Miami's Sportsradio 560 WQAM during the 1997-2004 and 2007-09 seasons.

As part of the agreement, Sportsradio 560 WQAM has the English radio broadcast rights for all preseason, regular season and playoff games. Dolphins fans who tune into Miami's Sportsradio 560 WQAM have the opportunity to listen to live broadcasts of Head Coach Brian Flores's day-after-game press conferences and "Dolphins Friday," a day of Dolphins-centric content on the station featuring interviews with players, coaches and team executives. Additionally, CBS Radio Miami promotes Miami Dolphins Foundation and community initiatives across multiple platforms.

The preseason English radio broadcast team on Sportsradio 560 WQAM consists of former wide receiver Jimmy Cefalo handling the play-by-play duties with former tight end Joe Rose providing the game analysis. During the regular season, Cefalo and Rose are joined by former Hall of Fame quarterback Bob Griese serving as an analyst with former Dolphins Pro Bowl linebacker/defensive end Kim Bokamper reporting from the sidelines.

Univision Deportes Radio 1140 AM is the Dolphins official Spanish radio broadcast partner for all preseason, regular season and playoff games (with Roly Martin handling the play-by-play and Eduardo Martell providing the game analysis). WQBA 1140 AM additionally airs a pregame show and postgame show.
